Jet Slams Chicago Homes Killing 43 Congressman Dead

CHICAGO (AP) - A Cessna Airplane Flying with a group of Illinois congressman was killed late Friday night when it crashed into a house in Chicago and exploded into a fireball. About 70 people were killed in the plane crash, including 43 Congressman Emmerich of the 1st district, who was killed in the plane. The plane was on its way to Washington, D.C., to attend a joint session of Congress. It is believed that the plane was carrying a group of Illinois congressmen back from a meeting in Washington. The crash site is located near O'Hare International Airport, where the plane was attempting to land.
