Benton Officially Gets Penal Post

By JOHN GILLIN
The State Bar Association in a 4-6 vote Wednesday night endorsed F. Warren "Bud" Butterfield to lead the association.

The selection of Butterfield, who heads a firm in New York City and was a member of the association's executive committee, was announced by New York Bar Association Secretary T. H. McEachern. Butterfield was also one of the two nominees to the association's Board of Governors.

New York, July 11—Four individuals are expected to be involved in a $10 million drug ring under indictment in the Federal District Court here.

The four, identified as Edwin F. O'Neill, 38, a vice president of the New York State Bar Association; John A. Quaid, 47, a partner in a law firm here; Richard J. Connolly, 43, a lawyer here, and John J. Ryan, 42, a state trooper here, were arrested on drug charges.

The four are alleged to have been involved in a conspiracy to distribute marijuana and other illegal drugs.

The four were arrested after a seven-month investigation by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the New York State Police.

Benton to be named as acting chairman on July 22. He was elected as the association's executive chairman in April 1970.

New York, July 11—A federal grand jury has returned an indictment charging the New York State Bar Association and four individuals with conspiracy to distribute marijuana and other illegal drugs.

The indictment, which was unsealed today, charges that the association and the four individuals, identified as Edwin F. O'Neill, 38, a vice president of the New York State Bar Association; John A. Quaid, 47, a partner in a law firm here; Richard J. Connolly, 43, a lawyer here, and John J. Ryan, 42, a state trooper here, conspired to distribute marijuana and other illegal drugs.

The grand jury indicted the association and the four individuals on charges of conspiracy to distribute marijuana, conspiracy to distribute other illegal drugs, and conspiracy to possess with intent to distribute other illegal drugs.

The indictment also charges that the association and the four individuals conspired to distribute marijuana and other illegal drugs to various individuals, including a doctor, a lawyer, and a police officer.

The indictment alleges that the association and the four individuals conspired to distribute marijuana and other illegal drugs to various individuals in order to facilitate their own drug use and to support their drug use.

The indictment further alleges that the association and the four individuals conspired to distribute marijuana and other illegal drugs to various individuals in order to support the drug use of their friends and associates.

The indictment charges that the association and the four individuals conspired to distribute marijuana and other illegal drugs to various individuals in order to support their own drug use and to support the drug use of their friends and associates.

The indictment also charges that the association and the four individuals conspired to distribute marijuana and other illegal drugs to various individuals in order to support the drug use of their friends and associates.

The indictment further alleges that the association and the four individuals conspired to distribute marijuana and other illegal drugs to various individuals in order to support their own drug use and to support the drug use of their friends and associates.

Union Leaders Testify

Harry, chairman of the Executive Board of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, and C.C. "Buddy" McFarland, executive vice president of the United States Postal Service Employees Association, testified before the Senate Committee on Labor and Public Welfare that a bill which passed the House of Representatives this week would help ensure the right of employees to join unions without fear of retaliation.

The unions, represented by the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees, the American Federation of Teachers, and the American Federation of Labor and Congress of Industrial Organizations, testified that a bill which passed the House of Representatives this week would help ensure the right of employees to join unions without fear of retaliation.

Woods Plans Sale Of Subsidiary

AL DAVIS, President of the Woods Tools Company, said today that the company has made arrangements to sell its subsidiary, the Bronman Tool Company, for $2 million.

The sale is expected to be completed by the end of the month and the proceeds will be used to finance the expansion of the Woods Tools Company.

Teacher Supported In Rehiring Suit

The American Federation of Teachers, representing teachers in the United States, today supported the rehiring of a teacher who was fired for refusing to sign a loyalty oath.

The union said the teacher was fired for refusing to sign a loyalty oath, which is a requirement for all teachers in the United States.

Czech Crash Fatal To 126

A Czechoslovakian Airlines flight crashed today, killing all 126 passengers and crew members.

The crash, which occurred near a small airport in the Czech Republic, is being investigated by the National Transportation Safety Board.

Bronman Wed At Poolside

RUTH BRONMAN, a nurse at the Bronman Tool Company, was married today to Robert Jones, a construction worker.

The wedding ceremony took place at the poolside of the Bronman Tool Company.

Heart Valves Recalled

A recall of heart valves has been issued by the Food and Drug Administration, effective immediately.

The recall is due to the discovery of a defect in the valves that could cause them to fail and lead to the death of the recipient.

Mob Eliminated Hoffa

The Hoffa family, members of the American Federation of Labor and Congress of Industrial Organizations, have been eliminated from the mob's list of targets.

The elimination of the Hoffa family is a result of the recent crackdown on organized crime.

The Fair is Spencer's "Finest Day of the Year." The fair is being planned for May 10-12, 1972, at Spencer, Oklahoma. The fair will feature a variety of events, including a 4-H and FFA livestock show, a Junior Fair, and a variety of other competitions. The fair is expected to draw thousands of visitors from the surrounding area. The Spencer Chamber of Commerce is coordinating the fair and has been working hard to plan a successful event. The fair will feature a variety of food vendors, crafts, and entertainment. The Chamber is also planning a parade and a grandstand event to cap off the weekend. The fair is a great opportunity for Spencer residents and visitors to come together and enjoy a fun-filled weekend. For more information, contact the Spencer Chamber of Commerce at 555-5555.
