Hall ‘Lived Like a King,’ Gov. Boren Says

Boren Forgets Tux

WASHINGTON - Like the proverbial bird that has flown, Gov. David Hall, now living on a shoestring in a hotel, was feeling the pinch of his first week in office. The new governor, however, had a visitor who could have been himself.

"He must have lived like a king," Boren said, before heading for his own ways, and losing a place

City's Budget Remains Tight

By TERREY MAXON

Oklahoma City is facing another year of limited growth, one in which the city will be challenged to maintain its current level of services.

The city has already adopted a budget for the fiscal year, but the city's financial situation remains tight. The city is facing a $20 million budget deficit, and the city is looking to cut expenses to maintain its current level of services.

The city's budget is expected to grow by about 3%, but the city is looking to cut expenses in other areas to maintain its current level of services.

Meet Ella Grosso

Ella Grosso is the new governor of Connecticut. She is the fourth woman governor in United States history and the first to be elected on her own merits.

All the other lady governors had the help of famous and powerful husbands.

Ella Grosso is the three-year-old daughter of a baker who came to the United States from Italy. Her husband is a retired school principal. The Grossos have two grown children.

"Ella" has never lost an election in 30 years in politics. She has served in the Connecticut legislature and the United States Congress. She is a Democrat.

Girls Don't Have to Wear Pink!

There is a custom that girls always wear pink and boys always wear blue. This stereotyped or old way of looking at things is on its way out.

In keeping with this change, Congress has passed new rules that will stop sex discrimination or unfairness in schools that get government money. When President Ford signs this bill into law, boys and girls will have to be offered equal opportunities.

Equal Career Choices

This new rule will give both sexes wider career choices. Now, if girls want to take auto mechanics, they can. If boys want to take home economics, they can. The doors to all classes will be open to everybody.

Equal Sports Opportunities

In sports, the new bill means that elementary school girls will have more chances to compete with boys.

In colleges and high schools, there will be many, many more athletic activities for girls. Some even try out for boys' teams where there are no girls' teams offered.

Limit To Federal Spending

"When a conservative Republican president signs a bill that is full of government spending, we have a perfect illustration of what is wrong with our political system," an editorial page writer said. "It is time to put an end to this kind of waste." The writer called for a limit on federal spending, saying that it would reduce the size of government and help the economy.

Sea Cadets Taste Navy Life

By STEVE BOWN

“Teenagers learn the basics of sea navigation, and then use that knowledge to navigate through the ocean. We train them in many areas, such as navigation, communication, and leadership. They also get to experience the thrill of sailing on a real ship.”

Each Friday at the Bay City Yacht Club, 20 Sea Cadets are inducted into the Navy. A ceremony takes place at 5:30 p.m., followed by dinner. At 6 p.m., the Sea Cadets gather in the main hall to receive their uniforms and see the ship for the first time. Then, they are divided into two groups, each having a different job to prepare for the ship’s departure.

The cadets learn the basics of sea navigation, and then use that knowledge to navigate through the ocean. We train them in many areas, such as navigation, communication, and leadership. They also get to experience the thrill of sailing on a real ship.

The Sea Cadets participate in various activities, such as sailing, cooking, and maintenance of the ship. They also learn about the history of the Navy and its role in national defense.

I have been keeping an argument with my wife about the way we should raise our children. I believe that we should be strict and discipline them firmly. My wife, on the other hand, believes that we should be more lenient and encourage them to be independent.

I am writing to you because I am not sure who is right. I have read several articles and books about parenting, but they all seem to favor one approach over the other. I would appreciate any advice or guidance you can offer.

Veterans’ Benefit Extension Proposed

The Veterans’ Affairs Committee has proposed an extension to the current benefit program for veterans. The extension would provide additional benefits to veterans who have served in the military and have been discharged under honorable conditions.

The extension would provide benefits such as medical care, education, and housing assistance. It would also provide financial support to veterans who have incurred significant medical expenses.

The extension is needed to ensure that veterans receive the support they need to transition back to civilian life. Without the extension, many veterans would struggle to make ends meet and would struggle to access the care they need.

The extension is expected to cost $5 billion over the next 10 years. The cost would be offset by cuts to other programs, such as Social Security and Medicare.

The extension is currently being debated in Congress and is expected to be signed into law by the end of the year.
