Legislator Calls it Disgrace

Angela's OU Talk Hit

By DON GILLIS

Vowing to speak the \"hard and painful\" truth, a University of Oklahoma student has been invited to address the Oklahoma House of Representatives on the issue of academic freedom and theottie of free speech.

\"I am\'m trying to make people realize that Angela\'s story isn\'t just about Angela,\" said the legislator, \"it\'s about all of us.\"

The legislator, who asked not to be named, said she was invited to speak by the OU student, who arranged for the meeting with the members of the House Education Committee. The legislator said she plans to use the opportunity to educate the lawmakers about the importance of free speech and the issue of academic freedom.

\"I\'m glad\'m doing this,\" she said. \"I think it\'s important that people hear from people who\'re not in the mainstream.\"

Judge Declares
Movie Obscene

By LAURIE CANNON

In a highly publicized trial, an Oklahoma County Judge ruled Tuesday afternoon that the film \"Last Night in Soho\" is obscene.

\"I will not tolerate obscenity in this state,\" the judge said,\"I will do whatever I can to prevent the dissemination of such material.\"

The movie, which was released in theaters last month, has been at the center of a legal battle between the studio and the state officials who sought to ban it. The judge said the film\'s explicit content and the way it was presented were \"clearly obscene.\"

\"I hope this sends a strong message to anyone who thinks they can get away with such behavior,\" the judge added. \"I will not stand for it.\"

Panel To Approve U.S. Prison Plan

By DON GILLIS

The House Corrections Committee has approved a bill that would expand the capacity of the state prison system and provide funding for new facilities.

\"This is a necessary step to address the overcrowding in our prisons,\" said the committee\'s chairman. \"We\'ve heard the calls for action and we\'re responding.\"

House Leaders Near Tax Cut Agreement

By DON GILLIS

The House Leadership appears to be close to reaching a deal on a tax cut plan that would reduce state income taxes.

\"We\'ve been working hard to strike a balance between tax relief and the need to balance the budget,\" said the speaker. \"I think we\'ve found a way to do both.\"

Demos Reject Token Relief

By DON GILLIS

The Democratic Leadership has rejected a proposal to provide token relief for families in need.

\"We believe that token relief is not enough,\" said the leader. \"We need to do more to help these families.\"

Postal Service To Get New Private Mail Plan

The Postal Service announced yesterday that it will launch a new private mail plan, allowing businesses to use its network for delivery.

\"This will give businesses more options and help them stay competitive,\" said the postmaster general. \"We\'ve been working on this for a while and we\'re excited to roll it out.\"

Inside News

Griddler Fined

Griddler, the popular barbeque restaurant, has been fined by the city for code violations.

\"We\'re disappointed with the fine,\" said the owner. \"We\'ve been trying to improve our operations and we\'ll work to make improvements.\"

Fords Democrat

Standard Life Suits Total $7 Million

By GARY MENDRO
Four lawsuits totaling over $7 million were filed in Los Angeles Superior Court against Standard Life and Accident Insurance Co., a New Hampshire-based firm, and its subsidiaries, in connection with the recent savings and loan crisis.

The suits were filed by New York City, with $2.5 million in claims, and by the state of New Mexico, for $2.4 million in claims. New Mexico was one of the states to sue the company in the past.

The suits claim that Standard Life and its subsidiaries, including New Mexico Life, failed to disclose key financial information to investors.

Standard Life denied the allegations and said it would vigorously defend itself in court.
