Tax Law Called "Ridiculous"

By Ray McCreary
OKLAHOMA CITY (UPI) — The attorney general's office has filed a lawsuit challenging the constitutionality of a state income tax law, which is under review by the state Supreme Court.

The suit was filed in the Oklahoma County Court on behalf of 1,000 individuals interested in tax reform. The suit seeks a determination that the tax law is unconstitutional and that the state should not be required to collect the tax.

The suit is the latest in a series of legal challenges to the state's tax system, which has been the subject of controversy for years.

The state's income tax system has been under attack for years, with critics saying it is too complicated and burdensome for taxpayers. The suit seeks to end the tax system and replace it with a simpler system.

Christian Gathering Rivals Pope’s Visit

By David Aronson

WASHINGTON — When Pope John Paul II arrived here on Feb. 3, he was greeted by a throng of devout Catholics. The statue, which was a gift from the Vatican to the United States Catholic Church, was unveiled at a ceremony attended by church leaders and members of the public.

The statue was a gift of the Pope to the United States Catholic Church, which he visited in 1979 and 1980. It is a replica of the statue of the Pope that stands in St. Peter’s Basilica in Rome.

The event included a mass celebrated by the Pope, which was attended by thousands of people. The Pope spoke about the importance of prayer and the role of the church in society.

Go-Go Past No Embarrassment For Barbeau

A few days ago, we were talking about the need for women to dress in a way that suits their age and personality, rather than following the latest trends. I think that this is especially true in fashion, where women often feel pressured to wear clothes that are not necessarily flattering or comfortable. Instead, we should focus on finding clothes that complement our natural beauty and enhance our individuality. This way, we can feel confident and comfortable in our own skin, regardless of what others might think. It's all about self-love and self-acceptance.
