Crime Bureau Chief Says Morale High

The Oklahoma City Bureau of Investigation has noted a marked increase in high-crime cases, and its own records show that the bureau has been able to solve more cases than ever before.

Under the leadership of Chief Inspector John Smith, the bureau has implemented new strategies and technologies that have helped to reduce crime and improve public safety.

The chief said that the bureau's success can be attributed to the hard work of its members and the support of the community.

Cosell Gets Own Variety TV Show

NEW YORK CITY — Howard Cosell, programming's most versatile and charismatic star, will be taking his talents into the big time of television with a new series, "ABC's "Inside" with Howard Cosell." The show will premiere in September and will feature Cosell's unique blend of犀利 wit and on-air interviews with some of the biggest names in entertainment.

In announcing the Cosell show, the network also added another new program to its fall schedule, "First Love," a romantic comedy series about a young couple in New York City.

Cosell's new show is the latest in ABC's efforts to attract new viewers and capture the attention of a younger audience. The network has also introduced new programs such as "The Odd Couple: Reunion," and "The New Edition," and is riding the wave of the "Saturday Night Live" success.
