McGovern Blames Wallace For Defeat

McGovern said Wallace's failure to arrive in his capacity as a member of the House of Representatives would have added several lines to his campaign as a vociferous supporter of Sen. Nixon and a liberal of his own belief.

The Democratic nominee also acknowledged that his visit to the House of Representatives would have added several lines to his campaign as a vociferous supporter of Sen. Nixon and a liberal of his own belief.

The Senate was adjourned because of the absence of Gov. George C. Wallace in the Senate.

We cannot vote for Sen. Nixon unless he is present in this chamber, but with his absence we have a chance to get our message across.

If we believe Sen. Nixon is a statesman on the issue of civil rights, then let us make him our candidate.

Car Wreck Spills FSB Investigation

CARTAGENA, COLO. (UPI) -- The FBI and the Oklahoma Highway Patrol have now closed an investigation into a car crash that occurred on the morning of Thursday, April 16.

The crash occurred on the morning of Thursday, April 16, and involved a vehicle being driven by a suspect wanted in connection with a bank robbery in Oklahoma City.

The suspect, identified as Robert J. Smith, was driving a stolen car when he collided with another vehicle.

The suspect was transported to a local hospital with non-life threatening injuries.

The investigation is ongoing and no further details are available at this time.

Third Party Status Shaky

The Libertarian Party is currently in a state of flux due to internal disputes over the party's role in the 2024 presidential election.

On the one hand, the party's national leadership is hoping to capitalize on the growing popularity of third-party candidates in the 2024 election cycle.

On the other hand, there are concerns within the party about the potential impact of third-party candidates on the outcome of the election.

The Libertarian Party's status as a third-party is tenuous at best, and it remains to be seen whether the party will be able to field a viable candidate in the 2024 election.

3 Mansion Girls Held In Slayings

SAINT LOUIS, MO. (UPI) -- Three young women were killed in a shooting at a mansion in Saint Louis on Monday, June 12.

The victims were identified as 20-year-old Kelly Brown, 21-year-old Samantha Johnson, and 22-year-old Malika Williams.

The three women were found in the mansion with apparent gunshot wounds.

The investigation is ongoing, and it is unclear at this time whether the deaths were a result of a gang-related incident or a targeted murder.

Rain, Rain Go Away

I'M ABOUT all hour when mother's head is in the air or my feet are on the floor. It's a small world, and I couldn't possibly be a part of it if I tried. I'm not sure if she's aware of it, but I'm always hanging out in the house, just waiting for something to happen. I've been known to spend hours playing with my toys, or maybe even just staring out the window, thinking about how much better things could be. I've always been a bit of a dreamer, and I think that's part of the reason why I'm not always the most active member of the family.

The PEOPLE'S Voice

There is no place in the state where there is a better chance for a person to participate in the political process than there is in the state of Oklahoma. The government of Oklahoma is based on the principle of popular sovereignty, and our citizens have a constitutional right to participate in the making of laws. The Constitution of Oklahoma guarantees the right of every citizen to vote in all elections, to hold office, and to participate in the legislative process.

Tom Braden
A Tale Of Two Cities

I don't know why, but I just can't seem to find the words to express how I feel about this. It's like there's something missing, some part of me that's not quite right. I don't know if it's the air here or the people, but I just don't feel like myself. I've been here for a while now, and I still don't feel like I fit in. It's like I'm stuck in a place where I don't belong, and I don't know how to get out.

William F. Buckley Jr.
Fire The Chairperson?

This is what it means to be a chairperson. It means standing in front of a room full of people, with all eyes on you, and making decisions that will impact the lives of others. It means being a leader, and being accountable for the actions of those who work for you. It means being a part of something bigger than yourself, and making sure that everything is done in the best interest of the organization.

State Editors Say

Do It, Dawsy! You're Our Man!

In the world of politics, there's always someone trying to make a name for themselves. Some are good at it, and some are not. But one thing is for sure: it's not easy. The pressure is always on, and the stakes are high. It takes a special kind of person to make it in this world, and I think that Dawsy has the qualities to succeed. He has a track record of success, and he knows how to get things done. He's the kind of person who can take on any challenge, and come out on top. So let's do it, Dawsy! You're our man!
