Legislature Wants To 'Hold The Line'
By Kay McCarthy
OKLAHOMA CITY (UPI) — Legislative leaders Thursday rejected Sen. Frank Wright's plea to go a long way in reducing the state's $1 billion surplus and gave him the cold shoulder.
Gov. George Nethercutt's proposed budget would have cut $900 million from state government.
A letter to the editor was received from a reader who wanted to know what government was doing with the surplus.
Legislators are meeting at the statehouse to try to balance the state budget for the first time in the United States.
Legislative leaders have written to the governor to protest his budget proposals.
U.S. active have been mentioned but "I haven't heard anything that we would consider reasonable," he said.
Fireman Logan McKee of the Topeka Fire Department said that firemen are going door to door in the entire Kansas City area to inform people of the dangers of fire.
The Journal

Gold Soars To $812

Super Sunday
Semi-Surprise

Page 9

New York Stock Market

Vol. 16. No. 157

Friday, January 18, 1980

The Los Angeles Times

WASHINGTON — A new Soviet submarine for the Cuban Navy is now on the way to Cuba in the Pacific Ocean according to U.S. defense officials.

IRISH WOLFORD

The United States is sending another submarine to Cuba, according to officials in Washington and officials in Moscow.

The submarine is a new type of attack submarine and will be used for minesweeping and anti-submarine operations.

Soviet officials said the submarine would be armed with cruise missiles and would be used for strikes against

U.S. warships.

The submarine is expected to arrive in Cuba within days.

Hundreds Of Thousands March In Denunciation Of U.S., Reds

The Journal

Fire Fighting

Questioned

Six Hours In Japan

TOKYO (UPI) — White House

officials said they were "very embarrassed" by the allegations of aircraft shipments to Cuba and said they would look into the matter.

"We are not aware of any aircraft shipments to Cuba," an official said.

The Journal

Good Morning

It's Friday

Jan. 18 And...

"We never knew what happened,"
Mr. and Mrs. Smith had arrived at their home in

Grand Rapids after a weekend trip to D.C.

They had planned to stay longer but decided to return home.

Mr. Smith said: "We had a great time, but we needed some rest."

The Journal

Worker's Death

Not 'Ordinary'
By Gene Tripoli

OKLAHOMA CITY — A food

worker was found dead in a trash bin at a fast-food restaurant in this city.

The victim, identified as

Richard Smith, 32, had been employed for six months at the restaurant.

The Journal

A Letter Home

Robert C. Oke, 64, the oldest of the Kansas hounds, has written the Washington Post asking that pressure be brought on President Carter and the American government "to ease up on this terrible situation."

A letter of support (UP)
From Page One

Death 'Out Of The Ordinary'

(Calif., from Page 1)

(212) "Deja Vu" in the past seven days. The Lonesome Roads and Lonesome Roads are_pp. the presumed victims. This time, the Lonesome Roads of the past have been confirmed as the victims of a bizarre and unusual death. In each case, the Lonesome or their belongings were found at the scene of the crime. This time, however, the crime scene was different. The Lonesome Roads were found in a secluded area, surrounded by high cliffs and rugged terrain. The exact cause of death is still under investigation, but authorities believe it may be related to the victims' involvement in illegal activities. The Lonesome Roads have a long history of打交道ng in the dark arts, and it is possible that their recent death is connected to this.

Ayatollah Beheshti Arrested

(Cia, from Page 1)

In a move that has shocked the Islamic world, Ayatollah Beheshti, the leader of the Islamic Revolution, has been arrested for alleged corruption and embezzlement. The arrest comes as a result of an investigation into allegations that Ayatollah Beheshti has been misusing government funds and engaging in illegal business deals. The case has sparked widespread protests and calls for his immediate release. The government has vowed to conduct a thorough investigation into the allegations and bring those responsible to justice.

Cuba Gets Second Soviet Sub

(Paris, from Page 1)

In a significant development, Cuba has received its second Soviet submarine, further solidifying its partnership with the Soviet Union. The submarine, named the "Mogador," arrived in Havana earlier today, bringing with it advanced technology and expertise. The arrival of the Mogador is seen as a major boost to Cuba's naval capabilities and its ability to engage in international waters. The government has praised the Soviet Union for its support and承诺ed to make full use of the submarine's potential.

Sentence Bill Introduced

(Oklahoma City, from Page 1)

A sentence bill has been introduced in the Oklahoma House of Representatives, calling for the introduction of a new system of justice. The bill proposes a more lenient approach to sentencing, with a focus on rehabilitation rather than punishment. The introduction of this bill comes at a time when there is growing concern about the effectiveness of current sentencing practices and the impact they have on society. The legislation has received mixed reactions, with some lawmakers expressing support and others calling for further debate.

U.S. Journalists Expelled

(Washington, D.C., from Page 1)

A wave of expulsions has swept across the United States, as a group of journalists from several foreign countries were ordered to leave the country. The action, which comes in response to the journalist's coverage of sensitive issues, has sparked widespread criticism and concerns about press freedom. The government has defended its actions, citing national security as the primary reason for the expulsions. The international community has condemned the move, with calls for a robust investigation into the matter.

National News Briefs

Teachers Working For Nothing

(Chicago, from Page 1)

A growing number of teachers are working without pay, sparking concern about the future of education in the United States. The crisis is the result of a funding crisis that has left many schools struggling to provide basic resources and a quality education. Teachers are expressing frustration with the situation and are calling for action to address the funding gap. The issue has become a key focus of the upcoming election, with both parties vying for the support of educators and students.

Weather

(Washington, D.C., from Page 1)

A warm front is moving through the region, bringing with it clear skies and temperatures in the mid-70s. The weather is expected to remain pleasant throughout the week, with occasional showers predicted for the weekend. The National Weather Service is advising residents to stay alert for any sudden changes in the weather and to be prepared with appropriate clothing and supplies.

Home Improvement Loans

(From Your Convenience, from Page 1)

With payments to fit your budget, or by phone. Call or come see us.

Central National Bank

1025 S. Market Boulevard • Greenwood, SC • 864-772-9001
Member FDIC. Affiliated with Franchise National Banks.
Bridging The Nutrition Gap...

Crave Calories? Go Ahead, Indulge Yourself

GALLUP poll results: You may expect to hear a lot more on this subject in the days ahead.

The poll conducted for the Gallup Organization is the first to be conducted on this subject ever. The poll indicates that more people are concerned about their weight than ever before. The poll also indicates that more people are eating fewer calories than ever before.

Fifth In A Series

Berry's World

Journal Entries...

Cedarwood Gallery Sets Gala Opening

Stylemakers In The News

Liberated Wives Leaving Homes?

Quasar One Great Idea after Another

19" Color Portables
As Low As $379*

23" Color Consoles
As Low As $549*

IT'S OUR 1ST ANNIVERSARY
Thank you for making our first year a great success. Come in and see our newly expanded store with many new models in stock to choose from.

Mid-Del TV

Tickets for the spectacular Cedarwood Gallery Gala Opening are already selling fast. Tickets are available at the Cedarwood Gallery, 123 Main Street, and at the Cedarwood Gallery website.

A new television series, "Stylemakers In The News," has been created to highlight the latest fashion trends and styles. The series features interviews with fashion designers, models, and industry experts.

A new book has been published on the topic of liberated wives leaving homes. The book, "The Liberation of the Modern Wife," provides insights into the lives of wives who have left their husbands and families.

*Some restrictions apply. See store for details.
Survey Of Our Schools

The conventional wisdom is that the smaller school is more efficient.

Bob Greene

Tactics And Ethics Of The 'Moulded' Case

This is one of the things that I hate most about school systems.

Paul Harvey

Hard Up For Heroes

There will be a picture of him in the newspaper.

Billy Graham

Our Father's Day

I am sorry, but you have to do this. Your parents have already done this. We have already done this.

according to GUINNESS

The oldest surviving measurements of a horse are 23 feet 1/2 inches by 6 feet 5 inches. The life span of a horse can be up to 100 years.
Sears

January

Big Buys

Pullovers and sportshirts for men
Regular 89.99
59.99
Pullovers Comfortable pullovers with long or short sleeves. Select solids or patterns. Sizes S-XL.

Sportsirts Long and short sleeves made of fashioned knit or woven fabrics. Choose solids or patterns S-XL.

Your Choice
Save on faucets for kitchen or bath
Base 19.99

50% OFF Choice vanity and top mount sink 39.99
50% OFF Choice storage cabinet 29.99
50% OFF Sears medicine cabinet 24.99

FALL ROBE CLEARANCE
33% to 40% OFF

FALL HANDBAGS AND ACCESSORIES
33% to 40% OFF

Family Shoe Clearance
30% to 50% OFF

Baby Buys

SAVE $9

when you buy 45-lb. box of heavy duty detergent

Pocket calculator-in plastic case

In dash AM/FM stereo with cassette or 8-track player

SAVE 33%

Dust bags

SAVE 25

Bobby Mac Car Seat

Knit Creepalong

Baby's Bibs

Trainer

25% OFF

SAVE 33%

Bobby Mac Car Seat

Knit Creepalong

Baby's Bibs

Trainer

25% OFF

Bowl XIV — Super Mismatch?

Sooner Enjoying Reunion

Pokes Earn 500th Dual Mat Triumph

Once Again, NCAA Strikes With The Almighty Hand

Rogers Is ASU Choice After All

Sears

Where America Shops for Value

Sears

Advertising

In the State of New York, non-resident orders will be subject to the applicable sales tax. Delivery charge of $5.00 will be added to all orders. Offer good while supplies last. Some quantities may vary by store.

Sears

Where America Shops for Value

Sears

Advertising

In the State of New York, non-resident orders will be subject to the applicable sales tax. Delivery charge of $5.00 will be added to all orders. Offer good while supplies last. Some quantities may vary by store.

Sears

Where America Shops for Value

Sears

Advertising

In the State of New York, non-resident orders will be subject to the applicable sales tax. Delivery charge of $5.00 will be added to all orders. Offer good while supplies last. Some quantities may vary by store.
Longhorns Stunned By North Texas

POKES

Olive Paces CA Past Chickasha

New York Stock Exchange

Super Bowl Specials!
Mid-Del Briefs

Oscar Rose Sets New Enrollment

Mid-Del JROTC members continue to increase their enrollment numbers. Oscar Rose, their new JROTC teacher, has set up an open house for interested students. The open house will be held on the first day of school. The event is open to all students, regardless of whether they are currently enrolled in Mid-Del or not. Rose encouraged all students to come and learn more about the program.

Great Books, Training Set

Mid-Del City - A planning meeting scheduled for Tuesday, September 10, will discuss the potential for Great Books as a new course of instruction. The meeting will be held at 7:00 PM at City Hall. All interested parties are encouraged to attend.

Mr. Mis Del City High

Awarded the first annual award for excellence in teaching, Mr. Mis was presented to students during the fall semester. The award was given for his dedication and commitment to his students. Mis has been teaching at Del City High School for over 10 years and has become a beloved figure among students.

Jaycees To Host Boston Honors

Mid-Del City - The Jaycees will host a special fundraiser for the Boston Marathon on Saturday, November 16. The event will feature a silent auction, live music, and a零部件night. All proceeds will be donated to the Boston Marathon Relief Fund. The event will be held at the Mid-Del Convention Center.

Super Bowl Trip Winner Named

Mid-Del City - Tommy Brown was named the winner of the Mid-Del City Super Bowl trip. Brown, a junior at Mid-Del High School, won the trip after participating in a school-wide essay contest. The trip includes a tour of the Super Bowl site and a chance to meet some of the players.

Hospital Recognizes New Nurses

Mid-Del City - The hospital recently held a ceremony to recognize its newest nurses. The nurses, who have completed their training, were presented with certificates and a pin. The hospital is proud of its new nurses and looks forward to their contributions to the healthcare community.

OBU Coach To Address Barons

Mid-Del City - On Wednesday, November 16, OBU Coach Smith will address the Mid-Del Barons at their next home game. Coach Smith is a former Barons player and has returned to share his insights and experiences with the team. The game will be held at 7:00 PM at Del City High School.

Obituaries

DIE TRAVELERS OVERHEAT IN CAR

Known for their dynamic performances, the Die Travelers recently faced a tragic event. During a recent concert tour, their tour bus suffered an engine failure, causing the bus to overheat. One of the band members, John Smith, died as a result of the accident. The band is deeply saddened by the loss and is taking time to grieve.

Winfield Jones

A beloved figure among the community, Winfield Jones passed away on October 25. He was known for his voluntary work, including serving as the president of the local charity. His contributions will be missed by many.

John Smith

A member of the Die Travelers, John Smith passed away unexpectedly on October 24. He was a talented musician and a well-respected member of the music community.

OBITUARIES

Take UPPMY

Understanding the importance of maintaining a clean environment, the organization UPPMY is currently seeking volunteers for their cleanup efforts. They are looking for individuals who are passionate about environmental protection and are willing to contribute their time.

Mid-Del Blotter

Del City Blotter

The Del City Blotter is a weekly publication that covers local news and events. This week's edition includes updates on local news, crime reports, and community happenings.

Business & Professional Directory

The Journal

This directory contains information on local businesses and professionals. For more details, please refer to the full publication.
Carter manipulating NBC?

By Howard Rosenberg

Los Angeles Times

Washington, D.C. - The Carter administration has turned NBC into a well-run, hand-wringing, newscast in the sinister image of government control. Keep an eye on them. They have.

Yet this weekend's NBC, in effect, is delivering daily chats to President Carter.

We are seeing the misuse of NBC information to force some cuts in millions, and limiting the words of those who talk about Washington.

The lure of interviews a sitting president, particularly in crisis times, is all too real. President Carter and his political advisers surely have been considering how the best constituent image of NBC's "Meet the Press." Carter accepted less than a week ago, perfect timing the last time he saw Nixon.

It's the day before the Iran presidential creation of a new press conference, which the president definitely will not see. NBC's "Meet the Press," not Carter, will do it.

The president's appearance Sunday reflects the difficulties and potentially significant challenges facing TV news, particularly in election years when those between Johnson administration are especially bluish, Sunday's resolution certainly may give Carter an even greater advantage. The allegations that Carter is being used by the press may have been more than a lie, although NBC's covering the press conference the president himself spoke of President Carter's own hard questions.

One year later, however, NBC should have given Carter an opportunity to prove his premises on "Meet the Press." The NBC is not likely to give him a chance. It would have offered him an alternative appearance.

NBC and "Meet the Press" Sunday seem to have closed Carter's strategy. However, some networks last week refused to call him a "last city of time" for a political campaign, partly on grounds that December was a presidential start for a presidential campaign. In other words, the networks will decide when presidential campaigns start.

In other words, the networks will decide when presidential campaigns start.

Bluegrass clubs

To play at Ada

ADA - Oklahoma Bluegrass Club will present an afternoon and evening concert and fiddle and banjo contest on Saturday night, 1982.

The fiddle workshop will be conducted by Kenneth, Kentucky, Monday, 26 p.m. The evening concert will be at 8 p.m.

Tickets are $5 for adults and $1 for children under 12. Tickets will be available at the door.

By Howard Rosenberg

Los Angeles Times

Washington, D.C. - The Carter administration has turned NBC into a well-run, hand-wringing, newscast in the sinister image of government control. Keep an eye on them. They have.

Yet this weekend's NBC, in effect, is delivering daily chats to President Carter.

We are seeing the misuse of NBC information to force some cuts in millions, and limiting the words of those who talk about Washington.

The lure of interviews a sitting president, particularly in crisis times, is all too real. President Carter and his political advisers surely have been considering how the best constituent image of NBC's "Meet the Press." Carter accepted less than a week ago, perfect timing the last time he saw Nixon.

It's the day before the Iran presidential creation of a new press conference, which the president definitely will not see. NBC's "Meet the Press," not Carter, will do it.

The president's appearance Sunday reflects the difficulties and potentially significant challenges facing TV news, particularly in election years when those between Johnson administration are especially bluish, Sunday's resolution certainly may give Carter an even greater advantage. The allegations that Carter is being used by the press may have been more than a lie, although NBC's covering the press conference the president himself spoke of President Carter's own hard questions.

One year later, however, NBC should have given Carter an opportunity to prove his premises on "Meet the Press." The NBC is not likely to give him a chance. It would have offered him an alternative appearance.

NBC and "Meet the Press" Sunday seem to have closed Carter's strategy. However, some networks last week refused to call him a "last city of time" for a political campaign, partly on grounds that December was a presidential start for a presidential campaign. In other words, the networks will decide when presidential campaigns start.

In other words, the networks will decide when presidential campaigns start.

Bluegrass clubs

To play at Ada

ADA - Oklahoma Bluegrass Club will present an afternoon and evening concert and fiddle and banjo contest on Saturday night, 1982.

The fiddle workshop will be conducted by Kenneth, Kentucky, Monday, 26 p.m. The evening concert will be at 8 p.m.

Tickets are $5 for adults and $1 for children under 12. Tickets will be available at the door.

By Howard Rosenberg

Los Angeles Times

Washington, D.C. - The Carter administration has turned NBC into a well-run, hand-wringing, newscast in the sinister image of government control. Keep an eye on them. They have.

Yet this weekend's NBC, in effect, is delivering daily chats to President Carter.

We are seeing the misuse of NBC information to force some cuts in millions, and limiting the words of those who talk about Washington.

The lure of interviews a sitting president, particularly in crisis times, is all too real. President Carter and his political advisers surely have been considering how the best constituent image of NBC's "Meet the Press." Carter accepted less than a week ago, perfect timing the last time he saw Nixon.

It's the day before the Iran presidential creation of a new press conference, which the president definitely will not see. NBC's "Meet the Press," not Carter, will do it.

The president's appearance Sunday reflects the difficulties and potentially significant challenges facing TV news, particularly in election years when those between Johnson administration are especially bluish, Sunday's resolution certainly may give Carter an even greater advantage. The allegations that Carter is being used by the press may have been more than a lie, although NBC's covering the press conference the president himself spoke of President Carter's own hard questions.

One year later, however, NBC should have given Carter an opportunity to prove his premises on "Meet the Press." The NBC is not likely to give him a chance. It would have offered him an alternative appearance.

NBC and "Meet the Press" Sunday seem to have closed Carter's strategy. However, some networks last week refused to call him a "last city of time" for a political campaign, partly on grounds that December was a presidential start for a presidential campaign. In other words, the networks will decide when presidential campaigns start.

In other words, the networks will decide when presidential campaigns start.

Bluegrass clubs

To play at Ada

ADA - Oklahoma Bluegrass Club will present an afternoon and evening concert and fiddle and banjo contest on Saturday night, 1982.

The fiddle workshop will be conducted by Kenneth, Kentucky, Monday, 26 p.m. The evening concert will be at 8 p.m.

Tickets are $5 for adults and $1 for children under 12. Tickets will be available at the door.

By Howard Rosenberg

Los Angeles Times

Washington, D.C. - The Carter administration has turned NBC into a well-run, hand-wringing, newscast in the sinister image of government control. Keep an eye on them. They have.

Yet this weekend's NBC, in effect, is delivering daily chats to President Carter.

We are seeing the misuse of NBC information to force some cuts in millions, and limiting the words of those who talk about Washington.

The lure of interviews a sitting president, particularly in crisis times, is all too real. President Carter and his political advisers surely have been considering how the best constituent image of NBC's "Meet the Press." Carter accepted less than a week ago, perfect timing the last time he saw Nixon.

It's the day before the Iran presidential creation of a new press conference, which the president definitely will not see. NBC's "Meet the Press," not Carter, will do it.

The president's appearance Sunday reflects the difficulties and potentially significant challenges facing TV news, particularly in election years when those between Johnson administration are especially bluish, Sunday's resolution certainly may give Carter an even greater advantage. The allegations that Carter is being used by the press may have been more than a lie, although NBC's covering the press conference the president himself spoke of President Carter's own hard questions.

One year later, however, NBC should have given Carter an opportunity to prove his premises on "Meet the Press." The NBC is not likely to give him a chance. It would have offered him an alternative appearance.

NBC and "Meet the Press" Sunday seem to have closed Carter's strategy. However, some networks last week refused to call him a "last city of time" for a political campaign, partly on grounds that December was a presidential start for a presidential campaign. In other words, the networks will decide when presidential campaigns start.

In other words, the networks will decide when presidential campaigns start.

Bluegrass clubs

To play at Ada

ADA - Oklahoma Bluegrass Club will present an afternoon and evening concert and fiddle and banjo contest on Saturday night, 1982.

The fiddle workshop will be conducted by Kenneth, Kentucky, Monday, 26 p.m. The evening concert will be at 8 p.m.

Tickets are $5 for adults and $1 for children under 12. Tickets will be available at the door.
Janet Gaynor unretired in sexy stage debut

By Patricia McCormack

NEW YORK (UPI) — A script about a sexy starlet unretiring — the recently filmed 19-year-old male has Julianne Gaynor, a Hollywood lioness in the 1920s — is nearing the final edit in the States. A release date is expected in the third quarter of this year, according to insiders.
the sheen, the ‘zoo’ became known for its large animals, including lions, giraffes, and elephants. It was a popular destination for tourists visiting the area.

Tigers
- Known for their powerful strength and majestic appearance.
- Typically live in small family groups in the wild.
- Tigers are solitary hunters during the day and socialize during the night.
- They are excellent swimmers and can hunt in water.

Leopards
- Known for their unique spotted fur.
- Typically live in forests and grasslands.
- Leopards are skilled hunters and can climb trees.
- They are solitary by nature and only come together to mate.

Monkeys
- Known for their agility and ability to swing from branches.
- Typically live in family groups.
- Monkeys are omnivores and eat a variety of fruits, seeds, and insects.
- They are very social and communicate using a variety of vocalizations.

Zebras
- Known for their distinctive black and white stripes.
- Typically live in large herds in grasslands.
- Zebras are herbivores and primarily eat grass.
- They communicate using a variety of vocalizations and body language.

Lemurs
- Known for their large eyes and distinctive fur.
- Typically live in forests and trees.
- Lemurs are diurnal and active during the day.
- They are omnivores and eat a variety of fruits, leaves, and insects.

Giraffes
- Known for their long necks and distinctive spotted fur.
- Typically live in savannas and grasslands.
- Giraffes are the tallest animals on Earth.
- They are herbivores and eat leaves, flowers, and fruits from trees.

Elephants
- Known for their large size and unique intelligence.
- Typically live in herds in grasslands and forests.
- Elephants are herbivores and primarily eat grass, leaves, and fruits.
- They are highly social and communicate using a variety of vocalizations.

Cheetahs
- Known for their speed and distinctive coat patterns.
- Typically live in grasslands and savannas.
- Cheetahs are the fastest land animals on Earth.
- They are carnivores and primarily eat antelopes and gazelles.

Chimpanzees
- Known for their intelligence and communicative abilities.
- Typically live in trees in forests.
- Chimpanzees are omnivores and eat a variety of fruits, leaves, and insects.
- They are highly social and communicate using a variety of vocalizations.

Lions
- Known for their powerful strength and majestic appearance.
- Typically live in grasslands and savannas.
- Lions are the king of the jungle and are highly social.
- They are carnivores and primarily eat large prey like zebras, wildebeests, and gazelles.
THE TEXANS ARE COMING

FRIDAY, JANUARY 18
OKC STARS vs. FT. WORTH TEXANS

SATURDAY, JANUARY 19
OKC STARS vs. HOUSTON APOLLOS

$2.00
STUDENT NIGHT
SAT. JAN. 19
Grade school thru College

THE LARGEST HOCKEY SHOOT OUT OF THE SEASON!
7:30 Both Nights at the Myriad • For information call 236-0420

LET'S PLAY HOBBY