Sooner Victory Gives Crowd Fits

BY LARRY CANBY
The Journal Staff
OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — The Oklahoma Sooners' (3-1) 38-7 lead was so convincing for a moment that some fans wondered if the Sooners had scored a safety.

"I thought we had a safety," said Johnnie Love, a junior from Oklahoma City. "We hadn't scored a safety since I've been here."

Now the Sooners are back on top of the world. They've won two straight games and are one win away from a spot in the national championship game.

"We're playing great football," said head coach Barry Switzer. "We're playing with confidence and we're playing with intensity."

Victory's Reward
A University of Texas coach congratulated Barry Switzer, University of Oklahoma's head coach, after 39-17 victory over the Longhorns in Dallas Saturday. All-American center Donny McRae presented the Sooners with a gift from the team's patrons.

"We are so grateful for this gift," said Switzer. "It is a fitting tribute to the players and fans who have supported our team throughout the season."

Refugee Plan Hits Snag

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Department of Justice has suspended a plan to repatriate refugees to Iraq, Syria and Afghanistan, citing concerns about the possibility of violence in those countries. The plan was announced last month by Attorney General William Barr.

"We are closely monitoring the situation in Iraq, Syria and Afghanistan," Barr said in a statement. "We will continue to evaluate the situation on a daily basis and make any necessary adjustments to our plan accordingly."

Illegal Snooping Probed

The Washington Post has reported that the National Security Agency is using technologies to snoop on the phones of citizens, sparking outrage across the country.

"The NSA is constantly monitoring the communications of U.S. citizens," said Senate Intelligence Committee Chair Richard Burr. "This is a violation of our constitutional rights and we must hold the agency accountable for its actions."

Musicians' Strike Agreement Reached

NFP YORK (AP) — A tentative agreement was reached Tuesday night between members of Local 6 of the American Federation of Musicians and the League of American Orchestras. The agreement, which must be ratified by both sides, was reached after months of negotiations.

"We are thrilled to have reached an agreement," said Local 6 President Jerry Donnelly. "This is a major victory for our members and we look forward to implementing the agreement as soon as possible."

"We are also pleased with the agreement," said LAO President Barbara H. Kellner. "This is a historic moment for our organization and we are grateful for the hard work and dedication of our members."
Bomber Pilot Turns Peace Activist

Sooner's Dissillusionment With War Told In Film

By JUNE HUR

A new film, "Sooner," has been produced by a young man who was once a bomber pilot in the Air Force. The film, directed by Scott Benedict, tells the story of a young pilot who, after witnessing the effects of war, decides to become a peace activist.

The film is set during the Vietnam War and focuses on a young pilot named Mike. Mike is portrayed by Benedict himself, and his experience of the war and his subsequent decision to become a peace activist are the central themes of the film.

The film received critical acclaim upon its release, with many praising Benedict's performance and the film's powerful message.

Rules Forcing Over-Population At Zoo

By WALTER S. MILLER

A new policy introduced by the Oklahoma City Zoo has sparked controversy among zoo visitors. The policy, which limits the number of visitors to the zoo on any given day, has been implemented in an effort to reduce overcrowding and ensure the safety of the animals.

Despite the policy, many visitors expressed frustration at the limited availability of tickets and the long lines to enter the zoo.

Tonekei Speaks

In a recent interview with the Oklahoma City Journal, Tonekei, a long-time resident of the Oklahoma City Zoo, discussed the importance of conservation and the need to protect the zoo's animals.

Tonekei, who is a rare species of antelope, has been a popular attraction at the zoo for many years. The interview highlighted the challenges faced by Tonekei and other zoo animals and the importance of continued support for the zoo's conservation efforts.

Zarb Wams Of Shutdown This Winter

By MARY ANN MILLER

The Oklahoma City Board of Education has announced plans for a potential shutdown of the city's schools this winter. The decision was made in response to the ongoing economic challenges facing the city and the state.

The shutdown would affect all public schools in Oklahoma City and has sparked debates among parents and community members.

Boys Ranch Town—A Place For Boys With No Place

Baptists Help Youths From Broken Homes

By GEORGE WILSON

Located on the same site where Honest John Smith Jr. once lived, the boys ranch town for the Baptist Church is a place where boys can find a home and a chance to start over. The ranch, run by Baptist Volunteers, offers a home-like environment for boys who have been abandoned by their families.

The boys ranch town is a place where boys can find a sense of belonging and a chance to start over. The volunteers who run the ranch provide a nurturing environment for the boys, helping them to feel loved and valued.

Chances for boys at the ranch town are bright. The volunteers work hard to give the boys the best possible chance at a successful future. They provide the boys with education, skills training, and other opportunities to help them become successful adults.

New Method Combines City, Highway Driving

EPA Again Changes Rules On Figuring Auto Mileage

In FREDERICK LADBONE

The Environmental Protection Agency has once again changed the way it figures the fuel economy of vehicles, this time by considering the impact of city and highway driving on fuel consumption.

The new method, which combines city and highway driving, is designed to provide a more accurate picture of a vehicle's real-world fuel economy. The EPA has found that city driving is more fuel-efficient than highway driving, and has adjusted its mileage ratings accordingly.

Pot Offenders Get Off With Ticket In Austin

AUSTIN, Texas: Two of the three marijuana smokers who were arrested two years ago and faced jail terms for smoking the drug, have been released under a special juvenile court order, it was announced yesterday.

The court ordered the two boys, aged 17 and 18, to remain in the custody of their parents without bail. The third boy, also 17, is in jail on a similar charge.

The boys, who were arrested in 1969, were charged with possession of marijuana and driving a stolen car. They were tried in juvenile court and found guilty of possession of marijuana.

The court's order was based on the fact that the boys, who have no previous criminal records, have been exemplary in school and have shown a willingness to cooperate with law enforcement officials.

The boys were released promptly and are expected to continue their studies and to remain free of trouble.

Making a Drug Crime a Crime

The case is significant because it marks the first time in Texas history that a juvenile court has ordered the release of a marijuana offender without bail.

The court's action is in response to a recent federal court decision that upheld the right of juveniles to be tried in juvenile court and not in adult court.

The court's decision is expected to set a precedent for future cases involving marijuana offenses.

Man Tells Of Holdup

A man who was held up at gunpoint while driving his car on a rural road in central Texas last night, told police today that the robbers demanded money and fled after he resisted.

The victim, who was not identified, said that he was driving home from work when the robbers approached him and demanded money.

The man resisted and the robbers fled on foot, he said.

He said that he immediately reported the incident to police and that they are investigating the case.

Fred Spends $103,111

Fred, a wealthy businessman, spent $103,111 on a new yacht last month, according to sources.

The yacht, which is named the "Cherry Pie," is reported to be 100 feet long and is equipped with the latest in electronic and entertainment systems.

Sources say that Fred, who is known for his lavish lifestyle, has a large collection of yachts and is often seen cruising the Mediterranean Sea.

Color Coordinates the Home

COLOR COORDINATES, a new concept in home decor, is gaining popularity among homeowners.

The concept involves coordinating the colors in a room to create a harmonious and pleasing atmosphere.

Experts say that properly coordinated colors can make a room appear larger, brighter, and more inviting.

The concept is particularly popular among younger homeowners who are looking for fresh and modern design ideas.

"Oklahoma's Bicentennial activities are among the finest to be found anywhere in the nation."

— Paul Werner, National Administrator, American Revolution Bicentennial Administration.

Oklahoma is involved and certainly no where else is the term 'people participation' more applicable than right here in our state.

— Ginger Warnes, Chairman, Bicentennial Authority of Oklahoma.

"The Bicentennial provides an opportunity for a total commitment by the people of Oklahoma to actively participate in an effort that makes for "Quality of Life." It is a time for working together and assuming the rights and privileges of our society while assuming the responsibilities to make Oklahoma greater in the third century of our country."

— David L. Boren, Governor of Oklahoma.

The Woody Allen School of Theology

BY JOHN JOEF

The Los Angeles Times News Service

"If there is a God... why do these things happen to me?"

The old problem about evil... in the face that there may be no answer. But the question is one of the most important thoughts, particularly for those who have suffered through some. Also, there is the fear that there may be a solution. In the end, we must accept there will be no answers.

In the Woody Allen School of Theology, there are no answers. Allen himself has said, "There is no God, and I don't care who knows it."

The school is not for the faint of heart. It is a place where thoughts are challenged, ideas are questioned, and beliefs are examined. It is a place where there are no easy answers. It is a place where there are no guarantees. It is a place where there are no promises.

The Woody Allen School of Theology is a place where there are no answers. It is a place where there are no solutions. It is a place where there are no promises. By Dick Van Dyke

I'm no chef, but I have a secret for making veal taste good. Here's how.

1. In the oven at 350°F, heat oil in a cast-iron skillet. When hot, add the veal and brown on all sides.

2. Add vegetables, wine, and broth to the skillet. Cover and cook for 30 minutes.

3. Remove the veal from the skillet and set aside.

4. Continue cooking the vegetables and broth until thickened.

5. Serve the veal with the sauce on top.

My father taught me to use good ingredients to make veal taste delicious. Try this recipe, and you'll agree with me!

The Contestant Is Choosing A Rolls-Royce As Their Prize.
At 16, I was so fat, I had to wear maternity clothes.

By Cheryl Brinkle, as told to Milt L. McCarthy

I was in the seventh grade and I was a fat kid. I weighed 180 pounds, and I was a lot taller than the other kids. I remember being teased a lot. Some of the boys would call me names like "fatso" or "sandwich." I was really self-conscious about my weight.

Then one day, I decided to do something about it. I started going to the gym and exercising. I also started eating healthier. I cut out all the junk food and started eating more fruits and vegetables. I didn't have much choice, because my mom was really strict about what we ate.

At first, it was really hard. I had to give up all my favorite foods, but I knew it was worth it. After a few months, I started losing weight. I was down to 160 pounds, and I was feeling great.

Now, I'm not perfect. I still have to work on my diet and exercise, but I feel so much better about myself. I'm not as self-conscious anymore, and I'm able to wear regular clothes now. It's amazing how much change can happen with just a little bit of effort.
"Why Viceroy? Because I'd never smoke a boring cigarette."

Viceroy. Where excitement is now a taste.
