Grain Pact Called Aid to Farmers

A top U.S. agricultural official told the grain club members Thursday that the country's grain situation was better than expected. He indicated that the country was on track to produce about 25 million bushels of corn and 25 million bushels of soybeans, which is slightly above the current year's production.

BUSINESS

News in Brief

Wheat Storage Nearly Doubles

The Board of Trade reported Thursday that wheat storage has doubled in the last two months, reaching 22 million bushels. The increase was attributed to a stronger demand for wheat products and a higher harvest in the current year.

State Rep. Vic Parnell, R-Grayson, has introduced a bill that would allow the state to purchase 10 million bushels of wheat. The bill is currently being debated in the legislature.

State Sen. Jim Akin, R-Lexington, has introduced a bill that would allow the state to purchase 10 million bushels of wheat. The bill is currently being debated in the legislature.
