Today's Rads Unlike Founders

One wonders what the "unnoticed foundress" of YCC would be doing at Concord Mills, the other day. It was the story of the involvement of the United States in World War II and the way in which the country was mobilized to fight that war. It was a story of how the country came together and worked hard to win the war.

Acceptance Off Fair in System

The last time I wrote to you, I was expressing my concern about the way in which the parole system was operating. I feel that the system is not working as it should, and that it is not serving the best interests of the parolees.

Welfare Department Plans Blinn House Takeover Today

By LARRY CANNON

The State Welfare Department will announce plans today to take over and operate the Oklahoma City shelter for the Department of Social Services, 47th and Robinson.

The announcement will be made at a press conference at 10 a.m. on the west side of the shelter, according to David M. Julian, head of the department.

The shelter is located in the old bluestone building.

The shelter is currently operated by the Oklahoma City Housing Authority.

Julian said the shelter is being taken over to provide more space for the growing number of welfare recipients.

The shelter is one of the largest in the state and is located in the heart of the city.

The new shelter will be located at 47th and Robinson, across from the old bluestone building.

Julian said the shelter will be operated by the Oklahoma City Housing Authority.

The shelter will provide housing for up to 200 people.

The shelter will be open 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

The shelter will also provide medical and mental health services to its residents.

The shelter will be staffed by professionals who have expertise in providing services to welfare recipients.

The shelter will be equipped with modern amenities, including laundry facilities, a kitchen, and a recreation room.

The shelter will also have a daycare center for children.

The shelter will be a safe and comfortable place for welfare recipients to live.

The shelter will be staffed by experienced professionals who will provide the best possible care for its residents.

The shelter will be a vital resource for the city of Oklahoma City.

The shelter will be a symbol of the city's commitment to helping its citizens.

The shelter will be a source of pride for the city of Oklahoma City.
