Tornado Hits Apartments

By STEVE HOPKINS

A "direct brown" funnel hit a southwest Oklahoma City apartment complex Tuesday afternoon, causing heavy damage in three units. The tornado was reported in the apartment complex where the storm struck the Southeast Village complex of SW 66 and NW 26th.

The apartment complex was destroyed by the tornado which resulted in a loss of most of the apartment complex and forced many of the lighted apartments to be closed, according to residents.

Some of the residents were not home when the tornado struck. The apartment complex was swept clean, and the residents were told by the Oklahoman Cornwall, Moore County, and Oklahoma City Police to leave the area.

The residents were told to evacuate the area and not to return to the apartments until the tornado had passed. The residents were told that the tornado had passed and they could return to the apartments.

NCAA Trips At Stake

By STEVE FLATLER
The Kansas City Star, The Des Moines Register

The University of Kansas basketball team has what is considered by many to be its best chance ever to win a national basketball title. If the Jayhawks defeat the University of Kentucky, they will likely move into the final four teams in the NCAA Tournament. The Jayhawks have a highly skilled team that can shoot the ball from anywhere on the court and has a strong defense that is ranked in the top 10 in the nation. With a victory over Kentucky, the Jayhawks could have a legitimate shot at the NCAA championship.
