"Gratuity is the only word that can be used to describe these politicians. They take their jobs seriously, but we do not. The State Department probably has to share the blame and everyone craves an easy out. We do not believe in easy outs. But we do believe in making sure that the people who write dictatorial laws are held accountable for their actions."

The board of Oklahoma County has charged the Oklahoma County Board of Pardons and Paroles with, among other things, making the wrong decision. The issue is now in court.

COM KEY 1434 for small and medium-sized businesses... it's an intercom, a paging system, a telephone plus!

With COM KEY 1434, anyone in your office can pick up any of 10 lines... hear up to 10 phones. It works as an intercom, with a speaker built right into the set.

It also becomes a paging system, carrying your message over multi-line speakers.

And, in an additional option, a person in another room can play music from your own music or program source.

It also offers multi-line conferencing. A priority feature also prevents accidental picking of a line in use.

There's a smaller COM KEY system that handles up to four phones from one set. It's called COM KEY 750. Both COM KEY systems offer the business user some important features--security for the business or a budget.

COM KEY is a part of a new generation of communications equipment. Call the telephone business a one and ask to have a consultation. Consider two or more.

Before you get down to business, call the experts in the business.

FIRST, the good news.

THE TORNADO IS GONE.

And the people who lived here before the storm are still alive.

Damage is extensive. It will take time, and it will take teamwork, to clean up.

But the news is good. And the people are tough. And the spirit of Oklahoma is strong.

We will rebuild. We will recover. And we will be better.

This message from the National Weather Service is a reminder that even in the darkest of times, there is hope.

After a storm, we need all the good news we can get.

Family Keeps Calm Amid ‘Os-Mania’

By DONALD R. ROYAL
The Washington Post News Service

HOLLYWOOD—Elvis Presley has made it a habit in past years to open his “career” season at the Paramount Theatre here, but this year he has chosen to open in a more intimate setting at the nearby Egyptian Theatre. The result has been a sellout of tickets, with the crowd of fans that has gathered in the area being described as “a sea of adoring fans.”

The new album, which was released last week, has been widely praised by critics as one of Presley’s finest recordings. It features a mix of classic rock and roll hits, as well as some new material. The album has already reached the top of the charts, making it a commercial success.

The singer has also been promoting a new film, “Viva Las Vegas,” which is set to be released this fall. The movie is a musical comedy that follows the story of a young man who falls in love with a showgirl in Las Vegas.

In other news, Presley has been named the recipient of the prestigious Grammy Award for Best Male Pop Vocal Performance, making him the first pop artist to win the award in consecutive years.

The singer has been married to Priscilla Beaulieu since 1967, and the couple has two children, Lisa Marie and Benjamin. Presley has been involved in various philanthropic endeavors over the years, including the establishment of the Elvis Presley Charitable Trust, which provides grants to organizations that support the needs of children and families.

The singer has also been known for his love of animals, and has been a vocal advocate for the protection of wildlife. He has been involved in various conservation efforts, including the establishment of the Graceland Wildlife Foundation, which aims to protect and preserve wildlife.

Despite his busy schedule, Presley has always made time for his fans, often taking the time to meet and greet them at his concerts and appearances. His dedication to his fans has helped him maintain his place as one of the most beloved and iconic figures in music.

Teenage girls who have lost at least jointly, even the remnants of their good taste. They now wear short skirts, have long hair to the knee, and may even smoke cigarettes.

They're usually the ones who first see the latest trend. It's through them that the latest fashion hits the world of casual dressing and recreational activities. They're the ones who make up the bulk of the audience for Osmond concerts, and it's their style that the group has adopted for its own performances.

The Osmonds have been using this style of dress in their concerts for some time. They started wearing it when they were first starting out, and it has stuck with them ever since.

Their concerts are always packed with fans who want to see the group perform in their own style. It's a style that's been adopted by many young people today, and it's a style that's here to stay.

The Mighty Sooners Of Oklahoma: Four Big Reasons They'll Be FOR WILLIE MAYS

What was the most exciting event in your baseball career?

Q: If you could have dinner with any living baseball player, who would it be?
A: I'd choose to dine with the great Ty Cobb. He was the greatest hitter in the history of the game. He had a unique style, and his approach to the game was truly inspiring. I could learn a lot from him.

FOR ALFRED SMITH, star of "Close to Home"

How do you maintain your fitness and health during the long season?
—M. D. St. Louis, Mo.

A: I'm a big believer in a healthy diet and regular exercise. I try to eat well and get plenty of sleep. I also make sure to stay hydrated and stretch before and after games. My exercises consist of a combination of cardio, strength training, and flexibility exercises. I also follow a strict nutritional plan that includes lean proteins, vegetables, and whole grains.

FOR GEOFF EDWARDS, host of "Touche Tonight"

How do you stay on top of the news and current events?
—M. S. San Francisco, Calif.

A: I rely on a variety of news sources to stay informed. I read newspapers, watch the news on television, and listen to podcasts. I also follow social media and online news outlets to stay up-to-date on the latest events.

FOR HAROLD "RED" GRANGE, former football star

How do you think college football has changed since your time?

A: College football has changed dramatically since my time. The game has become more commercialized and media-driven. Athletes are now multimillionaires, and the sport has become a business. The game has lost some of its simplicity and purity, but it still has a lot of appeal.

FOR ROBERT CONRAD, star of "Mash the Beat"

FOR THE AKI THEMSELVES EDITOR

We always enjoy your entertaining New York and Whiskey feature. What is the best part about New York's whiskey scene?
—J. S. Seattle, Wash.

A: The best part about New York's whiskey scene is the variety of options. From small-batch single malts to bold and bold bourbons, there's something for everyone. The city's whiskey scene is constantly evolving, with new distilleries opening up all the time. It's a great place for whiskey lovers to explore and discover new flavors.

Cher’s Horse Prospected

by Tod Kennedy

Cher’s horse, a little girl, was destined for riches!

Cher’s horse is a little girl. "She’s the only one," Cher told The Daily Star. "She’s not just a horse, she’s a little girl." Cher and her horse, named after the popular singer, have been together for over 30 years. "She’s been my best friend," Cher said. "She knows me better than anyone else." The horse, named Little Girl, is a miniature pony, and Cher has trained her to perform various tricks.

Little Girl has won several awards for her performance, including the prestigious "Most Amazing Animal" award at the annual horse show. "She’s the best," Cher said. "She’s got the same spirit as me. She never gives up, no matter what." Little Girl has even been featured in a children’s book, "The Little Girl Who Loved Horses." "She’s a real inspiration," Cher said.

Little Girl is now living in a retirement home for horses, where she is taken care of by a team of experts. "She deserves the best," Cher said. "She’s been through a lot, and she deserves to be happy now." Cher plans to visit Little Girl every day, and to help raise money for the retirement home.

Cher has also started a foundation to help other horses in need. "I want to make sure every horse has a chance," Cher said. "No horse should have to live in a bad environment. They should all be taken care of." Cher’s foundation is called "The Horse Help Foundation," and it already has several successful programs under way.

Cher’s horse, Little Girl, is a true inspiration. Her story shows that no matter what happens, there is always hope. "She’s proved that," Cher said. "And I’m sure she’ll continue to prove that for years to come."

Two Marriages, 18 Suitcases, And an Unpredictable Woman Named Cher

I know from the last time I had seen Cher that she has a tendency to be late. The scene was set in a Manhattan hotel: she had arrived 15 minutes early. She offered me a glass of water and sat down on a chair. We talked about her new album, "Believe," and her upcoming tour. She said she was excited to be back on the road and looking forward to seeing all her fans. She also mentioned that she had just started writing her memoirs, which she hopes to publish next year.

Cher was born on October 20, 1946, in Georgia. She began her career as a singer and actress, and has been in the entertainment business for over 50 years. She has won two Grammy Awards and six Academy Awards, and has been nominated for nine more. She is also a successful businesswoman, having founded her own clothing line, Cher, in 1975.

Cher's personal life has been as interesting as her professional career. She has been married twice, once to Sonny Bono, who died in a skiing accident in 1998, and once to Sonny's father, Sonny Young. She has two children, Chaz Bono and Elijah Blue Allman, from her first marriage. Cher is currently dating Hugh Jackman.

As we finished our conversation, Cher got up to leave. She thanked me for my time and wished me good luck with my book. I watched her as she walked out of the hotel, thinking about all the stories that she has to tell.
