Council To Vote On Rejoining ACOG

The Oklahoma City Council will vote Tuesday on rejoining the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists (ACOG) on the recommendation of the Oklahoma City Council Planning and Development Committee. The recommendation was made during a meeting on Oct. 20.

If the council approves the recommendation, the city will send a letter to ACOG expressing interest in rejoining the organization. The letter will outline the city's commitment to promoting women's health and ensuring that all residents have access to quality healthcare services.

The decision to rejoin ACOG is a significant one for the city, as it will provide access to resources and information on best practices in women's health care.

Osage Revolt Helps INCOG Get In Gear

The Osage Revolt was a significant event in the history of the Osage Nation, which helped to bring about the creation of the Osage Nation led by INCOG (Indian National Congress of Oklahoma). This event took place on [date], and it played a crucial role in the development of the organization.

The Osage Revolt was a protest by the Osage people against the policies of the United States government, which had been exploiting their natural resources for profit. The Osage people were determined to protect their land and way of life, and they fought bravely for their rights.

INCOG has continued to work for the rights of the Osage people, and it has played a key role in bringing about positive changes in the lives of Osage people. The organization has been successful in negotiating better deals for the Osage people with the oil companies that operate on their land.

Ballet Security Tightened

Respect Feelings Of POWs

Public sentiment must be with the three released American prisoners of war. But that sentiment must not be expressed without some kind of restraint.

Public and private letters to the three men who are to be returned to the United States will, of course, be welcome. But the men must be returned to freedom as soon as possible.

The first of the three men to be returned is John B. Williams, a native of Tulsaland. Williams was captured by the North Vietnamese people in 1965 and has been held in captivity ever since.

The second of the three men to be returned is John B. Williams, a native of Tulsaland. Williams was captured by the North Vietnamese people in 1965 and has been held in captivity ever since.

Chances Of Getting Husband Off Alimony Hook Slim

By STEVE KANE

The Second Wife—IX

The odds of getting your husband off alimony hook slim, even if you're in the Second Wife的位置. It's a difficult situation to navigate in the divorce process.

According to experts, the chances of getting alimony reduced or eliminated are low unless there is a significant change in your or your ex-husband's financial situation. The duration of the marriage, the contributions each partner made during the marriage, and the standard of living established during the marriage are also factors that can affect the amount of alimony.

In many cases, the Second Wife finds herself in a precarious financial situation, especially if she was not the primary breadwinner. It's important to seek legal advice to understand your rights and options,

Opposition To Eastland Discounted

By John Drake

WASHINGTON — Opponents of the Eastland discount are being swamped by the tidal wave of support the plan is expected to receive.

The White House has notified the Congress that the Eastland discount is expected to receive.

The plan was announced last week by President John F. Kennedy, who said it would be a major step forward in the effort to end the war in Vietnam. The plan was expected to be endorsed by Congress, which has been divided on the issue.
