Prize Crosswords Worth $600—See Page 2

Want To Buy Your Underground Lines?

Senate Utility Bill Called 'Anti-Consumer'

By HOWARD DAVIS
The Oklahoma Journal
A spokesmen for Oklahoma Gas and Electric Co., describing it as a "fair and reasonable" rate, is a bill pending in the house which would make customers buy and install their own underground services and would do away with the use of the precautionary service for the application of gas and water, "as to our opinion it would require all future underground installations to be paid for and maintained by our customers. It would also require all electric and gas customers to pay for the installation of their own underground services at their own expense."

PRESIDENT LINCOLN will never find a more devoted son than himself, and I sneer out the rear of the house, where he is always found. As a small boy, his headquarters were the back yard of the White House.

$600 Awaits Crosswords Pot Winner

By MIKE SMITH
The Oklahoma Journal
A $600 pot is just one of the many attractions that make the prize crossword game "The Saturday Evening Post" one of the most popular games in the country. It is estimated that more than 500,000 people play the game every week.

Joyful Tears Flow
As Orphans Arrive

By STEVE BOYD
The Oklahoma Journal
The New York World was reporting that the 800 orphans had arrived in New York City on the steamer "Orphans," which is expected to dock today.

Soggy Day In Store
For State

The weather report stated that sodden streets, scattered showers, and high water were expected in Oklahoma City, and that the state would be on the alert for possible flooding. The Oklahoma City Police Department was on high alert, and residents were urged to stay inside and be prepared for flooding.

Inside News

Christina's Room

A year ago the world was in a depression, and average temperature was 15.8.

GUNNERS SHELL SAIGON SUBURB
Soviet's Fail to Launch Try By Police

The Oklahoma Journal
South Reoccupies Nha Trang

Rear Adm. S. D. H. Edgerton, took command of the U.S. Navy's Seventh Fleet in the Gulf of Tonkin, as part of the effort to restore South Vietnamese control over the region.

SAIGON (UPI) — Rear Admiral S. D. H. Edgerton, took command of the U.S. Navy's Seventh Fleet in the Gulf of Tonkin, as part of the effort to restore South Vietnamese control over the region.

Busing Foes Jostle Teddy Kennedy

By BENEDICTO CHIAPERI
The Oklahoma Journal

The Supreme Court ruled that school districts may not use race as a criterion for busing students to achieve racial balance, a decision that could have far-reaching implications for public education across the country.

Diary Found In Sub Yields Secrets

By MICHAEL CRANE
The Oklahoma Journal

A diary found in the underground mines of a coal mine in West Virginia has been recovered by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The diary, written by a miner, details the conditions and dangers faced by miners in the mines.

Looking for ways to protect yourself when you're downloading and using software? Ensure that you always install and update software from reputable sources. Keep your security software up-to-date, and be cautious about clicking on suspicious links or downloading files from untrusted sources.
Weddings

Child Abuse Complaints Go Unheeded

Ask Dr. Lamb...

Flying's Fine For Stroke Victim

Richard Clay Home Scene Of Gala Party Honoring Trigere

Polly's Pointers...

How Can Baker Save Energy?

SOFAS SOFAS SOFAS
FURNITURE MART

EMPIRE THEATRE
THE CARPET MART
Fonda Says Marlon's Mom Pushed Him Into Acting Career

By CASE MARSH

Great movie actor Marlon Brando was pushed into acting by his mother, who noticed his acting talent as a child.

Marlon Brando was born in Omaha, Nebraska, on April 3, 1924. His mother, Kate Brando, was a talented actress and singer who had hoped to make a name for herself in Hollywood. However, she was forced to give up her acting career to raise her five children, including Marlon.

Kate Brando noticed Marlon's acting talent at an early age and encouraged him to pursue a career in acting. She taught him the basics of acting and helped him get his first job as a child actor in a local theater.

Marlon Brando went on to become one of the most iconic actors of all time, with roles in films such as "A Streetcar Named Desire," "The Godfather," and "Apocalypse Now." His mother's encouragement and support played a crucial role in his success.

Kate Brando died in 1974, but her influence can still be seen in Marlon's work. He always credited his mother as his biggest supporter and source of inspiration.

Marlon Brando's legacy continues to this day, with his work serving as an inspiration to generations of actors. His mother's belief in him and encouragement helped shape him into the legend he became.
Nothing Quite Like An Opening Day

Strap

Baseball

Knocks

Roll Into

Power Paces

Sooners

The Box Score

SPORTS

POWER PACES SOONERS

Nothing Quite Like An Opening Day

Turnpike A Powerful Meet

GGG Victory Springs Weiskopf Into Masters

Benton Services Scheduled Today

Vietnamese Tots Met By Nervous Parents

$150 Toward a Canon WP-1000
NBA Playoffs Debut Tuesday

Rangers Capture Top Spot

Prep Standings

Patty Gets 4th Victory in 7 Starts

Its Wind-Aided Week For Trackmen

West Meet Kicks Off Busy Week

Best Performances

Watch For Our Grand Opening Ad

Soon To APPEAR in the Oklahoma Journal

Lawn Mowers
AND CYCLEY

MICHELIN X ON SALE
STEEL-BELTED RADIALS

FREE COLOR TV

FREE SPARES & DONUTS

Free to Nearest Dealer

We Stand Behind Our Guarantee!
National Briefs

Levi Urges Handgun Control

The San Francisco Lawrence Journal reports that Levi Strauss, the company that is primarily known for its jeans, has begun advocating for stricter gun control laws. Strauss's company, which was founded in 1853, has a long history of social and political activism. In a statement, Strauss praised the recent move by the mayor of San Francisco to ban the sale of assault-style weapons within the city limits. Strauss expressed concern about the number of gun-related deaths and injuries nationwide and called for Congress to enact similar bans at the federal level.

Weather Word

Study Says Surgery Not Enough

A study published in the Journal of the American Medical Association found that surgery is not always the best option for treating various medical conditions. The study, which was conducted on a large sample of patients, showed that in many cases, non-surgical treatments were just as effective as surgery. The findings suggest that doctors may need to consider alternative treatments before recommending surgery, which can be invasive and costly.

Train Carrying Gas, Car Details

Train Carrying Gas, Car Details

Yesterday afternoon, a train carrying tank cars of liquefied natural gas (LNG) derailed near the city limits of a small town. The accident occurred on a bend in the tracks, and the cars were carrying about 200,000 gallons of LNG. Emergency responders arrived on scene within minutes and were able to control the release of the gas. There were no reports of injuries, but the town was on lockdown as a precaution.

Continues Reactor Story

In what appears to be a significant development, the Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) has announced that it will begin an investigation into the safety of a nuclear reactor located near a major city. The reactor, which has been operational for several decades, has been experiencing an increasing number of incidents. The NRC's investigation will focus on the reactor's design and operation, as well as the company that manages it.

Hunt Sees Dark Horse Chance

In what could be a significant surprise, a Dark Horse candidate has emerged in the race for governor. The candidate, who has not previously run for political office, is gaining momentum in the polls and is challenging the frontrunner in the race. The Dark Horse candidate's message of change and reform is resonating with voters, and experts are predicting a tight race in the upcoming election.

World Briefs

Weekend Toll In Belfast: 10

In what appears to be a significant step, the government of Northern Ireland has announced that it will begin to reduce the toll on the main road into Belfast. The toll, which has been in place for several years, has been a source of controversy and protest. The government's decision is seen as a positive step towards peace and reconciliation in the region.

Food Value Report

Compare the Value with any other medium-size Hamburger

BRAZIER BURGER

100% beef, finely ground 1/4 lb. Toasted Sesame Bun

NEW, LOW PRICE 39¢

Our Computer tells Us We Can Sell For Less!

This is one of the secrets of Food Value Report to the people in the Oklahoma City area. It's the same food sold at other stores but with delivery, no tipping, and quality. It's the same good food we're served before for under $2.50.

Compare the Quality

This is one of the secrets of Food Value Report to the people in the Oklahoma City area. It's the same food sold at other stores but with delivery, no tipping, and quality. It's the same good food we're served before for under $2.50.

Dairy Queen

"Let it all go to Dairy Queen"

Dairy Queen, the ice cream giant, is offering a new promotion: "Let it all go to Dairy Queen." The promotion allows customers to donate their food to a charity of their choice in exchange for Dairy Queen ice cream. The company hopes that this will encourage people to think about their food waste and support local organizations.

Tax Protest Groups Spied On By IRS?

Two major groups of tax protesters, the Tea Party and the National Tea Party, have been under investigation by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS). The groups, which have been protesting against government overreach and tax policies, have been targeting high-income individuals and corporations. The IRS has been accused of targeting these groups for political reasons.

Reds Bring In Planes

The Washington Post reports that the government of Cuba has begun bringing in Planes. The aircraft are being used to transport goods and supplies to the island nation. The move is seen as a significant development in the relations between the two countries, which have been estranged for decades.

Vital Statistics

Pope Appoints New Members

Pope Francis has appointed a new group of members to the Vatican's commission for the protection of minors. The commission, which was established in 2018, is charged with investigating cases of sexual abuse within the Catholic Church. The new members are expected to be announced in the coming weeks.

Stolen Paintings Recovered

In what could be a significant breakthrough, art collectors have recovered several stolen paintings that were taken from a museum in Paris several years ago. The paintings, which were valued at millions of dollars, were recovered after a tip from a historic society. The museum is expected to welcome the public back soon.
Wealthiest Woman? It May Be Christina

Christina Onassis

NEW YORK (AP) — Christina Onassis, the daughter of Aristotle Onassis, is reported to be the world’s richest woman. Christina, who inherited a fortune estimated at $2 billion from her father, is reportedly worth more than $10 billion. She is believed to be the richest woman in the world.

Christina was born in Athens, Greece, in 1946. She is the daughter of Aristotle Onassis, who was a Greek shipping magnate and a close friend of Jacqueline Kennedy. After her father’s death in 1975, Christina inherited a large portion of his fortune.

Christina Onassis has been involved in various philanthropic activities. She has donated large sums to various causes, including education, art, and culture. She is also a supporter of the Greek Orthodox Church.

Christina Onassis is known for her low profile and her reclusive nature. She spends much of her time at her home in Athens, Greece.

Onassis’s wealth has made her a target of paparazzi and the media. However, she has remained relatively private, and little is known about her personal life.

Indian Folkslore Film Showing Set

Chickasaw, a documentary film about the Chickasaw Indians, will be shown at the University of Oklahoma on Tuesday, April 26.

Chickasaw is a nation of more than 1,000 members who live in the southeastern United States. They are descended from the Choctaw, Chickasaw, and Natchez nations.

The film features interviews with Chickasaw leaders and members, as well as historical footage and images. It is produced by the National Geographic Society and the United States Department of the Interior.

The film will be shown at 7 p.m. in the University Union Auditorium.