Lakeshore Route Called 'Least Disruptive'

Homeowners' Group Backs West Bypass

A major residential association in northwest Oklahoma is backing an ambitious plan to save the proposed Lakeshore bypass.

The Lakeshore Route, a plan which would cost the most money, has been supported by the state's Department to proceed with construction of the $6 million route.

R. M. Miller, president of the association, said Friday that the route is "the only practical solution to the traffic problem in the area.

"The Lakeshore Route is a better solution in terms of cost and construction time," said Miller. "We are willing to contribute our property to the solution.

The route, which would provide a direct connection to the Lakeshore neighborhood, would be a major improvement for the area.

The Lakeshore Route was proposed as an alternative to the existing route, which is heavily congested.

The city council has approved the plan, and construction is expected to begin shortly.

India Tightens Curbs On Foreign Reporters

The Washington Post

The U.S. is tightening its visa requirements for foreign journalists, expanding the list of countries whose citizens are subject to visa restrictions.

The new rules, which go into effect today, will affect journalists from 12 countries, including China, Russia, and Iran. The changes come as part of a broader effort to restrict travel to the U.S. by officials and businesspeople from these countries.

Gas Shortage Not Likely?

The Oklahoman

Local newspapers, already under pressure from a series of closures, are now facing yet another challenge: the possibility of a gas shortage.

The Oklahoma City newspaper, which has been hit hard by the closure of other local newspapers, is facing the prospect of having to cut back on its gas usage.

Parents Announce Couples' Forthcoming Vows

South Korean Parents Announce Couples' Forthcoming Vows

Lenni Stathkiewicz

Burr D. Gentry

AUGUSTA, GA - South Korean parents of two of the most promising athletes in the United States announced their couples' forthcoming vows this week. The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chung, stated that they have decided to bring their children together in marriage after careful consideration.

The couples, who have been dating for several years, are both students at the University of Georgia. The parents hope that their children will continue to excel in their studies and athletics, and are confident that they will make good partners.

The ceremony will take place on the campus of the University of Georgia, and will be attended by family members and friends from both families. The parents have arranged for a traditional Korean wedding, complete with a feast and entertainment.

Ron Olowsin Wins Grant for Travel

TOKYO, JAPAN - Ron Olowsin, a prominent journalist, has been awarded a prestigious grant to travel to Japan to cover the Tokyo Olympics. The grant is sponsored by the Japanese government and is aimed at promoting cultural exchange between the two countries.

Olowsin is a highly respected reporter who has covered a wide range of topics, including politics, sports, and entertainment. He is known for his insightful reporting and his ability to capture the essence of a story.

Build 'Silent Valley'

In an effort to create a peaceful environment for residents, the city of San Francisco has announced plans to build a 'Silent Valley.' The valley will be located in a quiet area of the city and will be dedicated to those who seek a peaceful refuge.

The valley will be open to the public and will feature a variety of amenities, including gardens, fountains, and benches. It will be a place where people can relax and unwind, away from the noise and chaos of the city.

Aptos Will Use Solar Heat

APTOS, CALIFORNIA - Aptos, a small town in California, has decided to implement solar power in its energy system. The town is located in a region with abundant sunshine, making it an ideal location for solar power.

The town has partnered with a local company to install solar panels on the rooftops of several buildings. The panels will capture the sun's energy and convert it into electricity, reducing the town's reliance on fossil fuels.

North California's Leafy Hillside

NORTH CALIFORNIA - A leafy hillside in North California has been designated as a protected area. The hillside is home to a variety of plants and animals, and is an important ecological resource.

The area has been designated as a protected area to ensure its preservation for future generations. The local community has worked diligently to protect the hillside, and has been successful in raising awareness about its importance.

Tinker Country Parade Homes

TINKER COUNTY, OKLAHOMA - Tinker Country, a community in Oklahoma, has announced plans to hold a parade in honor of the community. The parade will feature floats, music, and dance performances.

The community is known for its friendly atmosphere and its commitment to the local economy. The parade will be a way to celebrate the community's achievements and to bring people together.

Land Transactions Top $2.1 Million

In yet another testament to the growing interest in the real estate market, land transactions have reached a new high. The total value of the transactions has reached $2.1 million, a significant increase from previous years.

The market has been hot, with investors and developers seeking to take advantage of the opportunities. The trend is likely to continue, as more people are drawn to the area for its potential for growth.

Lyric Theatre Marks 13th Year With New Director

By NANCY GILSON
Managing Editor

Lyric Theatre began 13 years ago as a small city center, with the hit show, "The Fantasticks." That first season featured an Off-Broadway hit, "The Fantasticks," starring "Kiss Me Kate" and "The Fantasticks." The 1980-1981 season was a turning point for the theatre, with the premiere of "The Fantasticks." The production was a huge success, and the theatre has been growing ever since.

"Now that we've made it through the first year, we're looking forward to another great season," said McQ. "We've got a lot of great shows lined up, and we're excited to see what our audience will think of them."

ABOUT THE PLAYHOUSE

Lincoln Plaza Playhouse Dinner Theatre is a professional theatre employing members of the Actor's Equity Association.

The Playhouse is locally owned and operated, having presently no affiliation with similar establishments in other cities. It is self-sustaining, receiving no grants, donations, or endorsements from any government or private source. Shows are either produced or co-produced by the Playhouse management which assumes full responsibility for their selection and content.

LARRY WOOD's love of theatre covers a broad spectrum. His training and practical experience in all aspects of the theatre, design, management, directing, and promotion, as well as acting produce a most versatile and talented performer. Although he enjoys all phases of the theatre, he is the first to admit that his heart is with the actor. Larry has worked with such stars as Bob Gum, NM, Ed Fries, Howard Keel, and Frank Trumbull. Aside from his role in the current production Wood functions as Theatre Manager and M.C. for the Lincoln Plaza Playhouse.

The Shindiggers Revue

The Shindiggers, under the direction of Ken Lundy, are the permanent resident entertainment group of the Lincoln Plaza Playhouse. The unique group of professional singers and dancers have come together to provide the best in entertainment.

'I'm Not Like Anyone Else' — Jack Nicholson

By JERRY PARKER

"It's no one's business. It's my business," said Jack Nicholson, who is embarking on an ambitious new film project. Nicholson is no stranger to the film industry, having starred in numerous successful movies. His latest endeavor, a biographical drama, is set to be released next year. The movie will focus on the life of a controversial public figure, and Nicholson is taking on the role of the main character.

Meanwhile, in his personal life, Nicholson is enjoying a sense of freedom and independence. "I've always been independent," he said, "and I never really cared for the trappings of fame."

When asked about his upcoming role, Nicholson remained tight-lipped. "I can't really talk about that," he said. "It's a big project, and I don't want to jinx it."

Despite his success in the film industry, Nicholson is not deterred by the pressures of fame. "I don't really care about the scrutiny," he said. "I just want to make good movies and enjoy my life."
Dinah's Not Bashful About Showing Off Her Legs

Dear Dick, Please tell me why Dinah Shore never shows her legs, why she never wears anything that shows her bathing suit or underwear, or anything of the sort. — HEDDA REX, Vancouver, B.C.

Dear Hedda, Dinah Shore is known for her stunning figure, which she has maintained over the years through a combination of diet and exercise. She has always been measured in inches, not pounds, and has always been known for her curves. She has never worn anything that shows her underwear, and has never worn anything that shows her bathing suit or underwear. She has always been known for her legs, and has always been measured by their length, not their width. Love Of Money Source Of Fun

Books

When it’s all over, a lot will be said about the “money” that brings so much focus to the business of music. And it will be said in the midst of controversy, and often with a certain amount of irony. It’s the money that drives the industry, and it’s the money that’s often the most visible aspect of it. Whether it’s the huge sums that are paid for recording contracts, or the millions that are spent on marketing and promotion, the money is a key factor in the success or failure of a record.

GILMORE BROTHERS

John and Karen Gilmour have set the bar high for their new album, "The Other Side," which is due out later this year. The couple, who have been together for over 20 years, say they wanted to make an album that would be a departure from their previous work. "We wanted to try something new," John says. "We wanted to create something that nobody else has done before."

Tear-Jerkers Cure Depression

By PHILIP ROSE-WALLACE

The Mucilaginous Goober

One of the most intriguing and somewhat distressing phenomena of modern life is the phenomenon known as "depression." Depression is a condition that affects millions of people worldwide, and its causes are as varied as the people who suffer from it. Some people experience depression due to stressful life events, while others may be predisposed to it due to genetics or other factors. Whatever the cause, depression can be a debilitating condition that can severely impact a person's ability to function in daily life.

For many, the thought of depression can be overly hyped and sensationalized. It is important to remember that depression is a real and treatable condition. In fact, there are several effective treatments available for depression, including antidepressant medications, therapy, and lifestyle changes. It is also important to be aware of the signs of depression and to seek help if you or someone you know is experiencing them.

If you or someone you know is struggling with depression, please know that you are not alone. There is help available, and you can take steps to improve your mental health and well-being. Remember, it's okay to ask for help, and there is no shame in seeking support.

Ohio Players Set Concert

From obscurity in Cleveland, Ohio, the Ohio Players are now one of the top soul bands in the country. The group began their career in the 1960s as a local soul band and quickly gained popularity with their unique blend of funk and soul music. The Ohio Players are known for their tight, horn-driven sound and are considered one of the pioneers of the funk genre.

As they continue to tour and perform, the Ohio Players remain committed to bringing their music to audiences around the world. Their upcoming concert, scheduled for July 13th at the Polk Auditorium, is sure to be a highlight of the summer music season. Don't miss this chance to see a true legend of the funk scene in action.

FOR FREDDIE FRAMME
What's the real story behind your romance with Yolanda Welker—J.C.B. Corp., West New York, N.J.
A: We met at a party and fell in love. We've been married for 15 years and have two children.

FOR MRS. VERA C. OLSON, wife of the lost player
Sure, my husband is from Long Beach, but you never would have known it from our letters. My husband, Bob, and I have always enjoyed our trips to New York and the East Coast. We've been married for 25 years and have two children.

FOR RICHARD DAVIS,
aoa of "The Waltons"
Is it true that your wife is older than you are?—L.B., Green Bay, Wisc.
Yes, she is. I'm 52 years old and she's 50. She's a wonderful wife and a great mom. We've been married for 20 years and have three children.

FOR DOUG LORRY
You say you're married, and your wife is a movie star. She's also a singer. What's her name?—D.L., Hollywood, Calif.
Ah, yes, my wife is a famous actress. Her name is Jane. We've been married for 10 years and have one daughter.

FOR JANET DUNCAN
How do you manage to keep up your low weight of 107 on your tiny frame?—J.F., New York, N.Y.
I eat very little food and exercise a lot. I run every day and do yoga every morning. I also love to dance. I'm 5'3" tall and weigh 107 lbs.

FOR JERRY WELLES, general manager of the National Football League
When the United States enters the war, what will you do about the length of the football season?—D.D., Las Vegas, Nev.
I'm not sure yet. We'll have to see how the war affects our league. We'll do our best to keep the games going and provide entertainment for the fans.

FOR VERA ROSS, Los Angeles Times
What is the outlook for your newspaper's future?—E.R., New York, N.Y.
I'm confident that our newspaper will continue to thrive and serve our readers well. We have a strong staff and a loyal audience.

FOR RON CRANDALL
Do you feel that the U.S. Constitution would be even better if the Bill of Rights included a 10th Amendment?—R.J., Los Angeles, Calif.
I personally believe that the Bill of Rights should be amended to include a 10th Amendment. It would give more power to the states and limit the power of the federal government.

FOR THE ASK THEM YOURSELF EDITOR
Many of my readers feel that all of our radio stations should play commercials instead of music. What do you think?—L.B., Los Angeles, Calif.
I believe that commercials are an important part of the radio business. They help pay for the programming and keep the stations on the air.

Enjoy smoking longer without smoking more.

That's the Saratoga idea.

More puffs than 100's. Longer and thinner than 100's for extra smoking time and flavor, without smoking more cigarettes.

Priced no more than 100's. Rich, mild-flavor cigarettes made from fine tobaccos.

More than just a new brand, Saratoga 120's are a whole new idea in smoking pleasure.

Look for them in the new 120 mm crush-proof box.

"Inside" Look At Great Americans

By Actors Who Helped Immortalize Them

CHARLES LYNCH ON ALEXANDER HAMILTON

"A Special" is a series of articles highlighting the lives and contributions of historic figures, brought to life through the eyes of the actors who portrayed them in various film and television adaptations. This week, we focus on Alexander Hamilton, the Founding Father who played a significant role in the early history of the United States.

DON ADAMS ON ALEXANDER HAMILTON

On stage and screen, the character of Alexander Hamilton has been depicted in various ways. From the iconic performance by Philip Seymour Hoffman in the Broadway musical "Hamilton" to the portrayal by John Travolta in the film "The People vs. O.J. Simpson," each actor brings a unique interpretation to the role. In this article, we explore the character from the perspective of film actor Don Adams.

SAUL BREINER ON ALEXANDER HAMILTON

"A Special" series continues with a spotlight on Alexander Hamilton, whose life and legacy have been chronicled in various forms of media. The actor Saul Binerer shares his insights on the character, highlighting the ways in which Hamilton's influence is still felt today.

DOROTHY WARD ON ALEXANDER HAMILTON

The portrayal of Alexander Hamilton in television and film has allowed audiences to connect with his story in a more personal way. In this article, we hear from actress Dorothy Ward, who has had the opportunity to bring Hamilton to life on screen, and discuss how her interpretation of the character has evolved over time.
Our cigarette is more.

Put your cigarette against it.

"We both had very large feet, and we both were very handsome." —Raymond Massey

Compare your cigarette to ours and you'll find that ours is More. The first 120mm cigarette. More in every way except price.

Long, lean and burnished brown, More has more style. It has more color. It has more flavor. Over 30% more puffs than a 100mm cigarette. Yet More doesn't cost more.

And whether you smoke regular or menthol cigarettes, you can get more going for you. Because both More and More Menthol deliver quality like you've never experienced before.

They smoke slower and draw easy for more enjoyment. They're more flavorful. Yet they're surprisingly mild.

They're More.

More and More Menthol. They sit neat in your hand like they were made for it and fit your face like they found a home.
Northern's New Brawny Towel Has Scrub Strength

To help you scrub up grime, crayon marks, even baked-on foods.

To make household clean-ups easier on you, we've added scrub strength to Northern's new Brawny Towels. Brawny's scrub strength will help even scrub up: grime, baked-on foods, crayon marks... you name it. We take tough, absorbent fibers and bond them together. Tighter... for scrub strength. Try new Brawny. New Brawny is one of the strongest towels made... we guarantee it. See package for details.

A RASHID LOOK

I stepped on a crate one day.
The head went down.
It’s a good thing I’m thin.
I don’t know how I

Reconsider your problems. I’m asked to talk about myself.

Explaining is hard.
