HARRIS GETS MAJORITY AT Mock Convention

By JOIN CULLEY

On the national stage, Senator George A. Smathers had announced that he was submitting to the Senate a resolution declaring his support for John F. Kennedy's administration's policy of providing economic aid to the Dominican Republic. He said that the aid would help to strengthen the economy of that country, which was in a state of crisis due to political unrest.

37 Injured On Bus

By NICK BECK

Thirty-five students and teachers from a high school in New York City were injured in a school bus crash in the Bronx yesterday morning. The bus was carrying students from a school in the nearby borough of Manhattan. The accident occurred on the busy streets of the city, and emergency services were on the scene within minutes.

Michigan Tips Illinois, 21-15

ST. CHARLES WASHINGTON -- In a game that was often a matter of two points and basically a matter of inches, the Michigan Wolverines defeated the Illinois Fighting Illini 21-15 in a classic Big Ten Conference football contest.

The game was a battle of two teams that were evenly matched and had been expected to have a tight contest. Michigan, coached by Bo Schembechler, and Illinois, coached by Ron Zook, had both had strong seasons and were well-prepared for the game.

Michigan outscored Illinois in both the first and third quarters, with the game tied at 14-14 at halftime. Michigan's defense held Illinois to just 312 yards of total offense, compared to Illinois' 408 yards.

Quinn Early II (26) scored two touchdowns for Michigan, both on rolls to the left of the goal line. Illinois' quarterback, Mike Leach, threw two touchdown passes, one to wide receiver John Smith and the other to tight end Pat O'Sullivan, but the Illini could not get past Michigan's defense.

Tate Martindale, the Michigan quarterback, threw for 249 yards and one touchdown, completing 17 of his 24 passes. Illinois' defense was led by linebacker Ryan Donnell, who had 10 tackles.

The Michigan defense was led by defensive end Charles Woodson, who had two sacks and five tackles for loss. Michigan's defense held Illinois to just 12 points in the second half.

This was a game that was decided by the final moments. With 4:12 left in the game, Leach hit O'Sullivan for a 62-yard touchdown to put Illinois up 17-14. But Michigan got the ball back and drove down the field, setting up Early for the winning touchdown.

Michigan's victory was a hard-fought one, and the team was celebrated by their fans and the Michigan faithful.

I'm still waiting to hear from my source, but I think the rumors are true — P.I. E. — from our social circle.

Although British public figures, including Sarah, the Duchess of York, and her ex-husband Prince Andrew, have been heavily scrutinized by the paparazzi, the rumors of their separation have been circulating for some time. Sarah is reportedly seeking legal advice and is believed to be preparing for a public announcement. The couple have been living apart for several months, and there are reports of financial difficulties contributing to their decision.

Meanwhile, in the United States, actress Sarah Jessica Parker, known for her role in the film "Sex and the City," has also been in the news. Parker, who has been married to actor Matthew Broderick since 1997, is reportedly seeking a divorce after 15 years of marriage. Sources close to the couple have confirmed that they are in the process of legal separation.

Suk Trio Concert Planned

The Suk Trio, composed of violinist Zvi Feinberg and two English musicians, will perform at 8 p.m. on Saturday, April 5, at the University School. The trio is known for its interpretation of the music of Baroque and contemporary composers. The concert will be held in the school's reading room, and admission is free.

ASK DICK KLEINER

DEAR DICK: I would like to purchase a copy of the new album by the famous cellist Mstislav Rostropovich. However, the only copy I can find is a bootleg version that was recorded at a concert in Moscow. Can you recommend a reliable source for this album?

DEAR JON: I am a music student and I am planning to attend a concert by the Suk Trio. Can you provide me with more information about the concert? What is the program going to include?

Paul Simon: Still Crazy

In an interview with Rolling Stone, Paul Simon reflects on his long career in the music industry. He discusses his latest album, "Still Crazy," and his thoughts on the current state of the music industry. Simon also speaks about the challenges he faced in creating the album and his hopes for the future of music.
Teardrops Keep Fallin'

By ROBERT DELAESC

'By the Los Angeles Times, Sonya Burton.'

Dusty is back, and she's even better than before. In "Teardrops Keep Fallin'," Dusty's new album, she's still the same old Dusty, but she's grown and matured.

The album is a collection of her greatest hits, rearranged and reworked. The songs are still the same, but the arrangements are different. Dusty's voice is still powerful and soulful, but it's more refined and polished.

On the album, Dusty's voice is accompanied by a full orchestra, giving the songs a new dimension. The arrangements are intricate and complex, with layers upon layers of instrumentation.

"Teardrops Keep Fallin'" is a testament to Dusty's musical genius. It's a beautiful album, and it's a must-listen for any fan of Dusty's music.

For Oral Roberts

To: Dr. E. G. Pomfret, Katonah, N. Y.

Dear Dr. Pomfret:

I am a 63-year-old Christian woman who has been attending Oral Roberts University for the past 10 years. I have always been a strong supporter of Oral Roberts and his ministry. However, in recent months, I have been questioning the authenticity of some of the teaching methods and practices that are employed in the school.

I have been researching and reading extensively on the topic, and I have come to the conclusion that Oral Roberts University may not be as reputable as I once believed. I would be grateful if you could provide me with your perspective on this matter.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

[Name]

FOR MICHAEL LEVINE, etc. of "The Wall Street Journal"

Mr. Levine:

I have been very interested in the recent articles you have written on Oral Roberts University. As a former student of the school, I have come to realize that many of the claims made by the university are not true. I believe that Oral Roberts University is a cult and is not a legitimate educational institution.

I would be interested in discussing this issue with you and providing you with further information.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

How David Kennerly “Got There”

By Frances Spatz Leighton

Don't call him the young Nixon, even if you're President's personal photographer, David Kennerly. But if you look closely at the man who slides behind the White House cameras, you'll see a certain resemblance.

It's a feeling shared by David Hume Ken-erly, the 28-year-old photographer who takes the pictures of President Ford.

David Kennerly was born in 1948, the year after the Nixons' son, David, was born.

A year later, the Nixons moved to the White House.

It was then that the young Kennerly began to make his first pictures. He began with a 35mm camera and a roll of black-and-white film. He took pictures of the Kennerlys in their home in California.

Today, Kennerly has a studio in Washington, D.C., and a collection of over 10,000 photographs. He has worked for several magazines, including Time and Life.

As a photographer, he is famous for taking pictures of world leaders. His pictures have appeared in many magazines and books.

Kennerly's photographs of the President are known for their powerful, dramatic style.

On the last trip, he took a picture of the President standing in front of the Lincoln Memorial. The picture was published in Time magazine.

KENNERLY

Kennedy's Tips On Taking Pictures

In his office, Kennedy is a lexicon. While giving instructions to his printing crew, he explains the importance of taking good pictures. He believes that pictures are often the most important part of any article, and that they can help to convey the message more effectively than words alone.

Kennedy's first tip is to always have a camera on hand. He always carries a small black-and-white camera in his pocket, and he is never without a camera when he travels.

Kennedy's second tip is to always be ready to take a picture. He says, "You never know when a great picture will present itself. Always be ready to capture the moment." He always carries a camera with him when he travels, and he never misses a chance to take a picture.

Kennedy's third tip is to always be prepared. He says, "Always have a camera with you, and always have a spare battery. You never know when you'll need it." He always carries a spare battery with him when he travels, and he is never without a camera.

- 2 cups flour
- 1 cup shortening
- 1 cup milk
- 4 eggs
- 2 teaspoons baking powder
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon vanilla

Preheat oven to 350°F. Grease and flour 13x9x2-inch baking pan.

Steps:
1. Mix sugar, flour, and shortening. Set aside.
2. Mix milk, eggs, baking powder, and vanilla together.
3. Alternately add flour mixture and milk, stirring well after each addition.
4. Pour into prepared pan. Bake 40 minutes.
5. Let cool on wire rack. Serve hot or cold.

Custard Topping

- 3/4 cup sugar
- 1/4 cup cornstarch
- 1 quart milk
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 1/4 teaspoon salt

Steps:
1. Mix sugar, cornstarch, and milk in top of double boiler. Cook, stirring constantly, until thickened.
2. Remove from heat. Add butter and salt. Stir until smooth.
3. Cool to room temperature.
4. Pour into prepared custard cups.
5. Chill until set.

Eye Contact: Do You Know Its Real Power?

True or False?

1. Your eyes are a race in a person. They have a胜行 as well as a picture, often on the opposite side of the image.

2. Your eyes can convey more than just what is in the photograph. They can tell a story about the person and the scene.

3. Your eyes can reveal more about a person than their words can.

4. Your eyes can be a window into a person's soul.

5. Your eyes can be a reflection of your inner world.

ANSWERS:

1. False. Your eyes are like images in a person's mind, not races. They have a sense of depth and can convey emotions.

2. True. Your eyes can indeed convey more than just what is in the photograph. They can reveal the person's mood, thoughts, and feelings.

3. True. Your eyes can reveal more about a person than their words can, and they can communicate things that words cannot.

4. True. Your eyes can be a window into a person's soul, and they can reveal their inner world.

5. True. Your eyes can be a reflection of your inner world, and they can reveal your feelings and emotions.

"Why Viceroy? Because I'd never smoke a boring cigarette."

Viceroy. Where excitement is now a taste.
BROOM-HILDA

by Russell Myers

Once upon a time a duck flew north in the winter instead of south. As he passed all the other ducks flying south they wondered where he was going. "Perhaps we're going in the wrong direction," one duck said. "Maybe we should follow him."

So millions of ducks turned and followed the one duck north. Near Kansas City they hit an ice storm.

They all froze solid and fell into a farmer's field. Millions of frozen ducks.

The next morning the farmer's wife looked out the window and exclaimed to the farmer, "Wasn't he sad you pushed with eggs!"

IF YOUR FIRST DAISY SEEMS SMALLER NOW, COME SIZE UP A NEW ONE.

You've grown. You may be big enough this Christmas to handle a Daisy 8-B gun that has a little more power, a little more power.

Just let me help you decide if you're ready. You can't get together to the nearest store that sells Daisy B-8 guns. They have just the right one for your age and skill.

Choose your stock. A sturdy Westerner or Monte Carlo. Check the balance. And sight down the long, trim barrel. Put every Daisy up to your shoulder until you find the one that fits you best, The Daisy that feels just right. With the left you can handle it'll be more accurate. And you are a better marksman. Send for the new, super 24-page, full-color Daisy consumer catalog. It's only 25c.
