Strong Winds Lift Roof From Motel

Oklahoma City — Strong winds sent the roof of a West Oklahoma City motel sailing through the air Saturday afternoon, causing extensive damage and forcing motel residents to spend the night in their cars.

A 65-year-old man was hurt at the Days Inn, 4605 S. Meridian, except for two people who remained inside from flying glass.

Unofficial reports of damage from Oklahoma City officials Thursday night, when the motel was downed, but most were limited to ripped up shingles, blown out windows, broken doors, smashed windows, billboards and other such incidents.

Despite the extensive damage to the motel, motel manager Harry W. Williams said a detailed report had not yet been completed because the hotel was still searching for the cause of the storm.

The motel was closed for the night and the 70 guests who were inside at the time were moved to the Days Inn on S. Western.

The roof was last seen on a 3-lane lane from the motel 200 feet.

Ailing Shah Jets To Egypt

Panama City, Panama — The ailing shah of Iran, in need of surgery, jetted from Panama to Egypt Sunday, as the fragile monarch’s health continued to deteriorate, according to sources close to the Iranian government.

Panama officials said they believed the shah, who is in his 70s, had been rushed to Egypt at his own request and that he was expected to undergo heart surgery in Cairo.

The Iranian government has not confirmed the shah’s departure or the reason for it, but several sources have said he was seeking medical treatment in Egypt.

The shah’s health has been a source of concern for many years, with his weight reportedly dropping to 100 pounds.

Mother Discovers With Grief That Law Works Against Her

By Leslie White

MADISON, Tenn. (AP) — Sally Benson learned something about the justice system she never expected: that the law is not always on one’s side.

She found out the hard way as she sat in a Tennessee jail, unable to post bail to make it home to her family. Benson, 23, was arrested in a traffic stop and held for more than 20 hours before she was released on $1,500 bond.

"It's really frustrating," Benson said. "I thought I was going to make a mistake, but I didn't. And now I'm here and I can't see my family.

Benson, a college student, was caught for a traffic violation in a Poorhouse Court, a unique system in Tennessee that implements a "no-jail policy," meaning people are not thrown in jail for minor offenses unless they cannot afford bail.

"I was just really shocked," Benson said. "I thought I was going to be home in a few hours, but instead I'm here and I can't see my family.
