Culottes, Long Zippers Appear
Halston Still Champion Of Ultrasuede, Jumpsuit

By HARRIETT RICHARD

NEW YORK — Designer Halston, creator of many of the season's most popular outfits, sees the new ultrasuede and leather jumpsuits as key elements of the season's hottest looks. At a preview of his collection and for the benefit of the American Red Cross, Halston showed a series of stories of jumpsuits and culottes, all in ultrasuede and leather, some with zippers down the front and some with a full slit. The ultrabuxy jumpsuit, the one Halston has been known for, was also on display, as was a leather jumpsuit with a full-length zipper down the front. The collection was a study in contrast, with the ultrasuede and leather jumpsuits providing the base for the season's most popular looks. The ultrasuede and leather jumpsuits were also shown in a variety of colors, including black, white, red, and green. UN Endangers Democracy

Now is the time to make it clear that the purpose of the United Nations is to work for the peace of the world and for the general welfare of mankind. No, the United Nations is not a tool for imperialism. It is not a tool for the domination of one country over another. It is a tool for the maintenance of peace. The United Nations was created to work for the peace of the world and for the general welfare of mankind. It is a tool for the maintenance of peace.

The PEOPLE’S Voice

Get With It

You just can’t buy happiness. "Happiness is a state of mind," said the famous statesman. "To be truly happy, you must first love your country and your fellow man. You must also be willing to work hard for what you want. Happiness is not something that can be bought. Happiness is something that you must earn."
