Kennedy Won’t Drop From Race, He Says

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (UPI) - Senator Edward Kennedy, who is running for the Democratic presidential nomination, said yesterday he wasn’t going to drop out of the race.

"I’m running," Kennedy said on "How’s the News," a daily radio show on WOR-AM in New York. "I want to see the country figures on the map, not the candidates."

Kennedy said he was convinced it was a serious race.

NEW YORK (UPI) - Ronald Reagan won a narrow victory in Illinois yesterday to prop up his campaign for the Republican presidential nomination. He is now 440,000 votes ahead of his nearest rival, Senator John McCain.

Reagan, who had been trailing in the polls, won the Republican primary in Illinois with 52 percent of the vote, to 48 percent for McCain.

Reagan said he was "very pleased" with the results and predicted he would win the nomination.

McCain, who had been expected to win the state, conceded defeat.

"This is a disappointment," he said. "But we are going to keep fighting."

California, which held its primary on the same day, is expected to produce similar results.

In other news, Senator Kennedy, who is running for the Democratic nomination, said he was convinced it was a serious race.

Kennedy Charges On

ROBERTS, N.Y. (UPI) — Sen. Edward Kennedy, campaigning in the state that has voted for the past three presidential candidates, has charged that his Democratic opponent, Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, is using "dirty tricks" to defeat him.

"Well, this is the third time," he told a crowd of 250 in Rochester. "Rockefeller was planning to use a dirty tricks campaign in Florida, but was forced to stop by a federal judge. He's about to try it again here." He said voters should be warned of "an old-fashioned smear campaign." Rockefeller aides denied any such charge.

It's Balanced, But...

WASHINGTON, D.C. (UPI) — Balanced budgets are a good idea, but not if they mean reducing social security benefits, reducing educational programs and taking money away from veterans, according to Rep. John Anderson.

The congressman, who is challenging President Ford for the Republican nomination, called the budget cuts a "disaster" and said they would be replaced by a "judicious" use of government dollars.

Reinstatement Sought For Fines

WASHINGTON, D.C. (UPI) — The Justice Department is seeking the reinstatement of a federal judge who was summarily dismissed in 1977 for his views on civil rights.

The judge, who was fired by President Ford, was later reinstated by a court. The Justice Department said the judge had acted in the best interests of the nation.

No Aid Cutoff Asked

WASHINGTON, D.C. (UPI) — The State Department has asked the U.S. Congress to restore aid to several African nations that were cut off after the unitary government was established.

The aid was cut off because of the unitary government's policies, which are considered offensive to the United States. The State Department said the aid is essential for military assistance and development.
