ST. HELENS Erupts, KILLS 5

Fires, Floods Follow Blast

It was not known for certain how the deaths occurred but it was believed that some were caused by mudflows or the occupants of some buildings were overcome by asphyxiation or asphyxiation and hot gases.

"We've got at least six helicopters and several airplanes for the Air National Guard in the area," Major D. G. "Cal" Gage, chief of the Civil Defense, said.

"The damage to property is estimated at more than $100 million," he said. "Two of the major industrial plants in the area are closed."
Prizewords Jackpot $950

Puzzle No. 23
Prize Worth
$950

Train Derails

Volcano Damage

From Page One

Mount St. Helens Erupts

European Sanctions Light

Thursday Deadline For Puzzle Entries

Cuba Bids A Harsh Farewell To Refugees

U.S. Arms Intended For China

Brezhnev To Meet With French President

Anti-American Riots Hit Berlin

Coalition Rule Due In Japan?

Uganda Names Cabinet

Poll Gives Lead To Secessionists
Vows Exchanged, Homes Planned By Pairs

Here Are Ideas To Fix Up Your Sewing Area

Pope Celebrates Birthday

Military Chemicals Shipped

Business News In Brief

Bus Fares May Go Up On COTPA Routes

Alcoholic Track

Alcohol, Water Fuel This Pickup

Two Killed On U.S. 30

City Youth Turns Self In To Police

State To Get Poison Suspect

Mail Votes Discontinued

Junior Stylists

Decker & Sons TV & Appliance

LUNDI CLEAN-SWEEP SALE

JUNIOR STYLISTS

SALE! SALE!

CARRIED YOUR ENTIRE HOME

HOLIDAY SQUARE WELCOMES

4 THE JOURNAL, MONDAY, MAY 19, 1986
Editorials

More On 'Princess'

You may have heard of Princess 'Cathedral Heights' - the newest and most exclusive development in the city. It's a community that's designed to cater to the needs of today's modern urbanite. With its state-of-the-art fitness center, gourmet restaurant, and luxurious spa, Cathedral Heights is the perfect place to live for those who value convenience and style.

Stamp Out Agression

Contrary to what the media might lead you to believe, there is such a thing as a reasonable response to aggression. It's important to remember that our society cannot simply dismiss aggression as a natural part of human behavior. We must take a proactive approach to stamping out aggression and promoting peace.

Auto Dealers Should Try Hard Sell

It's true that the auto industry is facing tough times, but that doesn't mean that dealerships should resort to aggressive tactics to make a sale. Instead, dealerships should prioritize honesty and integrity in their interactions with customers. This will not only benefit the dealership in the long run, but also create a positive experience for the customer.

Billy Graham

Dear Reader,

I am writing to you today to discuss the recent controversy surrounding Cuba. As a Christian, I believe that it is important for us to understand the complex issues at play and to approach the situation with compassion and wisdom. It is crucial that we engage in open and honest discussions with the Cuban government to work towards a resolution that benefits both countries.

Paul Harvey

Cuban Refugees May Impoverish U.S.

The influx of Cuban refugees has raised concerns about the potential impact on the U.S. economy. While the initial numbers are small, there is a possibility that this trend could continue in the future. It is important for us to consider the long-term implications of this development and to develop policies that address these concerns.

Julian Bond

Where Does Andy Stand?

The recent political events have left many people wondering about the position of Andy. While some may view him as a liberal, others see him as a conservative. It's important for us to have clear and concise information about Andy's stance on various issues in order to make informed decisions.

Pizza And The Mob: National Indigestion?

Washington - In a battle with the FBI, pizza company owner has been charged with racketeering. The case, which stems from allegations of mob influence in the industry, highlights the ongoing struggle between law enforcement and organized crime. The defendant, who operates a chain of pizza restaurants, is accused of using his business as a front for criminal activities.

Jack Anderson

To break up the Teamsters Center because of the alleged racketeering is based on trumped-up charges, according to White House sources. President Ford has rejected the Justice Department's recommendation that the Teamsters be broken up. The President's action was a reaction to the political pressure that he had exerted on Attorney General Civin to drop the prosecution.

Sylvia Porter

Credit Card Crackdown Cooling Off Consumers

A recent crackdown on credit card companies has been expected to have a significant impact on consumers. However, it seems that the effect of this change may not be as substantial as anticipated. The companies have been able to maintain their profitability despite the new regulations.

Julian Bond

Where Does Andy Stand?

New York (N.Y.) - Jake Dole, Andy's campaign manager, has revealed that Andy's position on the issue of national security is still under review. According to Dole, Andy is considering all possible options, including a more moderate approach. It remains to be seen how Andy will ultimately position himself on this issue.

An Analysis

According to exit polls, the political landscape significantly affected by the recent political events. The rise of new political leaders and the decline of establishment figures have contributed to a shift in the political climate. This development has created a new opportunity for candidates who can demonstrate a fresh approach to governance.

Book Bares Secret White House Fund

The new book, "The President's Club," has revealed a shocking secret about the White House. According to the book, a secret fund was set up to support various political campaigns. This information has raised concerns about the role of private funds in the political process. The book's author has been criticized for not providing evidence to support these claims, but it has sparked a heated debate among political analysts.
Crawdad Fishin’ On A Sunday Afternoon

Like every day of the sea known, patience is the key to a good fishing story. Many times it is a good way to get bored. But at least you have a story to tell.

Sex Scenes Hardest To Do

About People

Central State Awards Degrees To 1,562

The Journal, Monday, May 12, 1980

Staf Photos By Jana Birchum

Crawdad Fishin’ On A Sunday Afternoon

Sex Scenes Hardest To Do

Central State Awards Degrees To 1,562
Lietzke Winner On Final Hole
Outduels Crenshaw
For Colonial Title

By John Solcer

The Oklahoma Journal

SPORTS

SUNDAY, MARCH 15, 1981

854,000 Richer

Lyle, Rangers
Shade Yankees
In Tenth, 5-4

By Carl Willett

$85,000 Richer

Welch Licks Control Woes Too

By Ed Mezey

AFL-CIO Backs Fair Housing Act

By Charles Babington

Indians Ease By Erring 89ers In 12th, 5-4

By Peter C. Pmathrmar

Peaceful Setting

"Back to a happy place to peaceful moments with nature at the pond..."
SPORTSLOG

German Title To Solomon

White Wins LPGA Event

Strike Isn't World's End

McEnroe, Connors Romp To Easy Victories

Abel Signs Texas Ace

McClure Wins Racquetball

Titan Pair Lead All-Metro Squad

Jimmy Dumps Dibbs In Straight Sets

Rookies, Former Champs Dominate Lineup At Indy

Royal Scramble
How Sweet It Is For Lakers...

Producer George M. Cohan's 1908 musical, "How Sweet It Is" is being staged to mark the return of the Lakers to the Western Conference finals. The show, which won the Pulitzer Prize, is a classic Broadway musical. The plot revolves around a young man who wins a fortune in the lottery and uses it to buy a hotel. The musical is known for its catchy tunes and humorous dialogue, and it has been revived several times since its premiere. The production is being directed by John Travolta, who has previously directed "Can't Stop the Music." Travolta is known for his work in films and television, and he was recently nominated for an Oscar for his role in "La La Land." The show is currently playing at the Shubert Theatre in New York City.
Introducing Cambridge Box:

The lowest tar ever.

Discover Cambridge contention. The very special satisfaction of knowing that with Cambridge Box—less than 0.1 mg tar—you're getting the lowest tar cigarette ever made, yet still enjoying the unique pleasures of smoking.

Also available in Soft Pack and 100's.

Ultra low 1 mg Soft Pack, 4 mg 100's.