Looters Shot In Devastated Managua

MANAGUA, Nicaragua—Looters were killed while looting among money and food supplies yesterday. Two armed men in a truck were stopped by soldiers and shot dead. The shooting was witnessed by residents of the area. This is the worst recent incident in Managua.

Way Down Yonder in New Orleans

Even better than a movie script is the story of the gentlemanly bandit who used to be known as "Black Jack" in New Orleans. He was the subject of a famous serial in the 1920s. Last week, the bandit returned to his old haunts, this time to bring some much-needed relief to the local residents.

THE OKLAHOMA JOURNAL, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 24, 1957
Pope Decries Suffering From War

Boston, Dec. 23 - Pope Paul VI on Friday denounced the war in southeast Asia, saying in a speech to a large crowd that it had become "an enormous scourge." The pontiff also expressed his deep concern over the plight of refugees and displaced persons, urging the international community to do more to alleviate their suffering.

In his speech, the pontiff called for a "humane approach" to the war, emphasizing the need for "human rights and humanitarian assistance." He appealed to the leaders of both sides to "seek a just and lasting peace," and urged them to "exercise restraint and moderation." The pontiff also called for "a just and lasting solution to the refugee crisis."

Thieves With Taste

In this age of crime, it's comforting to know that there are still people who take pride in their thievery.

A recent incident in Oklahoma City illustrates this point. A man was caught trying to steal a diamond from a local jewelry store. When asked why he chose that particular store, he said, "It was easy." But the real question is, "Who's stealing who?"
