Enemies Halt Wildlife Plan

by JOHN GLIDDLE

The Journal of the Army

Wildlife Department has been determined that the Blake Wildlife Areas, and other regions involved, are unsafe for the project to be undertaken.

The EDF will be in a position to take this matter to court if the wildlife areas are not declared safe.

The EDF will continue to press for the protection of the wildlife areas and to ensure that the Blake Wildlife Areas are not disturbed.

Service Award Goes To Jimmy Stewart

Legendary Actor

Jimmy Stewart received the prestigious Service Award during the recent ceremony held at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel. The award was presented in recognition of his years of dedicated service to the entertainment industry and his contributions to various charitable causes. Stewart, known for his roles in classic films like It's A Wonderful Life and Mr. Smith Goes To Washington, has been a vocal supporter of numerous organizations, including the National Multiple Sclerosis Society and the American Heart Association. The ceremony was attended by many of his fellow actors and friends, who praised Stewart for his humility and philanthropic efforts. Stewart, who has been actively involved in charity work for several decades, was visibly moved by the recognition and expressed his gratitude for the honor. The evening concluded with a dinner and live auction, which raised significant funds for the charities supported by Stewart. The event was a testament to the actor's enduring legacy and his commitment to giving back.
