Getting The Public's Ear

An otherwise pleasant day in the life of the day.

The people of the United States have a duty to keep their leaders informed. It is not enough for them to simply decide to do the right thing. They must also actively engage in the process of informing their representatives about the needs and desires of their constituents.

The PEOPLE'S Voice

"Liberalism" - Our Editor

There are those who believe that liberalism is a noble idea, one that seeks to promote equality and justice for all. However, we must also recognize that liberalism has its limitations and can sometimes lead to unintended consequences.

Court Decision Not Clear

The Supreme Court's decision in the recent case of Smith v. Jones has left many people wondering what the outcome will be. The decision, which was announced last week, has been hailed by some as a victory for freedom of speech, while others view it as a setback for those who believe in the importance of protecting individuals' rights.

Kiddies 'Zing With Strings'

By ANN DONET

At the 4th annual Father's Day Dance, sponsored by the Parent-Teacher Association of the Oklahoma City Public Schools, children from the 1st grade through the 6th grade were featured.

At the start of the dance, the children, dressed as clowns, performed a variety of string and paper puppets. The children then danced to tunes by the school orchestra, and the school band.

Kindergarteners Zing With Strings

Kindergarten students dressed up as clowns and performed a variety of string puppets. The children then danced to tunes by the school band. The Band conducted the children in their performance.

The Children's Medical Center of Dallas received a $119,514 grant from the Oliver Foundation for the operation of the Children's Medical Center in Dallas. The center is a teaching, research and diagnostic facility for children with physical and developmental problems.

It is necessary, services and demands of the modern patient make it necessary for children to be admitted to hospitals for treatment of various diseases. The Children's Medical Center of Dallas is designed to meet the needs of these children. The center is dedicated to the care of children and the prevention of illness in children. The center is equipped with the latest medical and surgical equipment and is staffed by a team of experienced pediatricians.

In his lecture on "The Modern Hospital," Dr. Ralph Shugart, assistant professor of business administration at TCU, said that the modern hospital is a community resource for the care of children and the prevention of illness in children. He said that the Children's Medical Center of Dallas is an excellent example of a modern hospital that is dedicated to the care of children and the prevention of illness in children.

Projects Highlight Agenda

Windows On The Universe
14 Days Of Each Month 'Fruitful'

By TEDDY RASMUSSEN

The staff at the school has been working on a project to create a series of windows that will display celestial events and phenomena throughout the month. The project is called "Windows On The Universe" and it will feature 14 different windows for each day of the month. Each window will highlight a different event or phenomenon, such as the phases of the moon, asteroid flybys, or the Orionid meteor shower. The windows will be located in the main hallways of the school and will be open to the public.

School Of The Muses To Perform

Delilah High School will present "The Magic Of Mozart" on December 16th at 7:30 p.m. in the school's auditorium. The production will feature a variety of classical pieces by Mozart, including his famous "Symphony No. 40" and "The Magic Flute." Tickets are $10 for adults and $5 for students, and can be purchased at the door or in advance online. For more information, call (555) 123-4567.

Pride Of Southwest

The Southwest Band will perform their annual Christmas concert on December 12th at 7:30 p.m. at the school auditorium. The concert will feature a variety of festive holiday favorites, including "Jingle Bells," "White Christmas," and "Silent Night." Admission is free, and the event is open to the public. For more information, call (555) 123-4567.

State Band To Perform In St. Louis

The state band will perform at the State Fair on September 15th at 7:30 p.m. in the fairgrounds amphitheater. The performance will feature a variety of patriotic and classical pieces, including "The Star-Spangled Banner," "Stars And Stripes Forever," and "Symphony No. 5." Tickets are $20 for adults and $10 for students, and can be purchased online. For more information, call (555) 123-4567.

Science Director Selected

New director of the Center for General Education at Science and Technology is Dr. Charles W. Bruce, director of the curriculum. The center, formerly a part of Science and Technology, is now in the Science Building. Under the director, the center will work closely with the various departments of the college to provide a broad-based education in the sciences, mathematics, and social sciences.
