Babylon' Goes On Despite 178 Deaths

BABYLON (UPI) - A giant U.S. Air Force cargo plane loaded with military equipment took off from a military base here at daybreak Friday to fly to the capitals of five African nations. The plane, carrying over 300 tons of cargo, was the latest in a series of military flights since the end of the war in 1973. At least 300 tons of cargo are being flown to five African nations.

The U.S. is providing military aid to support the war in Somalia, a U.S. ally in the Horn of Africa. The U.S. military aid is being provided to support the war effort, and is expected to be used for military purposes.

South African military aid was used in the Middle East and to support the war in Somalia. The U.S. military aid is expected to be used to support the war effort.

In a letter sent to the Department of State, Secretary of State Henry Kissinger said the U.S. aid was expected to be used for military purposes. The aid is expected to be used for military purposes.
