Davis Recalls Fateful '73 Game
String Started With Miami

By AL HIRSCHBECK

OKLAHOMA CITY, Monday

Two years ago, there were few who knew what was about to begin.

The game was the News Orleans Saints at Oklahoma City, and the theoretical battle for the divisional playoff spot.

What happened the day before that game is still the subject of discussion among Oklahoma City fans.

The Saints were coming off a 24-21 win over the Miami Dolphins, and the Oklahoma City fans were ready for a close game.

The game began well for the Saints, and fans were hopeful.

"It was a tough game," said one fan. "But we knew we could win if we played well."..."The fans were loud and determined, and the team responded."...

In the end, the Saints were victorious, 27-21.

Friends and family gathered around to remember the game that started it all.

"It was a special moment," said one friend. "I'll always remember that day."

The Memory of That Game

The Oklahoma City fans will never forget the game that started it all.

"It was a great day for the team," said another fan. "We were all so proud."...

The fans continued to remember the game and the victory that started the Oklahoma City string of games.

"We were so happy," said one
dad. "It was a memorable day for our family."...
