Air conditioning, the Indian way, was renounced Monday during the opening day pepale of the 50th annual American Indian Exposition in Anadarko. The two volunteers in the trailer are cocooning themselves with oil in the way that their ancestors did years ago, on the banks of the Washita River. The mudmen entry is the parade's tradition in becoming a tribe in exhibiting the old fashioned way to bear the water. The tradition continues through Saturday. It is only the Indian owned and operated fair and exposition in the country. (Staff Photo by Noah Long)

Tax Funds Withheld?

By Vicky Redick

OKLAHOMA CITY - The vice chairwoman of the Oklahoma Tax Commission was arrested and charged Wednesday with allegedly withholding $2 million to take the money out of the state budget and use it for personal purposes. Mary E. Farms said she had received $2 million from the state and had failed to report the income to the state treasury.

Farms, 62, was arrested and charged Wednesday with stealing $2 million from the state. She was charged with theft, grand larceny and fraud in her office.

The Oklahoma County District Attorney Robert Osborne said the investigation into the fraud case would continue and more arrests may be made. The case involves the operations of the Oklahoma Tax Commission.

"This is a serious violation of the public trust and citizens are entitled to the full disclosure of the state budget and the expenditures of the state," Osborne said.

Farms has been a employee of the commission for 14 years and has been involved in the audit and investigation of tax returns.

"We are not going to discuss the case, as we are awaiting the outcome of the investigation. We are not going to make any public statements at this time," Osborne said.

Farms was released on bond and appears in Oklahoma County District Court on Monday.

Christ Statue Can Stay Put

WASHINGTON (UPI) - A stone marble carving of Christ and other religious structures that the National Park Service had proposed to remove to another location, the White Mountain National Wildlife Refuge, will remain at the site, Interior Secretary
D.C. Andrus announced Wednesday.

Andrus said the decision was made after many years of debate and controversy.

"I am pleased to announce that the White Mountains National Wildlife Refuge will continue to remain in place," Andrus said.

Unfair Attack

Healing The Convention Wounds

NEW YORK—I was about to write a column that would have made Capitol Hill and the White House tremble in fear, when I read the advice columnist's answer to a letter about what to do when you're sick.

"When you're sick, stay in bed," said the advice columnist. "Get plenty of rest." I thought, "Great, now I have a column that nobody will read."

But then I remembered that the advice columnist is not a doctor. I ran to my typewriter and wrote:

"When you're sick, go to the hospital." I'm sure the advice columnist will be flabbergasted when she reads this.

Reasons For Women To Feel Uneasy

NEW YORK CITY—We men are the ones who are uneasy these days. The women are the ones who laugh. Indeed, the women are the ones who laugh.

The women are the ones who laugh. The women are the ones who laugh. The women are the ones who laugh.

Yes, it's true. The women are the ones who laugh. The women are the ones who laugh. The women are the ones who laugh.

But why do the women laugh? It's simple. The women laugh because they know that we men are uneasy these days. The women laugh because they know that we men are uneasy these days.

So, if you're a man and you're feeling uneasy these days, don't worry. Just go out and buy a magazine for women. That will make you feel better.

"Get McGovern’ Campaign Slinging Mud

Jack Anderson

McGovern’s campaign is back to the mud-slinging tactics of his 1972 campaign. This time, McGovern is attacking the policies of President Ford and the Republican Party. He is saying that Ford is not a true friend of the American people.

The attack is aimed at the 1976 election, but it is also looking back to the 1972 campaign. McGovern is saying that Ford is not the real thing.

Workers Face Greatest Tax Burden In History

Sylvia Porter

As a result of dramatic increases in the cost of living due to inflation, the tax burden on working people is greater than ever before.

The cost of living has increased by 15% since 1970, and the average American family has lost $2000 in disposable income. This means that the tax burden on working people is now greater than ever before.

Quote

"I have a theory about living in New York," said a man in a Times Square subway station. "Try to live every day as if it were your last."

"Poetry Leaves Limerick But Friendship Remains"

Sodermich, News (U.S.) — In Limerick, Northern Ireland, the poet-artist left his home, but the songwriter remains.

The Irish poet Paddy O’Neill and the Irish singer Kate O’Neill are leaving their home in Limerick, but they are not leaving their friendship.

We Americans

But the war in Vietnam is over. It is over, and we are free. The war in Vietnam is over. It is over, and we are free.

Legera, the black best friend of the white man, has spoken. "The war in Vietnam is over. It is over, and we are free."
