Prisoners Due Break

By STEVE HOFFMAN

ALASKA - Long-serving inmates, relieved hair regulations and a recurring theme of laughter and humor may be the order of the day in state penitentiaries. But the actual theme of the day is the Department of Corrections' annual prison break. Four inmates escaped from the Alaska State Penitentiary last Thursday. The escapees were last seen wearing blue jeans and black jackets.

The escapees were last seen on the grounds of the penitentiary, armed with a knife and a gun. The search for the escapees continues.
