Panel Deliberates 10 1/2 Hours

2-Year Inquiry Closes

by Gary Mason

The jury that spent 10 1/2 hours deliberating and 81 minutes listening to arguments before reaching a verdict in the trial of W.C. Winter, a former state senator from Ada, found him not guilty on a charge of bribery.

Two days later, the trial of Winter's former business partner, R.L. Holt, was also concluded, with the jury finding him guilty of embezzlement.

Winter had been on trial for 21 days, during which time 24 witnesses testified, including two former state senators, a former state treasurer, and a former state auditor.

The federal judge in the case, Walter E. Wehrle, told the jury that they had been deliberating for 10 1/2 hours, and that the trial had been marked by "a fair and impartial presentation of the evidence." He added that the trial had been "a model of how a trial should be conducted."

It makes good sense for your family to own cemetery property before it is needed...

Concerned families today are wisely including the purchase of family cemetery property in their plans for complete family security. They have seen first hand what happens to a family who neglects to plan in advance for a place of interment. They want to spare their family this distress and financial worry by selecting a memorial site now, before it is needed.

The One Purchase Every Family Must Make

Perhaps you feel you’re too young to think about a memorial plot now. Most people do; it is only human to think “there’s plenty of time for that.” But consider the advantages of buying in advance of need. You and your family can discuss your preferences sensibly, unemotionally together. You pay less than you inevitably will later on, and can budget your payments. Permanent care is included in the price of every plot. You enjoy a good selection at a beautiful, conveniently located, Arlington Memory Gardens. And you eliminate needless risks to your family’s security and your own peace of mind.

Renters Save Cash, Enjoy Life Too

If there is one thing that people like to shop around for, it's a good deal. Renters are no exception. Many tenants search for the best deals on rent, utilities, and other expenses. Renters can save money by negotiating with landlords or by looking for special promotions.

Natural Style Decors

Backyard gardens are a popular feature for many homeowners. In addition to providing a place to relax and enjoy nature, they can also be used to grow vegetables and herbs. Many homeowners also enjoy the aesthetic appeal of a well-maintained garden. It can be a source of pride and a way to express personal style.

Elegance Favored

Elegance is often associated with the classical style of architecture. This style emphasizes symmetry, harmony, and balance. Buildings designed in this style often feature columns, pediments, and other decorative elements. The use of materials such as stone, wood, and brick is also common in classical architecture. The resulting structures are often timeless and elegant, making them popular choices for homeowners and businesses alike.

Magical Interior

Many apartment complexes offer amenities that go beyond just a place to live. Some complexes have swimming pools, fitness centers, and other entertainment options. Others may offer special services, such as housekeeping or maintenance. These added features can make an apartment feel like a home away from home, and they can be a selling point for potential tenants.

Tennis Buffs will love Indian Creek Apartments

Indian Creek Apartments is a popular choice for tennis enthusiasts. The community offers a range of amenities, including a tennis court, a swimming pool, and a fitness center. With easy access to downtown Oklahoma City, Indian Creek is a convenient location for those who enjoy the city's many attractions.

Tips To Apartment Seekers

In buying an apartment, it is wise to consider your long-term transportation needs. Many apartments offer free or limited transportation service, which can be very helpful for commuting. It is also wise to consider the size of the apartment, as well as the amenities it offers. It is important to read reviews and ask for recommendations from other rental seekers. It is also wise to visit the apartment in person to see if it meets your needs and expectations.

Apartment Warranty

In buying an apartment, it is wise to consider the apartment warranty. Many apartments offer a warranty on the appliances, which can be very helpful for long-term rental seekers. It is important to read the warranty terms and conditions carefully, as well as the terms of the rental agreement. It is also wise to ask for recommendations from other rental seekers who have purchased an apartment warranty.

The Benefits of Renting

In buying an apartment, it is wise to consider the benefits of renting. Renting can be a very cost-effective way to live, as well as being very convenient. It is important to consider the location, size, and amenities of the apartment, as well as the terms of the rental agreement. It is also wise to ask for recommendations from other rental seekers who have rented an apartment.

The Best of both Worlds

In buying an apartment, it is wise to consider the best of both worlds. It is important to consider the location, size, and amenities of the apartment, as well as the terms of the rental agreement. It is also wise to ask for recommendations from other rental seekers who have rented an apartment.

Dr. Joyce Brothers: On a Strange Truth: You Don’t Have to Be Kidnapped to Have A “Captive” Mind

By Dr. Joyce Brothers
From Joyce or Parlay Weekly

A few months ago it seemed beyond comprehension to most Americans that Patty Hearst was kidnapped, the kind of young woman who seemed to be so happily pursuing her own interests in a way that was consistent with her values. How, then, could she end up as a member of a violent, revolutionary group?

We should all be able to say that this is a strange story. But every story is a truth, and that is the meaning of the truth. In every story, something happens that is not happening to you. And in every story, something happens that is happening to you.

As we consider the story of Patty Hearst, we may be tempted to think that she is a captive, or that she is a captive to the will of others. But the truth is that she is not a captive, and she is not a captive to the will of others.

The truth is that we all have a choice, that we all have the power to choose what we do. And the truth is that we all have the power to live our lives in a way that is consistent with our values.

As we consider the story of Patty Hearst, we may be tempted to think that she is a captive, or that she is a captive to the will of others. But the truth is that she is not a captive, and she is not a captive to the will of others.

Talks About Big Money, Big Pressure and "The Killer Instinct"

"I don't like guys going around saying they beat Jimmy Connors. I'm going to do everything I can to stop that. I just don't like to lose. This killer instinct is part of the game."

FAMILY WEEKLY: How did you get as good as you are?
CONNORS: I guess I just wanted to improve a good player and worked hard for it. I was coached by my mother and my grandmother until I was 12. After that, my father taught me how to hold the racket and how to swing it. He won a couple of tournaments with me once and that was with Fuchs. He's a great coach. The guy is in a boat and a great coach.

"I don't know. I've never played with anyone else."

CONNORS: Yeah, I don't like guys saying I don't beat him. It's not fair. I never played with any other players. That's just my way of saying I don't like to lose."

How to make your last two years of college mean even more.

Take the Army ROTC Two-Year Program.

If you’ve just about completed your second year of college, and you’re planning on two more, it’s not too late to take Army ROTC.

You start the program with nine weeks of Basic Camp (you’ll be paid for it) between your sophomore and junior years. Then it’s back to school in the fall. Learning how to become an Army officer while you’re working on your college degree. Earning an extra $100 a month, up to ten months a year.

And two years later, you’ll graduate with your degree, your commission as an Army officer, and some real experience at leading and managing people.

The last two years of college mean a lot. Take Army ROTC. Two-Year Program and you can make it mean a lot more.
Veteran Pancho Gonzales And Top Newcomers on Connors

Pancho Gonzales: "I Know How Jimmy Cooks—He Reminds Me Of Me At Last"

PANCHO GONZALES:

Pancho Gonzales, a legend in tennis, is known for his fiery temper and intense playing style. He has faced some tough challenges throughout his career, including various players who have risen to fame. In this article, he discusses his thoughts on the current players and his impact on the sport.

Why did you start playing tennis?

Pancho Gonzales: "I started playing tennis because I loved the game. It was a way for me to express my competitive nature and my creativity on the court. I always wanted to be the best, and that's what drove me to succeed."

What was your greatest highlight?

Pancho Gonzales: "One of my greatest highlights was winning the U.S. Open in 1968. It was a triumph for me, as I had been struggling with injuries and setbacks. That victory gave me a renewed sense of confidence and showed me that hard work and determination can pay off."

How do you think the game has evolved since you started playing?

Pancho Gonzales: "The game has definitely changed a lot since I started. Players today are more physically fit and technically advanced. They use more spin and varied shot selection, making it harder to predict their play. It's a more competitive environment, which is good for the sport."

What advice do you have for young players?

Pancho Gonzales: "I advise young players to focus on their fundamentals. Practice hard, stay dedicated, and never give up. Enjoy the game and stay humble. Success will come with time and perseverance."

What do you think about the current players?

Pancho Gonzales: "I think the current players are incredibly talented. Each one brings a unique style and perspective to the game. Finding the right balance between pressure and enjoyment is key to success."

What's your prediction for the future of tennis?

Pancho Gonzales: "I believe that tennis will continue to evolve, with more emphasis on strategy and footwork. The sport will remain popular and will attract even more fans around the world. It's an exciting time to be a part of tennis history."

BILLY MARTIN

Billy Martin hit 740 home runs and has been called the true successor to the Mantle-averaging as many as 300 home runs after Mantle, and a lifetime of 211 in 1966 at the age of 35. He is known as a great hitter, but he is also known for his dominating style.

His first career hit was a 3-run home run off of Bob Friend, who was the best pitcher in the league at the time.

By Marvin McLean — as told to Beth L. McCarthy

From my own personal experience, I knew there was nothing quite like being leashed, homelock and unwashed to turn a person's expectations on its head. But I was about to find out what it was like to be transformed by the gain.

In the fall of my senior year, I decided to move to Florida to pursue my dream of becoming a professional ballerina. However, when I arrived, I quickly realized that the stress of trying to fit in with the other dancers was taking its toll on my body. I felt like I was constantly failing and it showed in the way I looked.

One day, a friend of mine suggested that I try going on a all-liquid diet to help me shed some pounds. I was hesitant at first, but I knew I needed to do something drastic to change the way I felt about myself.

Over the course of just a few weeks, I lost 66 pounds. I felt amazing. I had more energy, I was happier, and I was able to do things that I never thought I could.

I know it sounds extreme, but it was worth it. I learned that taking care of yourself is important, and that you don't have to be perfect to be happy.

Now, whenever I look back on that time in my life, I'm grateful for the experience. It taught me a lot about myself and what I'm capable of. And it's a reminder to always be kind to yourself, no matter what.

Haven't you longed for an escape from the sterility of a modern world filled with cold plastic and hard-edge design? Come back to two hundred years. One Pennsylvania House Historical Collection contains that idea. You are looking at some of the greatest designs in the entire history of furniture.

These are the Queen Anne styling, for example—a classic that a 销售 商 handcrafted is available. Or the Black Rock styling, which was meant to be sold at a modest price.

Each of these designs is rich in American history and has been carefully selected by experts for its historical significance. They are made to be sold at a modest price, but what they lack in price, they more than make up for in quality.

Let our Pennsylvania House Historical Collection take your home. The story must continue. The next chapter is yours to write.
Quips & Quotes

A young mother who had given birth to a baby boy in the hospital decided to name him using a name she'd heard about. "Don't call him that," she told her husband. "You won't believe it, but it's the name of a cartoon character!"

"I know," replied his husband. "It's the name of a TV show!"

"No, no," she said. "The name of a cartoon character!"

"Oh, I see," he said. "You want to name him after a TV show character!"

"Exactly," she said. "It's 'Bob the Builder'!"
