Ford OKs Loan To Save Gotham

WASHINGTON, D.C. — The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) has approved a loan of up to $50 million for the renovation of the historic Old Navy Department Building in Washington, D.C.

The loan, to be provided by the Trump Administration, will be used to stabilize and modernize the building, which has been vacant for several years due to its age and condition.

HUD Secretary Ben Carson said in a statement, "This loan will help to ensure that this important historic building is preserved for future generations to enjoy."

The Old Navy Department Building, located at 14th and Independence Avenue NW, was built in 1906 and was the headquarters of the U.S. Navy until 1950. It was designated a National Historic Landmark in 1978.

The loan will be provided by the Federal Housing Finance Agency (FHFA) and will be managed by the Federal Home Loan Bank (FHLB) of New York.

The project is expected to be completed by 2023.

Education Merger Proposed

Death Plot Barred

WASHINGTON, D.C. — The U.S. Department of Education has announced that it will not approve the planned merger of two school districts in the state of New York.

The department cited concerns about the impact of the merger on student outcomes and the financial stability of the districts.

The proposed merger would have produced a district with a student population of nearly 100,000, the largest in the state.

The department's decision was based on its review of the proposed merger plan, which was submitted by the two districts involved.

The department noted that the plan contained insufficient information about the financial implications of the merger and the potential impact on student outcomes.

Moss Vows To Push Morton Contempt Case

WASHINGTON (AP) — Supreme Court Justice Felix Frankfurter has been brought into the controversy over whether Senate Majority Leader Harry F. Byrd Jr. has committed contempt of Congress. Frankfurter, who serves on the Senate Commerce Committee with Byrd, was invited to join the committee by Chairman Hayoppel. The committee will continue hearings on the charges against Moskowitz, and Frankfurter's involvement in the case could result in a major blow to Byrd's efforts to defeat the resolution. Frankfurter, known for his conservative views, has been a strong critic of the resolution and has expressed support for Byrd's position. The case is expected to continue for several weeks, and the outcome could have significant implications for the future of the Senate.

Colonial Women Had Spirit, Acumen, Guts

The story of colonial women is often one of resilience and innovation. Despite facing significant challenges, they demonstrated remarkable spirit and acumen. In the face of harsh conditions and limited resources, these women were able to adapt and create solutions that were both practical and effective. Their determination and resourcefulness are a testament to their enduring legacy.

Cuban-born Phillipines' star Dwayne "D-Wade" Wade led the Miami Heat to their first NBA championship, becoming the first foreign-born player to win the title. Wade, who was born in Havana, Cuba, and grew up in Miami, was a key player for the Heat throughout the playoffs. He averaged 26.7 points per game and was named the NBA Finals MVP. Wade was also named the NBA Most Valuable Player (MVP) of the regular season. He was the first Cuban-born player to win the MVP award, and the first foreign-born player to do so in the NBA. Wade's success has inspired many Cuban athletes to pursue careers in professional sports, including baseball, basketball, and soccer. Many Cubans have also expressed interest in the Miami Heat, and have followed Wade's career closely. Wade's success has also helped to promote the image of Cuba as a country with a rich sports tradition.

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) - Better late than never, the New Orleans Saints ended a tumultuous 1975 campaign with a 27-6 rout of the Oakland Raiders in the nation's capital. The Saints scored three touchdowns in the second quarter and took over for good on a 16-yard scoring drive late in the first half. The win, New Orleans' first in a new stadium, brought the Saints' record to 7-7. The Raiders dropped to 1-13-1, the worst record in the NFL.

Off the field, the Saints' season was marred by a series of injuries, including a broken leg suffered by quarterback Archie Manning. The team also struggled with personnel issues, including the departure of star running back Billy Cannon.

Whittaker On The FBI

It's Everyone's Job

by KENNETH WHITTAKER

In recent times rich and affluent America-based oil refineries have been targeted by robbers and even more recently by armed police. The concept of public gaming to protect us from enemies is now quite common even though sometimes overlooked.

Whittaker to go to court, however. The loss of money must be offset by using the resources appropriate for the oil refineries, and all the other resources available to the FBI.

Christmas Parties Set For Seniors

Several senior centers have announced plans for Christmas parties. The centers will offer a variety of activities and programs to celebrate the holiday season.

For holiday Monday – 14th, officials of the Oklahoma City Police Department announced the arrest of a suspect in the Oklahoma City police headquarters security breach. The suspect, identified as a 34-year-old male, was arrested after being observed attempting to gain unauthorized access to the police department.
