Lyde Marland Returns To Ponca City

PONCA CITY — October's news feature photo shows Lyde Marland, icon of 22 years in the community, reprinted yesterday at the Ponca City library. The widow of Governor Marland is not on this list. She was always a favorite of the governor's family and friends.

On Friday, she was at a home where a wedding reception was being held. She was also there to help with the planning for the governor's birthday party.

The event was a huge success and Lyde Marland's presence was felt throughout the night. It was such a great night for everyone involved.
