Mc Ewen To Resign

By Martin Cook

OKLAHOMA CITY - Communist Mayor Cockey McEwen, the self-styled "Liberals' Choice" who was defeated in the November election, was sworn in yesterday as an Oklahoma County commissioner.

McEwen became the first Oklahoma County commissioner in 40 years to serve in a Democratic capacity. He was sworn in by the state's chief executive officer, the late Chief Justice Jack C. Reynolds, in a ceremony at the county courthouse.

McEwen, who had been a member of the county commission since 1971, was appointed by Governor David Morris to fill the unexpired term of the late Commissioner Frank D. Douglas.

Wasting no time, McEwen announced his intention to resign the commissioner's seat and run for the Oklahoma City mayoral office in the 1974 election.

McEwen said he was "determined to resign" the commissioner's seat to run for mayor, adding that he was "determined to resign" the mayoral office to run for governor in 1976.

McEwen's appointment as commissioner was announced last week by Governor Morris, who appointed McEwen to fill the unexpired term of Commissioner Frank D. Douglas, who died last month.

McEwen's appointment as commissioner was made possible by the fact that the commission had already met and elected a replacement for Douglas.

Big Traffic Jam

WASHINGTON (UPI) - President Carter announced Monday that he would not seek another term in office.

Carter made the announcement during a press conference at the White House. He said he had made the decision after much reflection on his first term's accomplishments.

Carter added his decision was based on a desire to "preserve the integrity of the presidency" and to "prevent the wear and tear of an additional term.

Carter's decision came after he had been criticized by some members of his own party for not doing enough to solve the nation's problems.

Carter's announcement came just days after he had returned from a trip to Latin America, where he had faced criticism from some Latin American leaders.

Carter's decision to not seek another term will likely lead to a contested nomination at the Democratic National Convention in July.

What Happened To Elke?

By Barbara Adams

Elke Stahl, the once glamorous and feisty actress, seems to have disappeared from the public eye. Some say she's retired from show business, while others speculate that she's living in seclusion. Her recent appearances, if any, have been rare and unconfirmed. It's a mystery that eludes the tabloids.

"It's been an uncertain year for many, but Elke Stahl seems to have found a new lease on life," said a friend. "I'm not sure where she is, but I hope she's happy wherever she is."

"We'll always remember her for her roles in 'The Dexter Files' and 'The Man From Nowhere' - classic performances. It's a shame she's not with us anymore," lamented another friend.

' Titanic' Film Should Sink

By Jack Weatherbee

The long-awaited film adaptation of the tragic story of the Titanic's sinking is due to hit the screens in April, but critics are already predicting a disaster. The movie, directed by James Cameron, is expected to be a major box office success, but some are concerned that it may not do justice to the real story.

"The Titanic was an epic tragedy, but this film is a mere pale imitation," said one critic. "It's a shame that the makers of this film couldn't have spent more time researching the facts."

"We need to be careful not to let the film overshadow the real story," said another. "Let's not forget the 1500 people who lost their lives that fateful night."

CIA: Whitewash Show

By Gary Deets

The CIA's decision to release a whitewashed version of the controversial Martin report has sparked outrage among the public. The report, which was released last week, claims that Martin's claims about the CIA's involvement in the JFK assassination were unfounded.

"It's a shame that the government would try to cover up such important information," said one citizen. "We need to know the truth about this."
