Judge Favors Boost In Grand Juror Prospects

BY LARRY CANNON

The Norman Transcript

In a move to increase the number of potential jurors, the State's Attorney in Oklahoma County has proposed a new system that would allow individuals to request to be on a jury panel. The current system relies on a random selection process, but the proposed system would allow individuals to express interest in serving on a jury. The Attorney believes that this would increase the number of qualified jurors, thereby improving the justice system.

Time To Get On With It

Old arguments of our country are being presented again. It seems that from the cold war to the war on terrorism, we are always fighting.

The question is, do we really hit the target of the war on terrorism by our policy of fighting terrorism? A particular concern of the country's policy is whether it is fair to the people of the United States.

It's important to note that the United States is not alone in this. Europe is also struggling with the same issues.

The Chamber's chief economist at the Chamber, presented presents the
