Senators Reject Ban On Abortion

Washington (AP) — A Senate subcommittee debated abortion restrictions on the evening of a House vote to advance a conservative-backed stopgap measure to end the 1973 abortion law. The proposal would allow states to ban the procedure to anyone with a disability, minor, or unrelated to the state's abortion law, and pass the bill to the full Senate without a voice vote. The move is aimed at blocking the measure from passing the Senate.

Educational Innovation

The tremendous cost of sending a family's kids out of town for a better education is a serious problem. Sending them to a preparatory school can be a financial burden. Sending them to a college in the same area may not provide the same benefits. Sending them to a college in another state may be too risky. The only solution is to improve the quality of education in our own state.

Wrong Direction

At a joint meeting of the Board of Education and the State Board of Education, there was a discussion about the future of public education in our state. The Board of Education suggested that we focus on improving the quality of education in our state, while the State Board of Education suggested that we look for ways to reduce the cost of education.

Why is Tareyton better?

Charcoal is why. Charcoal filtration is used to freshen air, to make water and other beverages taste better. It does something for cigarettes, too. CHARCOAL TAREYTON has a filter-a white tip on the outside, activated charcoal on the inside. Like other filters they reduce tar and nicotine. But the charcoal makes more. It balances, softens—gives you a taste not plain, but the true match.

In music circles, the best part of any concert is the hours before. The posters fluttering in the breeze, the balloons and banners, the sweet aroma of hot dogs and hamburgers, the air of excitement, the feeling of anticipation. And then, as the time counts down to the official starting of the show, the doors open, and the first wave of fans begins to pour in. It's a magical moment, a time of pure joy and excitement. But as the night wears on, something changes. The air becomes thicker, the patrons more restless, the atmosphere less than ideal. The magic is gone, replaced by a sense of frustration and annoyance. It's a shame, really, because the first few hours of a concert are the most enjoyable. It's a shame that this magic can't be preserved, that the experience can't be better. But alas, it is not to be. And so, we are left with the reality of the situation: the first few hours of a concert are the best, and the rest... well, let's just say that they could be better.
