CARTER WRAPS UP NOMINATION

Kennedy Vows To Continue

Kennedy plans to wrap up his presidential campaign at the final round of the 1968 primaries Tuesday in South Dakota, where he needs victory to win the Democratic nomination. The two candidates are running almost in stagger in the state and the race is too close to call. The gap on Wednesday was widening in the race for the Democratic nomination as Kennedy preparations were made. Kennedy's campaign officials said they would not call on anyone in the state to challenge the battle for the nomination.

Charlie's Mad, Too
By Kirkland

Oklahoma City — Charlie "Mad Dog" Rogers was hitting the gym this week and proved his staying power.

"I'm not retired, I'm just not the same," Rogers said after his workout. "I'm a little tired now, but I'll be ready for anything that comes my way."

Rogers, who is known for his aggressive style in the ring, has not fought in over a year due to a series of injuries. He said his training regimen includes weightlifting, cardio, and boxing drills.

"I know I'm not as fast as I used to be, but I'm still strong and determined," said Rogers. "I'm ready to make a comeback and prove that I'm still a force to be reckoned with."
A Right To Life?

The Legal Aspects:

By Jbid

The legal aspects of abortion have been hotly debated in recent years, with many arguing that it is a matter of individual choice and others believing that it should be illegal. Proponents of abortion argue that it is a constitutional right and that women should have the ability to make decisions about their own bodies. Opponents argue that abortion is a slippery slope and that it leads to other forms of reproductive interference. The Supreme Court has ruled on this issue multiple times, with the most recent decision being Roe v. Wade in 1973, which established a woman's right to choose to have an abortion. However, the legality of abortion varies from state to state. It is important for individuals to understand the laws in their own states and to be educated on the topic of abortion in order to make informed decisions.

Life Or Death: The Moral Aspects

By Jbid

When it comes to the issue of abortion, there are many different opinions and beliefs. Some believe that it is a moral issue and should be handled as such, while others believe that it is a legal issue and should be handled as such. It is important to consider the moral and ethical implications of abortion when making decisions on the matter. It is also important to consider the impact that abortion has on the individuals who choose to have one and on society as a whole. It is important to engage in open and respectful discussions on this topic in order to better understand the perspectives of others and to work towards finding solutions that are fair and just for all.

Teen Pregnancy Concern

I think it's so wonderful that the first lady of the United States is coming to our city to help support the Young Women's Council on Family Life. It's amazing that she's taking the time to come here and talk to us about such an important issue. I hope that her visit will help to raise awareness and encourage more people to take action. It's crucial that we work together to support young mothers and their families.

Refugees Embarrassment To Reds

As citizens of the United States, we must stand up against any discrimination or prejudice towards our fellow humans. The recent events in Europe have shown the incredible and heart-breaking conditions that refugees are facing. It is shamefully shameful for our leaders to focus on economic gains over the needs of those in need. We must support refugees and create a welcoming environment for them in our own country.

Richard Pryor Of Soul

By Larry Lee Mitten

Richard Pryor of Soul, the comedian, is in a lot of trouble these days. Not the kind of trouble he wants, but trouble anyway. Pryor is accused of being a hoodlum, a thug, a. . . well, you get the point. It’s not the kind of reputation a comedian wants to have.

But Pryor is not alone. Other comedians are also in trouble. The late John Belushi, for example, was accused of being a drug user. And George Carlin, another famous comedian, was recently arrested for disorderly conduct.

The problem is that comedians have to be careful what they say on stage. If they say something that offends someone, they can get into trouble. And if they get into trouble, it’s not just a matter of being funny anymore.

But Pryor is not the only one who has to watch what he says. Other comedians have to think about their reputation too. And that’s not easy to do when you’re trying to make people laugh.

There Is Group Insurance For Small Businesses

Sylvia Porter

If you're among the lucky small business owners who don't have group health insurance, you might be wondering if there's a policy that pays a static amount for any medical expenses you incur. Such a policy can be cheaper than individual policies and may offer better coverage. However, it's important to compare the options available to determine what best suits your needs.

Israelis Stop Arab Strike

JERUSALEM (AP) — Israeli security forces Tuesday stopped a major Arab strike that had threatened to further escalate tensions in the volatile region. The police said that no injuries were reported.

The strike, which was called by Arab leaders in protest against the transfer of Jewish settlements into Arab areas, had already caused several deaths and injuries.

Dolly Opens Lyric Season

By Gene Trippe

Entertainment Writer

The Lyric Theatre will be the 1989 season opener for Dolly Parton, opening on March 10. The musical, based on the story of Dolly’s life, will be staged at the Grand Ole Opry House in Nashville. The musical is directed by Jack Laidlaw, with choreography by Jerry Marotta. The show stars Dolly Parton as her character, with the role of her mother played by Brenda Vaccaro. The cast also includes Kristin Chenoweth as Dolly’s sister and Mandi Mixon as Dolly’s younger sister.

The musical will run for 17 performances, with matinees on Saturday and Sunday. The show will be presented at the Lyric Theatre, 425 N. Broadway, in Lebanon.

Dolly Parton will be in attendance for the opening night performance on March 10. The show will feature Dolly’s hits, including “Jolene,” “9 to 5,” and “Heartbreaker.”

The show is directed by the award-winning team of director Jack Laidlaw and choreographer Jerry Marotta. The cast is led by Kristin Chenoweth as Dolly’s sister and Mandi Mixon as Dolly’s younger sister. The show features Dolly’s hits, including “Jolene,” “9 to 5,” and “Heartbreaker.”
