Carter Says Brezhnev Lying

WASHINGTON (UPI) - President Carter, in a news conference yesterday, said he was told by Russian officials about the arms buildup in East Germany. He also expressed concern that the Soviets are increasing their forces in Afghanistan.

"We are getting the facts accurately," the president said. "We are getting an accurate picture."

Carter said the arms buildup in East Germany was "very ominous." He said he was concerned that the Soviet Union is "looking over its shoulder at the West and the West is not looking back at the Soviet Union.

The president, appearing gritty and determined, said he was not impressed with the Soviet policy, that the United States does not have an "equalizer" in the armaments race. The president spoke at a news conference after meeting with Soviet Prime Minister Andrey Gromyko.
