Area Teachers Accepting Pay Offers

By JOHN GILLIES

In an article for The Oklahoma Journal, John Gillies reviews the offer made to area teachers by the Oklahoma City Board of Education. The board has offered a new contract that includes a significant pay raise, which is likely to affect the local education scene. The article provides insight into the negotiations and the potential impact of the new contract on the local community.

The Paper That Tells Both Sides

Senate, House Bills Differ

VOTING RIGHTS EXTENSION OK'D

7-Year Measure Approved

WASHINGTON (UPI) - The Senate approved a 7-year extension of the Voting Rights Act. The measure, approved by a 50-49 vote, was introduced by Senator Joe Biden (D-Del.) and supported by a broad coalition of civil rights leaders. The extension, which is designed to protect the Voting Rights Act from expiring, is expected to be signed into law by President Joe Biden.

Guard Parade Ruled Out

PITTSBURGH, PA (UPI) - The Pittsburgh Pirates have ruled out participating in a parade to celebrate the team's World Series victory. The team's management, which has been under pressure to find a way to honor the players, believes that a parade would create too much disruption and could potentially compromise player safety.

Boren Recalls Sweaty Ordeal

Boren, an Oklahoma native, recalls his experience with a media frenzy surrounding his return to college football. He notes that the attention was overwhelming and that he had to manage his time carefully to avoid burnout.

LSD Tests Defended

WASHINGTON (UPI) - The American Medical Association (AMA) has defended its position on LSD testing, arguing that it is essential for understanding the effects of the drug on the human body. The AMA has been under pressure to justify its stance, but it maintains that LSD testing is necessary for medical research.

Smathers Says JFK Spoke Of Castro Plot

Astronauts Get Ready To Return

WASHINGTON (UPI) - Former Florida Sen. Robert Smith, a staunch supporter of the Kennedy administration, has criticized President John F. Kennedy's handling of the Cuban missile crisis. Smith, who was a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, argues that Kennedy's approach was too timid and that the United States should have taken a stronger stance.

Mangum Park To Get Rare Horses

Robby and Halpren, two rare Thoroughbred horses, will be introduced to the public at Mangum Park in Oklahoma City. The horses are part of a conservation effort to preserve rare breeds and will be available for viewing at the park on a limited basis.

By NANCY GILLES

Manchurian Circus

Once known as the “Manchurian Circus,” this rare Thoroughbred horse has been a star of the equestrian world. The horse, which was rescued from a slaughterhouse in China, has been trained by renowned trainer Robby and Halpren and will be showcased at Mangum Park.

Mangum Park is a popular destination for horse lovers and equestrians, and the introduction of the rare Thoroughbred horses is expected to draw a large crowd. The park has been working with the Oklahoma Department of Agriculture to ensure the proper care and handling of the horses, and visitors will have the opportunity to learn about the history and conservation efforts surrounding these magnificent animals.
