Wheat Going Under?

Editorial

GUYMON — Wheat prices have continued to drop in recent weeks, and the situation is now very serious. The recent gallonage reports from the Wheat Exchange in New York indicate that the price of wheat has declined to a new low. The wheat market is now in a very critical situation, and action must be taken to prevent further decline.

By DON HARTLEY

The current wheat market is very volatile, and prices are subject to sudden changes. The recent reports indicate that the situation is worsened by the current drought conditions in parts of the wheat belt. The current time is very critical, and action must be taken to prevent further decline.

Ombudsman

The Ombudsman has received several complaints about the current situation. The Ombudsman is monitoring the situation closely and will take action as necessary.

American
Grider Likely Choice
As Interim Director

JIMMIE SHEARER
Grider, who was assistant secretary of state, will be named to replace retiring Secretary Thomas Clark on an interim basis. It was an expected announcement.

Grider was appointed by Governor Thomas Clark in April, 1971, to serve as Secretary of State until the end of the term in 1972. He was re-elected in 1972 and served until his resignation in 1974.

The announcement was made public following a meeting of the State Council in Oklahoma City. It was not clear when Grider would take over the duties of the Secretary of State.

Sill Captain Loses
In Supreme Court

WASHINGTON—The Supreme Court, in a 5-4 decision, upheld the constitutionality of the Sill
v. Consolidated Edison Co. of New York, Inc. case.

The case involved the constitutionality of the New York State Labor Relations Board's decision to order the Sill company to reinstate an employee who had been dismissed for striking.

The Supreme Court ruled that the New York State Labor Relations Board had the authority to order the Sill company to reinstate the dismissed employee.
