Drugs, Sex Protested At Atoka

Country DJ Assails Festival

Top O' The Mornin' (UPI) — Country music should be banned from radio because it is obscene and immoral, according to a complaint filed with the Federal Communications Commission by Richard A. Backman, a science teacher at Atoka High School.

"It is the belief of the Atoka High School music teacher that rock and roll music is obscene and immoral," Backman said in his complaint, which was filed Wednesday.

Backman said that rock music was "inherently obscene" and "immoral" and that it was "dangerous" to allow it on the airwaves.

The FCC has been asked to take action against the radio station for playing "obscene" and "immoral" music.

"It is my belief that the FCC should take action to ban rock and roll music from the airwaves," Backman said.

The FCC has not yet responded to Backman's complaint.

Dry Questions Liquor License

By ABRAHAM NAGDLE

The state's liquor laws provide for the sale of beer and wine at the same price as in other states if the customer is of the same age as in other states.

The state's liquor laws are not as strict as the federal laws.

Ford Selects Interior Chief

The Washington Post reports:

WASHINGTON — The Ford Motor Company has selected a new president to head its troubled auto division, C. Robert B. Ollis.

Ollis, 44, is the former president of the Ford Motor Company's automotive group, which produces linings, brakes, and other automotive products.

"We are very pleased to have a new president," said Horace O. Kilgore, Ford's chairman.

Ollis had been with the company for 22 years.

Vietnamese Family Arrives In City

Last month, the people who had been called the "indonesian immigrants" to the United States began arriving in this city. The group consists of over 700 people, representing a diversity of backgrounds and experiences. The purpose of their arrival is not yet clear, but rumors suggest they are part of a larger international effort. The city is preparing for their arrival, ensuring they are properly integrated into the community.

Church Caretakers

The caretakers of the local church have been working tirelessly to prepare for the upcoming visitors. They have organized a series of events and activities to welcome the new arrivals, including cultural exchanges and language classes. The community is excited about the opportunity to learn from these new neighbors.

Libraries Set ‘Read, Discuss’ Groups

The local libraries have launched a new program called ‘Read, Discuss’ groups. Participants are encouraged to read books on a variety of topics and then discuss their insights and interpretations. The program is open to all members of the community, and the first session is scheduled for this weekend.

P.T.A. Schedules Newcomers Coffee

The P.T.A. of the local schools has scheduled a coffee for the new arrivals. This event is designed to provide an informal setting for the newcomers to meet and mingle with other members of the community. The coffee will be held next Saturday at the city hall.

PTA Schedules Newcomers Coffee

Plan Spring Garden Now

By L. B. McMillan

The time is at hand to prepare for the spring garden. If you are in the habit of starting your seeds indoors, now is the time to begin. Seeds of most vegetables and flowers can be started indoors in seed flats or pots. This will give you a head start on the outdoor garden. It is important to use fresh, clean seed flats or pots, and to keep them moist. The seedlings should be transplanted to the garden when the weather is warm and the soil is workable. This will ensure the best possible growth of your garden plants. Planting a variety of vegetables and flowers will provide a colorful and bountiful harvest. Getting a start on your garden now will give you the opportunity to enjoy fresh, home-grown produce for the entire season.
