Police Reject $70 Pay Hike Offer

By BILL EMERY
The OU News
Personal Communications Inc., the city's largest pay network has rejected a City wage and benefit proposal.

Personal Communications Inc. claims it has not yet been offered a satisfactory offer for a pay raise. The company has been offering the City an hourly wage of $8 per hour for the last 12 months.

The company has offered to pay an hourly wage of $10 per hour, which it claims is more than twice what it currently pays.

The company has also offered to pay for a benefit package that includes health insurance, dental insurance, and retirement benefits.

The city has rejected these offers citing the cost of the benefits package as too high.

The company has threatened to take legal action if the City does not accept its offer.

...the referee, after conferring with the linesman, penalized the Chiefs for a 15-yard illegal block penalty. The penalty gave the Dolphins an advantageous first down at the Chiefs 35-yard line. The Dolphins made good on the opportunity, as quarterback John L. Smith completed a 21-yard pass to receiver Bob Hoesmer, setting up the winning field goal.

A LAST-SECOND DECISION

A DIVINE INTERVENTION

In the final moments of the game, the Dolphins were facing a 4th down and 5th yardage situation at the Chiefs 35-yard line. Coach Shula called a time out to review the plays. The referees then took a look at the replay and called a penalty for illegal movement. The penalty gave the Dolphins an advantageous first down at the Chiefs 35-yard line.

The Waiting Game

The unprecedented gridlock in Congress, especially in the House, has drawn the attention of the nation and of analysts who are looking for a way to solve the budget crisis and other major issues. The stalemate is not only frustrating for lawmakers but also for voters who are concerned about the economy and other issues. The system of checks and balances is being tested, and the public is left wondering how much longer this deadlock will continue.

The PEOPLE’S Voice

Tom Braden
What Report Didn’t Say

Soignon Prices Drop

Soignon, France (AP) - A variety of major changes show that better prices are beginning to trickle down to consumers here and in nearby villages. The changes are part of a series of reforms aimed at improving the living standards of the poor in the Soignon region. Prices for goods such as bread, milk, and vegetables have dropped significantly, and farmers are feeling the benefits of higher demand for their products. The reforms were introduced as part of a wider economic plan to support local businesses and boost the region's economy. The new measures have been widely praised for their positive impact on the local community.
