None Indicted In Jury Probe

By LARRY CANNON

In the courtroom

After spending 10 days hearing testimony from 24 witnesses, the Oklahoma County Grand Jury returned a true bill of no information Tuesday morning in the trial of Charles E. McSpadden, 29, on charges of first-degree murder.

McSpadden was arrested in 1974 on charges of killing a man who was a member of the Black Panthers.

The grand jury was instructed to return a true bill of no information if it found the evidence was insufficient to support the charges.

The jury was composed of 12 jurors, five men and seven women.

The decision was announced by Judge George A. Hinton, who presided over the trial.

The jury deliberated for approximately one hour before reaching its decision.

The verdict was read aloud by the judge, who said, "The jury finds Charles E. McSpadden not guilty of murder in the first degree."

The trial was held in the Oklahoma County Courthouse.

Justice Praised By Ford

WASHINGTON (AP) -- President Richard Nixon today praised the Supreme Court for its decision in the case of United States v. Nixon, saying it was an "important victory for the American people."

In a statement released by his office, Nixon said he was pleased that the court had ruled in favor of the government.

"This decision is an important victory for the American people," Nixon said. "I am grateful to the court for its decision and I respect the court's authority."

The court's decision in the case was handed down in Washington, D.C., on Friday.

The case involved a dispute over whether the president had the right to refuse to hand over the tapes of his conversations with aides.

President To Name Woman?

The Washington Post

WASHINGTON - It's possible, but not probable, that President Ford will choose a woman to be his new Supreme Court nominee in the coming weeks, administration sources said today.

"It's possible," said one source, who asked not to be identified. "But it's not probable."

Ford has been under pressure from women's groups and other sources to name a woman to the court.

"We're pushing for a woman," said another source. "But it's not a done deal."

The current court has no female justices.

Boren Defends Pay Figures

BARRY CLEVER

UP'S General Counsel

Glen Boren, president of United Packinghouse Inc., defended the company's pay figures for the year ending March 31, saying they were fair and reasonable.

"We believe our pay figures for the year ending March 31 were fair and reasonable," Boren said. "Our pay figures for that period were based on the prevailing market for similar positions.

"We are proud of our pay figures," Boren added. "They reflect our commitment to our employees and to the industry in general."

The company's pay figures for the year ending March 31 were released today.

Surprise! Mom Has Triplets

"When Lara was born, we were prepared," said her mother, "but we didn't know she was going to have triplets.

"It was a surprise," said her father. "But we were ready."

Morton's Refusal Defended

By Frank L. Morton

The issue of Morton's refusal to respond to the Oklahoma Department of Health's request for information regarding a completed inspection of their restaurant is being closely watched by health officials and restaurant owners. The restaurant's owner, Frank L. Morton, has been cited for failing to cooperate with the health department.

In a statement released by the restaurant, Morton said, "We are cooperating with the health department to the extent that we are able, but we cannot continue to provide information that could compromise our privacy or the privacy of our customers. We are working to resolve the issue and will cooperate fully with the health department as soon as possible."

Mid-Del Voters To Decide
Bond Issue Set Tuesday

There is no better way for the school district to improve the quality of education for students than by constructing new schools. The bond issue set for Tuesday, November 8, will provide the necessary funds to build a new elementary school, a new middle school, and a new high school. This is an investment in the future of our community, and we encourage all eligible voters to participate in this election.

Hospital Aids Students

The hospital has announced that it will provide financial assistance to students who are unable to afford medical care. This is a significant step towards ensuring that all students have access to the healthcare they need. We commend the hospital for its commitment to the well-being of our community.

Optimists To Host Gun, Coin Show

The Optimist Club will host a gun and coin show on Saturday, November 12. This event will feature a range of firearms and collectible coins, providing an opportunity for enthusiasts to showcase their items and meet with other collectors. We encourage all interested parties to attend.

School Play Set Thursday

The school's fall play, "Miracle Worker," will be performed on Thursday, November 10. This dramatic production is a powerful reminder of the struggles faced by Helen Keller and the importance of education. We look forward to this outstanding performance and encourage all students and faculty to attend.

Jeane Dixon's Astrological Forecast

Dr. Jeane Dixon, renowned astrologer, has provided her forecast for the upcoming month. According to her predictions, the month of November will bring significant changes in the career and personal lives of many individuals. We encourage readers to consult their personal horoscopes and plan accordingly.

American Education Week

Moore PTA To Oppose Child-Family Proposal

Some opposition to the new child and family proposal is being voiced in Moore, as the PTA there has expressed its disapproval of the proposal. The PTA has stated that it feels the proposal would result in a loss of privacy for the family, and that it would be detrimental to the well-being of the children involved. The PTA is urging its members to vote against the proposal and to voice their concerns to their elected representatives.

Track Approved

A new track was approved for the local school district by the school board. The track will be used for both athletic and educational purposes, and will be available for public use during non-school hours. The track will be located on the grounds of the local high school, and will be accessible via a separate entrance.
