The Paper That Tells Both Sides

At least one of the Chief's colorful aides in Washington, D.C., is casting around for new material for a future book. He needs he said, to work with something new.

YOU PROBABLY know that the fabled people are a rare breed. They can be found in nearly every town in Oklahoma. The record was set in 1933 when 17 of the 21 members of the group were killed in a single mine explosion.

The OFFICE Cops NPR to the scene of a bank robbery when a bank employee signaled them to take the money box for the police.

Don't know the name of the man who robbed the bank. All we know is that the police caught him.

THE REPORT is being drafted by a team of five detectives. They have been working on the case for the past three months.

GUNSHIP GAVE a farewell salute to the group as they left.

Many people think the group is too old. They say it is too hard toictured.

Psychosomatics — Stress May Spark Allergy

An apparently abandoned fire was smothered by a police officer who climbed into the basement of the house and shut off the gas. The officer was not injured.

Stress May Spark Allergy

Stress may be a major factor in the development of certain allergies, according to a new study.

Stressful events can trigger the body's immune system to produce antibodies that react to environmental allergens, according to researchers.

The shame of Oklahoma

Bootleggers influence in our state, county and local government was ended 10 years ago. But a new corruption of local government is gaining up. It's the so-called "private club."

These pool and neon-plush bars have multiplied into every nook and cranny of every county. There are nearly 1,000 of these private bars operating every day in Oklahoma alone which do all they please, operate on hours they choose. Some create problems. None pay state taxes.

It's time we controlled them, time to make local, license taxes are imposed. Millions of dollars in revenue has been lost which could have paid for regulations and enforcement.

"Bad Company" Scores Well

By NICK MADO

"Bad Company," the new movie starring Robert De Niro and Richard Gere, has been receiving rave reviews and is expected to become a box office hit. The film, directed by Michael Cimino and produced by David Geffen, tells the story of a group of Vietnam veterans who return to America and become involved in the counterculture movement of the 1960s.

The movie has been praised for its powerful performances, especially those of De Niro and Gere, who play two of the main characters. The film has also been lauded for its realistic portrayal of the Vietnam War and its impact on American society.

"Bad Company" opened in theaters nationwide last week and has already grossed over $10 million. It is expected to continue its strong performance at the box office in the coming weeks.

Circus Star's Cat Smart

Gossip

by Robin Adams Sloan

The circus is coming to town, and the stars are already getting ready for their big role. The most anticipated performer this year is none other than Mr. Midway himself, the famous nighttime entertainment that has thrilled audiences for decades.

But this year, there's a new star on the rise. Mr. Midway has announced that he will be bringing his cat, Smartie, to the circus. Smartie is a house cat who has become a sensation in recent months. He has appeared on television shows and has even been featured in a children's book.

Smartie's fans are already buzzing about his upcoming appearance at the circus. The cat has become known for his antics, such as playing the harmonica and juggling apples. His performances have brought joy to millions of people, and his fans are eager to see him in person.

Mr. Midway has said that Smartie's inclusion in the circus is a way to showcase the talents of ordinary pets. "This is an opportunity for Smartie to show the world that animals can be amazing performers," he said.

Smartie will be performing in the center ring of the circus, and his fans are already planning their attendance. The circus is expected to sell out quickly, so tickets are being sold at a premium.

"Mr. Midway is a legend," said one fan. "I can't wait to see Smartie perform!"

Dear Editor,

As your local representative I must once again appeal to you to stop the present practice of placing so-called "pop" songs on the radio during the night. These songs are not suitable for people of our age, and the words are often indecent.
