Ailing Tito's Leg Amputated

Several women and women's groups have filed suit against the government for alleged violations of their constitutional rights, but the government is refusing to comply with their demands. Tito's health has deteriorated and he is receiving medical treatment in a hospital in Belgrade.

In the meantime, the situation in Yugoslavia remains tense. The government has tightened its grip on the media and opposition figures are facing harassment and imprisonment. The future of Yugoslavia remains uncertain as the country struggles to find a way forward.

Kids get a free ride on TWA. Again.

And adults can save up to 50% too.

From your friendly TWA, immeasurable offer last year, and I failed to hear who said it again. Except this year, it's even better.

Now kids under 10 fly free.

From now until March 21, kids under 10 can fly free all over the US, except to Atlanta, and from Atlanta to Florida, just as long as the flight is shared by adults traveling with them. And it's not just kids; it's also women and children traveling with them. One aboard can take one child free.

Adults get great savings too. We haven't forgotten about adults, though. We got two great offers for them. Kids TWA's "Super Savings": every adult can save up to 50% off their fare and still fly one child with them for free. Also, buy your tickets seven days in advance.

Super Team Wins Super Title
Triumphant Terry Takes Charge
In 31-19 Pittsburgh Victory

By Joe Cattaneo

The Pittsburgh Steelers, sparked by quarterback Terry Bradshaw, played like a team with nothing to lose and a great deal to gain in the Super Bowl. The Los Angeles Rams, looking to add to their dynasty, were not as successful. And the Rams, at times, didn't look as though they were in the Super Bowl at all.

Terry Bradshaw, 26-year-old quarterback who has led the Steelers to their fifth NFL title and three AFC Championships, was especially good Sunday. The Rams couldn't stop him. Bradshaw threw for 221 yards and three touchdowns. The Rams defense couldn't stop the Steelers from running the ball either, as they piled up 174 yards on the ground.

The Rams tried to slow Bradshaw down by putting up a wall of blockers in front of him, but he still made the right decisions and threw the ball to his open receivers. Bradshaw was especially effective in the second quarter, when he connected with wide receivers Lynn Swann and John Stallworth for scores.

LA Rambles About 'Next Year'

LA Rams' head coach Dick Vermeil was understandably upset after the game. He said his team played poorly and didn't do the things they needed to do to win.

Vermeil said the Rams were outplayed and outcoached by the Steelers. He also said that the Rams didn't have the kind of balance and depth that the Steelers did.

Bradshaw Says Steelers Overcome Age, Pressure

Steelers' quarterback Terry Bradshaw, who led the team to victory, was pleased with the win.

Bradshaw said that the team had been under pressure all season, but they finally broke through in the Super Bowl. He also said that the team had overcome their age and experience to win.

Another Newcomer Gets Win

Steelers' wide receiver Lynn Swann, who caught two touchdown passes, was pleased with the win.

Swann said that the team had been working hard all season to get to the Super Bowl, and he was happy that they finally made it.

Oral History Of Team Is Rising To The Top

This was supposed to be the year that the Pittsburgh Steelers were going to break through and win the Super Bowl. They had been to the playoffs the past three years, but they had never won a championship.

This year, the team was led by Terry Bradshaw, who had been on the team for six years. Bradshaw had been the starting quarterback since 1970, and he had led the team to the playoffs every year since then.

But this year, the team was different. They had a new coach, Chuck Noll, and they had a new offensive strategy. The team was also much better in the trenches, and they had a much better defense.

The team was also much better in the trenches, and they had a much better defense. The team was also much better in the trenches, and they had a much better defense. School District Levies Up For Vote Tuesday

By Stan Anderson

The school district is up for vote Tuesday, and if you’re not careful, you could end up paying big time.

Voters will decide whether or not to approve a $500,000 bond issue to improve the district’s schools. If approved, the bond will provide for the construction of new classrooms, modernization of existing buildings, and the purchase of new equipment.

However, if the bond is not approved, the district will continue to struggle with overcrowded classrooms and outdated facilities.

"This is a crucial moment for our schools," said Superintendent Jane Doe. "We need your support to ensure that our students have the best possible education."
