Hatch Found Guilty
In Okarche Murders

EL RENO (OMPI)—A judge Wednesday found Jerome Flaherty, former owner of a bar and restaurant in Okarche, guilty of first-degree murder and sentenced him to 60 years in prison.

Mr. Flaherty was found guilty of the murder of a 77-year-old woman who was shot and killed in the bar.

The trial lasted four days, and the jury deliberated for over 12 hours before reaching a verdict.

The victim was a local businesswoman who had been killed in the bar.

The Oklahoma City police and the FBI were involved in the investigation.

The case was one of the most violent in Oklahoma history.

Intelligence Updates On Afghanistan, Iran

WASHINGTON — Intelligence reports have been received by the American government that suggest Afghan and Iranian military forces are coordinating activities in Afghanistan. This information was relayed by sources close to President Obama and his administration, who have been monitoring the situation closely.

According to the reports, the two countries are working together to establish a foothold in the region, with Afghan forces providing the ground support and Iranian forces providing the air cover.

"This is a serious development," said a senior administration official. "We are working closely with our allies to monitor the situation and develop strategies to counter these efforts."

Latest Wave Of Smoker Research:

High Tars Taking Back Seat To Merit.

Smokers acclaim low tar MERIT as taste alternative to high tar brands.

MERIT: Proven Long Term Alternative To High Tar Brands.

New national smoker study results prove it.

Proof: The overwhelming majority of MERIT smokers polled feel they didn't sacrifice taste in switching from high tar cigarettes.

Proof: 96% of MERIT smokers don't miss former high tar brands.

Proof: 9 out of 10 enjoy smoking as much since switching to MERIT, are glad they switched, and report MERIT is the best tasting low tar they've ever tried.

Smokers Prefer MERIT 3 To 1!

New taste tests with thousands of smokers prove it.

Proof: A significant majority of smokers rate MERIT taste as good as—or better than—leading high tar brands. Even cigarettes having twice the tar!

Proof: Of the 95% stating a preference, 3 out of 4 smokers chose the MERIT low tar/good taste combination over high tar leaders when tar levels were revealed.

You've read the results. The conclusion is clearer than ever: MERIT delivers a winning combination of taste and low tar.

A combination that's attracting more and more smokers every day and—more importantly—satisfying them long term.

Salk Feels Institute More Vital Than Vaccine

LA JOLLA, Calif. (AP) - Dr. Jonas Salk, the developer of the polio vaccine, feels the Salk Institute for Biological Studies in La Jolla is more vital to the future of the country than the vaccine he created.

"The institute, I believe, is more important to the future of mankind than the vaccine," Salk said in an interview.

Salk, who developed the vaccine to prevent polio, said the institute's work is essential for understanding and combating diseases.

"The institute is not only important to our country, but it is important to the world," Salk said.

The institute's work has been important in combating diseases like cancer and AIDS.

"I feel that the institute is more important than the vaccine," Salk said. "It is the future of mankind that is at stake."

Stock Prices Take Dip

By Global Press

Stocks on the New York Stock Exchange took a dip today, with the Dow Jones Industrial Average dropping 20 points. The market was down due to concerns about the global economy and rising interest rates. Financial analysts advised investors to diversify their portfolios. The NASDAQ Composite Index also saw a decrease, with technology stocks leading the decline. Overall, investors were cautious and kept a close eye on market movements. The next trading day will be crucial in determining whether this trend continues.
