Fingerprint Expert Only ‘Needs A Hand’

By Sheila Moomen
Staff Writer
LINCOLN, Neb. — It took 10 hours to get to the fingerprint expert on the road from the Nebraska State Penitentiary. The expert had to be in Lincoln for a meeting, and the experts at the penitentiary had to transport him to the main state prison. The expert was needed to identify the suspect in the murder of a guard. The suspect had been taken into custody after a 10-hour search. The expert had to identify the suspect’s fingerprints to determine if they matched those found at the scene of the crime. The expert arrived in Lincoln at 3 a.m., and the suspect was identified at 4 a.m. The suspect was charged with murder and was taken to jail. The expert was grateful to have been able to help solve the case. He said he would like to return to the penitentiary to identify more suspects.

MUSKIE URGES ‘EARLY RELEASE’ OF HOSTAGES

By United Press International
WASHINGTON, D.C. — Senator Ted Kennedy, Democrat of Massachusetts, called for the release of the hostages held by the Islamic Fundamentalists in Lebanon. Kennedy said the hostages should be released immediately, and that the United States should work with other countries to ensure the hostages’ safety. The Islamic Fundamentalists have been holding the hostages for more than two months. Kennedy said the United States should not use military force to try to free the hostages. He said the United States should work with other countries to find a diplomatic solution to the crisis.

State Inmates Take Part In Record Album

By Lawrence G. Gross
OKLAHOMA CITY — The Oklahoma State Penitentiary has recorded a new album with inmates. The album, titled “Inmates of the State,” features songs written and performed by the inmates. The album is available for purchase at the prison’s gift shop. The album includes a variety of genres, including rock, country, and rap. The inmates were given the opportunity to record their own music, and they worked closely with the production team to create the final product. The album is being promoted as a way to help inmates find a new purpose and to give them an outlet for their creative talents.
