Ousted Missionary Will Return To Adopted Land

By KNOCK NEREDER

For the past three generations of his family, the Rev. Howard C. Morgan, a native of Crawfordsville, Ind., has been a Presbyterian minister in Chiang Mai, Thailand. Last week, at 79, he returned to the United States where he will spend the remainder of his life.

Mr. Morgan was born in 1905 in Indiana and received his doctorate from the University of Chicago in 1932. He was ordained as a Presbyterian minister in 1933 and served his first church in Crawfordsville, Ind., from 1933 to 1937. In 1937, he moved to Thailand and has been there ever since.

Mr. Morgan has been active in various missionary organizations, including the Presbyterian Missionary Board and the Presbyterian World Missionary Council. He has also been involved in educational and cultural exchange programs between the United States and Thailand.

In his free time, Mr. Morgan enjoys reading, traveling, and spending time with his family. He currently resides in a retirement community in Chiang Mai, Thailand, where he plans to spend the rest of his life.

25 U.S. Guards
Using Heroin

WASHINGTON: A photo of the White House appeared in the Washington Post last week, showing a group of U.S. soldiers guarding the president's office. The photo, which was taken earlier this week, shows 25 U.S. soldiers standing in front of the White House. It is unclear whether the guards were using heroin or not, as heroin use among military personnel is a problem that has been increasing in recent years.
