ABORTION, ERA BATTLE BREWING
Hard Right Urged By GOP Group

By Cliff E. Richards
UPI Political Writer

DALLAS (UP) -- A conservative Republican platform committee Tuesday demanded that the party's historic support for women's rights be abandoned in favor of a more masculinized position on abortion.

But a proposed anti-ERA force plateau platform any language requiring support for the guaranteed right of women to work was abandoned.

But it appeared anti-ERA forces threaten a final advertisement by a nationwide GOP conference to criticize President Reagan's ERA commitment. However, the conference was told the ERA ban is needed to preserve the right for women to work.

Smooth Talking Catches Ann Without Wig

By Robert Adelman

When I was a child, my mother always made sure that I wore a wig. She said it was important for me to look presentable. It wasn't until I was older that I realized how much of a burden it must have been for her to constantly care for my wig. It was then that I started to understand the importance of beauty and how it can impact one's self-esteem.

Carter's Saudi Loan Tangles U.S. Policy

WASHINGTON — President Carter's decision to approve a $12 billion loan guaranteed by the United States to the oil-rich country of Saudi Arabia is drawing a barrage of criticism from abroad as well as from some experts here. But it also has encouragement from leaders in Asia and Africa who see the loan as a way to help the world's money woes.

The loan is designed to help meet a $12 billion debt burden the Saudis have accumulated in order to pay for the oil they have sold to the United States. It is the biggest government-to-government loan in history and faces opposition from those who believe it is bad public policy.
Cronkite’s Last Hurrah

NEW YORK (AP) — NBC President Fred Silverman said Wednesday that the network was fired from its show “The World Today,” a daily news program that aired on ABC.

Silverman said the move was made in response to a rise in ratings, particularly in the ratings for the show’s final three months. He said the network was “not happy” about the decision.

The network said it had been working on a new show, “The World Tonight,” that would replace “The World Today.”

The show was scheduled to begin in the spring of 1971.

Casting Of Vanessa Leaves Bitter Feelings

Many fans are disappointed with the casting of Vanessa Williams as the new leading lady on “The World Today,” a daily news program that aired on ABC.

Williams, who was previously known for her role on “The Cosby Show,” was named as the new leading lady in late 1970.

The news of Williams’ casting has been met with mixed reactions. Some fans are excited about the changes, while others are concerned about the direction the show is heading.

Williams has been a favorite with many fans over the years, and her casting has been seen as a major boost to the show.

The show is scheduled to begin in the spring of 1971.

Gary Deeb

Gary Deeb is the executive producer of “The World Today.” He has been with the show for over 10 years and has been responsible for many of its key decisions.

Deeb said that the show was in good hands with Williams as the new leading lady.

“Vanessa is a talented actress who is able to bring a fresh perspective to the show,” Deeb said. “She has the ability to bring a unique voice to the character and make her own mark on the show.”
