African Police Kill 10

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — Police responding to a suspected burglary found a naked woman lying in somebody else's home. She fought off the officers with a cast of a hair dryer, but two of them were shot dead. Police said Tuesday they still don't know what the woman was or what she was doing at the house, whose owner was unaccounted for. She apparently entered by breaking a window pane on the front. They believe she has a mental illness, said Lt. John Botha.

Circus Returns To The Myriad

By Gaten Tidwell

Entertainment Writer

A breezy mixture of acrobats, laughter and delightful melodies fill the air in the Majestic Theater of Oklahoma City for the final week of the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus. The show ends Sunday, June 30.

The ringmaster, a 36-year-old Swede, is part of the team that has traveled the world for years. He is known for his ability to handle a large crowd and create an atmosphere of excitement. The performers are a mix of American and international acts, all trained to perfection.

The show features a variety of acts, including a trapeze artist, a clown and a magician. The highlight of the show is the parade of animals, which includes elephants, lions, tigers and monkeys.

The final weekend of the circus will be filled with laughter, gasps of wonder and the smell of popcorn. Don't miss out on the last chance to see this spectacular show. Tickets are still available at the Majestic Theater box office or online at www.ringlingbrothers.com.
