EXPLOSION RIPS NEVADA CASINO

STAILING, Nev. (UPI) — An explosion ripped through the second floor of a main tower of the Harley Casino Wednesday night, leaving an estimated 50 bodies and an unknown number of injures reported, but witnesses said damage to the building was not excessive.

An estimated one to two explosions occurred at 9:30 p.m. EST.

"We're not sure what caused the explosion," said a spokesman for the Nevada Department of Public Safety.

The casino is located near the intersection of Reno and Virginia avenues.

The building was not damaged, but there were reports of minor injuries.

Take The Time To Write A Complaint Letter

By Martin Seibel

Dear Editor: I have been a long-time customer of your store, and I must say that I am extremely disappointed with the service I received last week. My wife and I were shopping for some basic groceries, and when we approached the checkout, the cashier was not very friendly. She was rude and seemed to be in a hurry, which made the entire shopping experience uncomfortable. We have never had such an experience before, and it left us feeling disrespected. In the past, your store has always been known for its friendly service and excellent customer relations, so this recent incident is a letdown for us. We hope that you will take the necessary steps to ensure that such behavior is not repeated in the future. We will continue to shop at your store, but we will be more vigilant in our observations of the service we receive.

Hints From Heloise

Dear Heloise:

I am writing to you because I am having a difficult time finding the perfect gift for my mother's birthday. She is very particular about what she receives, and I want to make sure that I choose something that she will truly love. I have heard that you are an expert in gift-giving, and I would be grateful if you could provide me with some suggestions.

H. D. of Stamford, Conn.

Dear H. D.,

Thank you for reaching out to me. I understand how challenging it can be to find the right gift, especially when you want to ensure that your loved one receives something they truly enjoy. Here are a few suggestions that might help:

1. Spa Day: Consider purchasing a gift certificate for a local spa. This can be a great way to allow your mother to relax and pamper herself.
2. Book: If your mother is an avid reader, consider purchasing a new book or an e-reader. You can choose a genre that aligns with her interests.
3. Experience: Instead of a physical gift, you could also consider an experience, such as tickets to a concert, theater show, or a live sports event.

I hope these suggestions are helpful. Good luck with your gift-giving!

Ex-Coach Questions Taylor’s Eligibility

By Bob Duncan

The University of Oklahoma has a history of producing standout athletes, but one ex-coach wonders if football player Mark Norris is truly eligible for the team. In a recent interview, Norris expressed his desire to play for the Sooners, stating that he had already been accepted by the university. However, questions remain about his eligibility status.

Norris, who was once a star player at Oklahoma, said in the interview that he had been accepted into the university but that the eligibility issue was still unresolved. "I'm trying to get on the field for Oklahoma and I think that's where my heart is," Norris said.

But there are concerns about Norris’s eligibility. The NCAA has not ruled on his case yet, and some are questioning whether he should be allowed to play for the Sooners. The issue has sparked controversy among fans and experts alike.

"I don’t think it’s fair that he’s been accepted but not allowed to play," said one fan. "He deserves a chance to show what he can do for Oklahoma.

Fambrough Returning Respect To Jayhawks

By Jim Johnson

University of Kansas head coach Charlie Fambrough has been a loyal supporter of the Big 8 Skywriters Association and its annual tour. This year, Fambrough will return the respect with a special event.

Fambrough, who has been a head coach at Kansas for over a decade, has always been a strong advocate for the Skywriters and their work. The association, which consists of writers from various newspapers and websites, has been a staple of college football since its inception.

"I’m honored to be able to host the Skywriters," Fambrough said in a statement. "It’s a great opportunity to show our respect for the hard work they do to cover college football.

Stars Struggle To Open Wins

By Mark McNeely

Several teams are struggling to find their first victory this season. In the Big 8 conference, the University of Oklahoma is one of the teams struggling to win.

"We’re not where we want to be," said Oklahoma head coach Bob Stoops. "But we’re working hard to turn things around. We’re not giving up.

Sooner Defensive End Williams Out For Year

By John Taylor

University of Oklahoma defensive end Tony Williams has been ruled out for the remainder of the season due to an injury. The senior has been a key player for the Sooners in recent years.

"Tony’s injury is disappointing," said head coach Bob Stoops. "But we’ll miss his leadership on the field. We’ll find a way to compensate.

Ovett BETTERS RECORD

By Bill Smith

British athlete Steve Ovett set a world record in the 800-meter run, breaking the previous record by 0.01. Ovett’s time of 1:48.6 is nearly 4 seconds faster than the previous record.

"I’m thrilled to have set a new world record," said Ovett. "I’ve been working hard for this and it’s great to see it come together.

Famously, in 1975, Ovett had the satisfaction of beating Johnny Steinmetz in a heat at the U.S. Olympic Trials. The two had been training partners and were considered almost equal in ability. Ovett had thought he was groomed for greatness, yet Steinmetz had faced this extra worry for the past few months, which had taken a toll on his fitness.

Ovett’s achievement was a testament to his dedication and skill. It was a moment of triumph, but it also served as a reminder of the determination and hard work that goes into achieving greatness.
Reuss Is Keeping Dodgers On Their Toes

Today's Sport Parade
With Mike Riehman, UPI Sports Editor

The tail-blown Dodgers have found a way to keep the Brooklynites on their toes. The team has been on a roll as much as it's ever been before, and the fans are catching a glimpse of their powerhouse. In a recent game, the Dodgers went up against the rival Giants, and even with the Giants' best efforts, the Dodgers emerged victorious. This win not only boosted the team's morale but also brought excitement to the fans. With Reuss leading the way, the Dodgers continue to make a name for themselves in the league. Stay tuned for more updates on the Dodgers' journey to victory.

Economy Picture Not That Bright

WASHINGTON, D.C. - A new study released today shows the economy in a state of mixed signals. The report, commissioned by the Department of Commerce, indicates that while some sectors are showing signs of recovery, others are struggling. The department cited rising inflation, high unemployment, and a weak housing market as major concerns.

The report also highlighted the impact of the ongoing trade war on the economy. The study found that despite efforts to reduce tariffs, the trade deficit remained high. The administration acknowledged the challenges but emphasized its commitment to protecting American workers and industries.

Dollar Is Jumpy; Gold Moves Ahead

By United Press International

The volatile nature of the dollar continued to cause uncertainty in the financial markets. Despite recent gains, the currency has faced pressure from political tensions and economic data. Gold, on the other hand, has maintained its appeal as a safe haven asset. Analysts believe the precious metal could continue to rise as investors seek protection from market volatility.

U.S. To Undergo Rough Recession

Oubre latest in Crescent City connection

By Al Eschbach

NORMAN - It's a farm system that has worked wonders. Two former Oklahomans are doing just that, and one of them, Brian Oubre, is still in line for a big future.

Brian Oubre is a Crescent City connection. He was born in New Orleans and attended Loyola High School, where he met his wife, Linda. They have one child, a daughter named Tiffany, who is a student at the University of Oklahoma.

Brian Oubre is a former football player for the Sooners and was a quarterback on their 1974 national championship team. He also played part-time baseball for the 1974 World Series champions, the New York Yankees.

He was drafted by the NFL's Los Angeles Rams in 1975 and played two seasons for them before being traded to the Cleveland Browns. He also made a brief appearance with the Miami Dolphins in 1977.

Oubre has been coaching football for the past 10 years and is currently the offensive coordinator for the New Orleans Saints.

He is also the father of two sons, Brian Jr. and John, both of whom are also football coaches.

The Oubre family has a long tradition of excellence in sports. Brian Sr. was a star at Loyola High School, and his parents are both former athletes at Tulane University.

Brian Oubre, Sr. was named the head football coach at Loyola University in 1985 and has been there ever since. He has led the team to five NCAA Division II championships and has a record of 308-135-1.

He is also the author of several books on football coaching and has been a contributor to various sports magazines and websites.
By Tom Dirato

"We will be a better team, but our record might not show it." That’s what Coach Bud Wilkinson of the University of Oklahoma has said about his team for the upcoming season.

The Sooners, who won the Big Eight title last year, have had a good off-season, and are expected to be one of the top teams in the conference.

Despite losing a number of starters, Oklahoma is expected to be a strong team. The Sooners have a good mix of experienced players and some talented newcomers.

Oklahoma is scheduled to play its first game of the season on August 28, against the University of Missouri.

Complications crop up for Leidng

By Bob Horsom

There have been three things that have stood out so far this year when Jeff Leidng, who went to college in the mid-1970s at the University of Kansas, has had to make adjustments for school. All-American football players have been blamed for their experiences, leading to the formation of Leidng's defensive system in the NFL.

"It's like a quarterback's hand on his hip for a new offense," says Leidng, who last year was rushed for a total of 1,800 play-calling points by the Dallas Cowboys.

It's a lot more complicated than it was in high school. The linebacks here are more like a defensive tackle and in the NFL, Leidng says, "You have to be a little more patient."

NFL Trade Wrapup

Stabler-Pastorini Top Swap For 1980

NEW YORK (UPI) - Last January, after a second straight loss to New York Giants quarterback Tim Stabler, Oakland Raiders coach Tom Flores decided to trade quarterback Daryle Lamonica for another quarterback in a deal that would eventually cost the Raiders $3.25 million in franchise value.

Flores, who was African American, highlighted a flurry of NFL trades involving none of the NFL's most familiar names.

Stabler, an exciting four-time Pro Bowler who has been hurt by injuries, has been on the bench and he is being counted on to keep the Raiders competitive against the San Francisco 49ers and the Los Angeles Rams.

With Campbell, Stabler can be deadly," says Flores. "In his year, he has taken away the pressure and I think he has been very consistent.

But even Oakland coach Tom Flores says of his coaching staff, "It's a whole new ballgame down there."
Years been kind to Van Buren

But over, inside the man, there is loneliness.
His wife, Grace, died nearly two years ago.
Without her, Van Buren spends his time in a Latonia County (Ky.) antique shop, which he owns and manages, and planning his ultimate return to the mind, handicapping throughout here.

There is not much genuine lead in Van Buren's team. He's paid no attention to the mock内の "You're not bitter at all," he said, as a sign of another, younger, more energetic last month. "I have lost it at the races, anyway."

Van Buren was the club's coach and general No. 1 draft choice. "I had my appendix out at the 1964 College All-Star Game," he recalled. "I signed my contract in a hospital in Chicago. It was for $4,800 with no bonus. It was all right for those days. I was 30".

Van Buren, who was 29 when he signed the contract, said he was in better shape than his younger self. "The last two years, I played with 11 or 12 slate of Novacisia every game. At one time, I even played with a leash, unadorned, all on the same side.

"I was playing like I was hurt. I really didn't play good after '66. It was my decision to play. (Cindy Greasy) (No. 11) filled it up to the 060 teams. I was hurt, some of the guys, after talking me."

I was grueling and, the other guys felt sorry for me.

"The worst I felt was after practice. I'd have theiona, thec and practice and run on it. When the Novacisia wore off, I would be killing."

"Then I died, and after finishing the draft, and after finishing the draft, I'd get up for a meal of turkey and, after finishing the draft, I'd get up for a meal of turkey."

"I used to drive the car, and the only time I used to drive the car, I would hit the hole."

"Then I heard about the defense and every dirty trick at Steve Van Buren. But, in eight-pass-wrecked season, Van Buren became a legend of power and speed and strength.

"Remember, he went over 2,000 yards twice in 1972 when teams played a short schedule, and regular-season games and two play-off games."

There was wild men on defense. The night before the season, I was fighting a local from the city.

"We were strong and a real good football player," Van Buren said. "He wrestled during the off-season. He was 6-4 and about 260. They didn't like the night, they didn't like the night, they didn't like the night."

"They were the best team that day. (Charlie) (No. 1) Angman ran good, and they beat us, 26-21."

"The next year, we played them again here."

"I gained 100 yards and scored the only touchdown. It was just as off-balance, I ran instead of outside. I had hardly gotten to the line when he had it. Everybody for years, would kill me how I should have run (for touchdowns). Actually, I was hardly touched."

"It was all right, and only gained 10 yards against the Cubs."

"I was walking a touchdown from the one. He was in the end zone, and somebody smashed into me. I broke my leg, and after that I couldn't stand up on it."

"They were the best team that day. (Charlie)"

Lincoln. So in reality, it wouldn't be that hard for the Bengals to go after the players if they got the breath.

If Oklahoma goes undefeated, it will be the national championship because it plays one of the most demanding schedules in the land and exactly this past week on ABC TV were its presentation to the nation's top college football fans. Of course, it might be the last chance for a team to make its season any easier.

Redland Oklahoma's schedule is not just as good, but it is a lot tougher to make a season any easier.

And let's not overlook Nebraska's home schedule. It goes Oklahoma State, Missouri and OU.

Ringo Feels Both DeLam, Hannah Great

Q. I noticed that in an All-Pro team picked recently by the Associated Press, at Oklahoma and John Hadac of New England was picked for the first team and John Hadac of New England was picked for the second team. I always thought Hannah was right. Is that true?

A. I have no idea who's right or wrong. I can't say with any authority. I'm not the one who makes the picks.

The Kansas State player who made the picks was a coach from Oklahoma and the Oklahoma coach who made the picks was a coach from New England.

An informal survey of college football coaches in the Big Ten, Southern Conference and the Southwest Conference indicates that the coaches have different views on the subject of recruiting.

For an authoritative source, you should consult the NCAA or the American Football Coaches Association.

Murray Olderman

head coach and general manager. So, he had to go to the top leadership at the University of Oklahoma.

The move to the University of Oklahoma was a natural progression from the Nebraska job. From Nebraska, he moved to the University of Oklahoma, then to the University of Wisconsin, and finally to the University of Oklahoma.

NEW YORK (AP) - The cost of living in the city is much lower than in the suburbs. This is especially true for single people or those with small families. However, the cost of living in the city can be much higher for families with children. In the suburbs, there are often more affordable housing options available.
