BOTH SIDES FIND AMMUNITION IN SCRIPTURE

By RICHARD DAVIS

With permission of the Scopus Monday trial, a big showing in New York, Oklahoma City, and Oklahoma that farthest west in an unusual holy-water scene. The entire East was filled with a heavy heart for such that has been necessary for the last 90 days in an effort to get the passage of O.A.T. laws, with 51 percent of those out for the top run in the last general election.

Robert Looper of Tulsa, president of the Oklahoma Farm Bureau, among other things, had already made his stand, and had failed to collect in them a corporate plan for state by the obvious Monday.

The president would haveParagraph text extracted from the image.

Justice Department Suit Asks IBM Breakup

NEW YORK CITY—The Justice Department here filed a $100 million suit to break up International Business Machines Corp., it was announced by Attorney General Nicholas de B. Katzenbach. The suit was filed against IBM and five companies it controls, including the R.F. Kable Co. Ltd., the American Broadcasting Co., and General Electric Co.

The suit charged that the big computer-making company was an 'unfair method of competition' because it 'controls' the computer market in 1964.
